

SUMMER SMILES.

Oh, had the power the gift ge'en us,
To see ourself as others see us;
What awful sights we'd find we are;
We're better ignorant by far.

Barrows—"What is the best wheel on the market?" Hills—"The best wheel is not on the market any more. I bought it myself two weeks ago."

Friend—"Do you belong to the realistic or to the romantic school of literature?" Young author—"Neither. I am only in the kindergarten yet."

Wallace—"Do you believe in signs?" Ferry—"Some. When you see a woman driving south and looking east, it is a pretty sure sign that she means to turn to the west at the first corner."

Mrs. Scorch—"I thank heaven for one thing at any rate." Mr. Scorch—"What's that?" Mrs. Scorch—"You can't say I don't ride a wheel like your mother used to."

Lumpy—"Miss Goldie, suppose a man about my size and age should ask you to marry him—?" Miss Goldie—"Gracious, Mr. Lumpy! Do please introduce me to the man."

"Spring chicken," said the diner, "I thought, would be a toothsome thing. Until, alas, I found they had O'erlooked the fowl, and served the spring."

"I just can't understand it," said the cheerful idiot. "Can't understand what?" asked the new boarder. "Why bloomers, being undoubtedly plural, should make a woman look so singular."

"How did Charley get out of that scrape caused by his knocking the old woman down with his wheel?" "Easily. He proved that the woman, who was walking on the sidewalk had neither a bell nor a lantern."

"Er man dat does manage onet in er great while ter git somefin' foh nuffin," said Uncle Eben, "generally nuffin's out dat he's wuhked more its wuf in schemin' and dat 'tain' wuh't he rel'y wanted nohow."

Merchant—"You say you are an orphan?" Applicant for position—"Yes; I haven't a living relative." Merchant—"Well, I'll take you. I ought to get a lot of work out of you during the baseball season."

"I wonder," said a member of a woman's association, "why the report of the secretary is referred to as 'minutes'?" "I don't know," replied another. "It always seems a great deal more like hours."

"Now, Willie," said Mr. Wilkins, "papa is going away for two weeks. Remember whose boy you are and behave accordingly." "You bet I will, daddy," said Willie, "I'll have just as good a time as you will."

Benny Dietus—"There is an article in to-day's paper I should like you to get my wife to read, but it is no use asking her." Sam Singleton—"I'll tell you how to do it. Cut the piece out and put it in your pocket."

Asker—"Have you observed that the young ladies at the theaters have been lately taking off their hats?" Tasker—"That's nothing new; the paragraphers have been taking them off for the last ten years."

Boggs' old friend—"Great heavens, man! Do I find you reduced to playing a cornet on the street corner to make a living?" Boggs—"I ain't doing this to make a living. My wife won't let me practice in the house."

Mrs. Spinner—"Do you think that Mrs. Tuttilfrutti is honest?" Mrs. Winder—"Thoroughly. Why, I've known her to get up of a cold night and go through her husband's pockets to get money to pay her soda water man!"

"How do you pronounce f-i-a-n-c-e?" inquired the young man of his French teacher. "If the young lady have plenty of money, then you call her 'fiansay', but if she be very poor, then you make it 'fie-an-say' nothing," replied the astute preceptor.

Mamma—"I don't like the idea of that young Harris hanging around Jenny so much. He hasn't a cent except his little salary." Papa—"You needn't worry. They are both too busy talking about bicycles to have any time for love making."

HAD HE KNOWN.

With Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart at Hand, Death From Heart Disease is Impossible.

Wonders of This World-Famed Physicist and Catarrhal Powder.

Success has followed all of Dr. Agnew's specifics. With all the emphasis possible, this is the case with his Cure for the Heart. Its effectiveness is marvellous. The very paroxysms of death seem to have seized the patient, and yet relief is secured with the taking of a single dose, and the continuation of the use of the remedy soon cures the worst case of heart disease. George Crites, custom officer, Cornwall, Ont., says: "I was troubled with severe heart complaint for several years. The slightest excitement fatigued me. I was under the doctor's care for over six months, being unable to attend to my business. No relief came to me, and it was only after I had scarcely dared to hope for cure that I used Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and in a comparatively short time it removed the disease altogether."

With careful, innate conservatism, yet recognizing its benefits, the Rev. John Scott, D.D., Presbyterian minister of Hamilton, is only one of the many leading clergymen in Canada who having used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, has freely testified over his own signature as to its unquestioned benefits. It may be only a cold in the head, or the case may be a more aggravated phase of catarrh, that has baffled other remedies, but this simple and pleasant remedy will give relief in 10 minutes, and entirely remove the difficulty. Sample bottle and Blower sent by S. G. Detchon, 44 Church St., Toronto, on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

THE PRINCE AND THE BOY.

The Prince of Wales recently made a visit to Guy's Hospital in London. A little boy named Thomas Stephens, who was suffering from an injury to the spine, failed to see the future King of England as he passed along the aisle and he expressed the wish that Wales would return. When this was told to the Prince he returned, shook the boy's hand and had a short talk with him, much to the youngster's delight.

SIXTY-EIGHT MARRIAGES.

A curious custom obtains in the little town of Plougastell, in Brittany, namely, the collecting of all the marriages of the year into one great event. At a recent ceremony of this kind thirty-four couples were married simultaneously. All the brides and bridegrooms, wearing the Breton costume, walked in procession through the town, followed by their fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and other relatives. The festivities lasted a week.

THE SAME STICK.

Lady Finchthorpe (at hotel entrance)—"No, I have no money to spare for you. I don't see why an able-bodied man like you should go around begging."

Lazy Tramp—"I s'pose mum, it's fer about the same reason that a healthy woman like you boards at a hotel instead of keepin' house."

Welcome to the parents the puny struggler, strong in his weakness, his little arms more irresistible than the soldier's, his lips touched with persuasion which Chatham and Pericles in manhood had not! His unaffected lamentations when he lifts up his voice on high, or more beautiful, the sobbing child, the face all liquid grief, as he tries to swallow his vexation, soften all hearts to pity and to merciful and clamorous compassion.—Emerson.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a sure cure for Headache and nervous diseases. Nothing relieves so quickly.

Mother—"When I was a little girl I never did things like that!" Ethel—"An' was your mamma better'n you were too?"

Catarrh.—Use Nasal Balm, Quick, positive cure, Soothing, cleansing, healing.

"Do you intend to take your wife with you to the sea side?" "No; she is all run down, and is not equal to the exertions of a vacation."

Constipation causes more than half the ills of women. Karl's Clover Tea is a pleasant cure for Constipation.

Gascon—"Here, waiter, what do you mean by charging me a dollar for four lemonades?" Waiter—"Beg pardon, sir, but you had ice in them."

Consumption can be cured by the use of Shiloh's Cure. This great Cough Cure is the only known remedy for that terrible disease.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free.

There are many so credulous of evil that they will receive suspicious and impressions against persons whom they don't know from a person whom they do know—an authority good for nothing.—Hare.
