

POVERTY OF THE BLOOD.

A TROUBLE THAT IS MAKING THE LIVES OF THOUSANDS MISERABLE.

It Brings in Its Train, Nervousness, Pains in the Back and Side, Headaches, Heart Palpitation and Results Fatally Where Efficacious Treatment is Not Resorted to.

From the Sussex, N. B. Record.

There are many ways in which people may prove benefactors of the human race. There are those who of their abundance spend large sums in erecting public buildings and beautifying public parks. Others spend their money in charitable work, and in alleviating the sufferings of less fortunate fellows, and for these acts these people are honored. The person, who, having obtained relief from sickness, and makes public the means by which health was regained, is none the less a public benefactor. Among these latter is Miss Elena O'Neil, daughter of Mr. James O'Neil, a well-to-do farmer, living near Millstream, King's Co., N. B. Miss O'Neil was attacked with anaemia—a poverty of the blood—a trouble unfortunately too common among the young girls of the present day, and one which is certain to terminate fatally, if not promptly checked, and the blood enriched and renewed. Having discovered a remedy that will achieve this happy result, Miss O'Neil is willing that less fortunate sufferers may reap the benefit of her experience. To a correspondent of the Record, Miss O'Neil related the story of her illness and cure. She said: "I believe that had I not begun the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills my trouble would have ended fatally. My illness came about so gradually that I can scarcely say when it began. The first symptoms were a loss of color, and a feeling of tiredness following even moderate exertion. Gradually I became as pale as a corpse, and was extremely nervous. Then I was attacked with a pain in the side, which daily grew more and more intense. I coughed a great deal and finally grew so weak that if I went upstairs I had to rest when I reached the top. My appetite forsook me. I was subject to spells of dizziness, and severe headaches and was gradually wasting away until I lost all interest in life. I had tried a number of medicines but found no relief. In this apparently hopeless condition this apparently hopeless condition, while reading a newspaper I saw a statement of a young lady whose symptoms were almost identical with my own, whose health had been restored through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This statement was so encouraging that I determined that I would try this medicine. In my case as in that of the young lady whom I had read about, the result was marvellous. The pain in my side from which I had suffered so much, disappeared, my nerves were strengthened, my appetite returned and my whole system seemed to be strengthened and renewed. I am now as well as any member in the family and have not known what sickness was since I discontinued the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

My gratitude towards this grand medicine is unbounded and I hope my statement may be the means of bringing encouragement and health to some other sufferer.

The gratifying results following the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in the case of Miss O'Neil prove that they are unequalled as a blood builder and nerve tonic. In the case of young girls who are pale or sallow, listless, troubled with a fluttering or palpitation of the heart, weak and easily tired, no time should be lost in taking a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which will speedily enrich the blood and bring a rosy glow of health to the cheeks. They are a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold in boxes (never in loose form) by the dozen or hundred at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

SLAPPED THE MARQUIS.

At a public convention in London the other day one of the delegates, noticing, as he supposed, a friend, hurried up to him and, giving him a hearty slap on the back, said: "Hallo, old boy! Politics continues to agree with you, eh?" The portly man turned slowly around and revealed the distinguished features of the Marquis of Salisbury, who said smiling pleasantly: "Yes, thank you, politics does continue to agree with me. The delegate was horror-struck at his mistake, mumbled a confused apology and beat a hasty retreat. It is believed that the Prime Minister must have enjoyed the joke very much, for later in the evening he was seen to be relating to several friends some incident which provoked him and them to a great deal of laughter.

WORN OUT.

Tramp—Please, sir, won't you give me a pair of shoes? I've worn these all out looking for work. I'm a gardener, sir.

Benevolent Individual—I will give you another pair with pleasure. Here, take these. By the way the seat of your pants is all worn out, too.

Tramp—Yes, sir; I wore them out while workin' at my last job.

Here's a Little Nut to Crack:

Just a grain of corn! The principle upon which Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor acts is entirely new. It removes the corn layer by layer, without any pain whatever. It never fails either. Try it.

NEVER "BROKE" AGAIN.

An Improvident Young Man Who Will Always Have a Dollar in His Pocket.

"Queer things happen at funerals," said a clergyman recently, who has officiated at many, "and I remember one occasion which impressed me greatly, on account of the standing of the family in which it happened, as well as from the peculiar circumstances surrounding the incident—the bestowal of money on a dead man."

The narrator was urged to relate the story, and on the promise that no names would be mentioned, he continued:

"It was a funeral at the house of one of my parishioners, and I was greatly surprised when I received notice to attend and conduct the services. I had not heard of any member of the family being ill, nor had I been summoned to the deathbed, but I jumped to the conclusion that it was an old servant who had died.

"It proved to be a bad son—the black sheep of the family—whose shadow had not darkened their doors for years, but who, it was always believed, had been supported at a distance far enough to prevent him from disgracing the family by his misdeeds.

"Now he was brought home dead, and I was expected to give him as little blame and as much praise as was consistent with the dignity of my office and his relation to the family.

"I need not go into that part of the ceremonies, but come to what I feel the real expression of feeling which consecrated the memory of the man as nothing that I said could have done.

"Just before the casket was closed his old mother arose from her seat with the mourners, and, approaching the dead, slipped a dollar into his vest pocket.

"Jim never liked to be without money in his pocket," she said, with a low, tremulous voice, "Many's the dollar I've slipped into his pocket, unbeknown to him, but he always found it and was thankful. I don't expect he's going to need it now, and maybe he will never know that mother put it there, but somehow I shall feel better if he has it."

"And I felt that the woman who had loved much and forgiven much had preached a sermon of forgiveness and mercy before which I with my platitudes must remain dumb."

Oh, dear no—that is, not if I could get money with a girl who had some other attraction also.

SWORN EVIDENCE: IN THE MATTER OF the "Amberine Hair Producer," Province of Ontario, manufactured by Messrs. Job Cook and Company, 53 Wellington Street, London, Canada. Do Henry Amos Plastow, of the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, Water Works Inspector, I solemnly declare that I have used the "Amberine Hair Producer," manufactured by Messrs. Job Cook and Company, of No. 53 Wellington Street, in the City of London, Canada, since the 15th day of April, 1887. It has stopped the itching of the scalp, stopped the hair from falling out, removed the dandruff, and has brought out a thick crop of hair where my head was entirely bald before I commenced using their preparation. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of "The Canada Evidence Act, 1891." Declared before me at the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, this 11th day of October, A.D. 1887, all which I certify under my notarial seal } H. A. PLASTOW, E. T. Kootenay's New Ingredient.
Makes Startling Cures.
Bright's and Kidney Disease.
Sciatica, Inflammatory Rheumatism.

If There is Any Old Chronic Disease Lurking in Your System, KOOTENAY WILL DRIVE IT OUT

The way that Kootenay takes hold of old chronic cases of Rheumatism, and rids the system of the lurking poison upon which the disease exists, the endorsement by well-known clergymen, physicians and hospital executives of its cures, leads past all doubt as to its power to cure this disease.

The New Ingredient, that works so marvellously in searching out stubborn and chronic rheumatism, is just as effectual with most any other chronic disease. Hopeless cases of Bright's Disease yield to its influence, Eczema, in extreme forms where eruptions have existed from head to foot are in its records of cures. Pale, haggard and emaciated people, whose frames are all angles and curves, unrefreshed by sleep, troubled by indigestion and nervousness, round up in health through the use of Kootenay Cure.

I, Wm. H. WRY, residing at 47 Hughson Street North, in the City of Hamilton, do solemnly declare that I have been afflicted with rheumatism for seven years, and at different times confined to the hospitals both in Hamilton and Toronto. Was discharged from the Hamilton hospital after eleven months' treatment, and on the 15th of January last I was told that they could do nothing for me. When leaving there I was scarcely able to walk. I tried a number of so-called cures; had my feet covered with fly plasters under directions of a physician, but got gradually worse. On the 13th day of this month, after taking two and one-half bottles of Ryckman's Kootenay Cure, I threw away my stick which I had been compelled to use for support, and am now a healthy man, free from all pain, after seven years' suffering. On Tuesday last I was on my feet for eighteen hours steadily without any bad results. I am now able to attend to my work regularly, which frequently necessitates my hands being in water for hours. I consider Kootenay the most wonderful blood medicine and Rheumatic Cure ever known. Wm. H. WRY.
Declared before Notary J. W. Nesbit, July 17, 1896.

If not obtainable of your dealer, will be forwarded, charges prepaid, on receipt of price, $1.50 per bottle, by addressing S. S. RYCKMAN MEDICINE CO., Limited, Hamilton. Send for Chart Book free.
