

I hereby certify that no motion or resolution has been printed or verbal, against the subject of the Hon. N. C. Wallace, or for or against any one else, was placed in my hands or passed at the meeting held at Fenelon Falls on the 8th of June, 1896; and the small sheet in circulation, without date or signature, containing a resolution said to have been passed at said meeting condemning the Hon. N. C. Wallace, is not true.

J. D. NAYLOR, Chairman.

Fenelon Falls, June 10th 1896.

The above circular (which has appeared in the Mail and Empire with the statement that the audience numbered three thousand) is only an addition to the long list of proofs that Sam Hughes is utterly lost to all sense of truthfulness and honor, and like Tupper, will adopt any means, no matter how disgraceful, to gain his end. The resolution was read by the mover, who, at a nod from Sam, mounted a bench after fully one-half of the audience had left the rink, which was comparatively empty by the time he had finished. The resolution was composed and written with a type-writer (probably at Lindsay) before the meeting was held, and the "overwhelming majority" that carried it was composed almost entirely of the band of shouters who remained for the purpose. In an interview with an Ottawa correspondent of the Mail and Empire Sam Hughes said that after the Orange meeting at Collingwood Clarke Wallace and his few confederates sneaked off alone to the station, while scores cheered Robert Birmingham and Sam and their friends and escorted them to the train; but the editor of the Port Hope Guide, who happened to be at the station at the time, says that the major's statement was false, and adds: "If we were called upon to name the three greatest liars in Canada, we would say that Bro Sam was one and Sir Charles Tupper the other two." Many will think that the Guide is right; others, that Sam and not Tupper ought to be given the majority.

Election Meeting at Bobcaygeon.

A meeting was held in the town hall, Bobcaygeon, on Wednesday evening, the 3rd inst., in the interest of Mr. George McHugh, the Reform candidate. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. John Junkin, T. Stewart, Hon. John Dryden and the candidate. Mr. John Wilson occupied the chair. On the platform, besides those mentioned, were Mr. Jas. Junkin and Mr. D. R. Anderson, secretary of the South Victoria Reform Association. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed. The Hon. John Dryden, who was the speaker of the evening, delivered a powerful and convincing address of an hour and three quarters in a calm and dispassionate manner, arraigning the Government on the school question, extravagance and corruption, as well as their fiscal policy, and was warmly applauded. Mr. Stewart closed the meeting with an appeal to the electors to heartily support Mr. McHugh, and to see that he triumphantly returned on the 23rd of June. A feature of the evening was the presence of Mr. Charles Fairbairn, the late member, who was invited by the chairman to a seat on the platform, which he declined, and, after listening to the Hon. Mr. Dryden's scolding or rather scorching of the Government, he left without offering one word in their defence. The general verdict of the meeting was—"nothing to say." It was conceded by all that it was the most encouraging meeting ever held in Bobcaygeon in the cause of reform. "Coming events cast their shadows before."

Personals.

Mrs. E. Luke of Oshawa has been at the Falls since Friday last visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. Clark, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, who came to the Falls from Alpena, Mich., about a year ago, left on Monday for Mequoninc, a town of about 10,000 inhabitants in the same State. During their brief residence here they made many friends, by whom their removal is much regretted.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Delamere of Minden were at the Falls from Monday morning until Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. H. N. McDougall, who left the Falls about fourteen months ago for Minnedosa, Manitoba, returned on Monday.

Dr. W. G. Bryson of Chicago and his daughter Frances, of Peterborough, were at the Falls from Monday until yesterday morning.

Powles's Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The meeting held here last Friday evening in the interest of Major Sam Hughes was well attended, but there were half that had no votes, mostly school children, and about two-thirds of the balance were clear grits, who will on the 23rd cast their votes for freedom, honesty and national schools for Manitoba. When the time arrived to open the meeting Mr. E. Worsley was elected chairman, and discharged his duty well under the circumstances. Mr. Geo. S. Houston of Norland was the only representative, and all he said did not amount to anything, and Mr. James Dickson was present on behalf of Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, the Liberal candidate. Mr. J. B. Powles asked Mr. Houston a few questions which nearly paralyzed him.

A good many from this locality went down on Monday evening to hear N. Clarke Wallace, and every one pronounced it a good treat.

R. J. McLaughlin will roost in the parliament coop, and Sam will be in the soup, Hurrah! Hurrah!

RAIN.—Since this time last week a good deal of rain has fallen and all crops are looking well, with the exception of hay, of which, however, there will be a sufficiency if we have two or three copious showers during the next month.

NEXT to style comes quality. In style and quality we cannot be surpassed. Newest styles and best quality at Mrs. R. McDougall's.—14.

DENTAL.—Dr. Neelands, dentist, of Lindsay, will be at the McArthur House, Fenelon Falls, on Monday, the 15th inst., on arrival of train from Lindsay, and remain over Tuesday. He will have a complete gas appliance for extracting teeth, also the best local pain obtunders. Call early.

OH! what a pretty hat or bonnet you can get for the baby at Mrs. R. McDougall's.

A SKELETON FOUND.—On Monday last Mr. Charles Bowin of Cobcook found the skeleton of an adult in a potato field in his woods. The bones are believed to be those of an old man who disappeared about 18 years ago, but it is not thought that he was murdered. We did not hear of the find until too late to obtain particulars.

A GREAT CONVENIENCE.—It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the little steamer Greyhound will, until further notice, run two trips daily between Fenelon Falls and Lindsay, calling at Sturgeon Point as she comes and goes. As it will be a great convenience to our villagers, and the fare is exceedingly low, it is to be hoped that she will receive sufficient patronage to keep her on the route until the close of navigation.

PLATE GLASS.—By Monday's train two sheets of plate glass, 88 x 100 inches and 3-8 of an inch thick, arrived from Toronto for the front of Mr. Heard's new store, and two handsomely figured plates, 18 x 88 inches to fill in spaces above the colored ones. There are also ten panes of various sizes—some plate glass and some double diamond—for the side lights doors and transom. The whole cost not much less than $200, and when they are in place Mr. Heard will have by far the handsomest front in town.

Trimmed Hats at Mrs. R. McDougall's from 75c. upwards; untrimmed hats 20c. and upwards.—14.

A COLLISION.—As Mr. E. R. Edwards was driving across the swing bridge, yesterday morning, with his commercial rig, on his way to the station with a load of trunks, Nelson Corbet whirled around the curve on a bicycle and collided with the team. Dismounting with more haste than dignity, he grabbed the hind wheel and tried to pull the machine away, but one of the horses had got a fore foot tangled up in the spokes of the front wheel and pulled too. For a moment it looked as though the bicycle would be smashed, but finally in dropped off the horse's foot as he reared through fright, and "Nelse" lifted it to one side. The rim, two or three spokes, and the crank and pedal bar on one side were badly bent, but the tire, frame and remainder of gearing escaped injury.
