Professor Ladd, instructor in psychology at Yale, while lecturing before the members of the senior class a short time ago, unconsciously "gave himself away" in this fashion: "Now, let me illustrate that point. One day a celebrated psychologist, a world-renowned psychologist, I might say, was walking down the street when I met a little girl, and I said to her—" What the Professor said was drowned in the outburst of laughter from the students.

The first thing to do, if you have not done it, is to fall in love with your work.

The man who never gets enough will enjoy what he has more than the man who gets too much.

ARE WE FARMERS BLIND?

The Detroit Journal recently issued a special export number. It contained an article written by Mr. H. C. Morris, the United States Consul in Windsor, Ontario. Among other things, he said:

"It is commonly known here that some of the larger concerns in the United States, in order to undersell competitors here, have shipped into Canada machines of a former and older pattern. The American farmer will buy nothing that is not strictly up-to-date, and at the end of every season there are left over some machines that will be a year old the next season, and these machines may lack some new innovation, but will do the work and are 'just as good' as the up-to-date machine, and these machines—back numbers—are shipped into Canada at a much reduced invoice value, thus saving duty, and they are just as acceptable to the Canadian farmer as any machine." So, according to no less a person than a Consul of the Republic to the south of us, we farmers who buy United States machines are really buying the obsolete machines gathered at the United States implement agencies and shipped into Canada. It is not to be wondered at that the United States machines shipped into Canada do not wear or give satisfaction like the Canadian implements. One could hardly expect this to be the case under the rather extraordinary conditions cited by Mr. Morris.

IF YOU MUST TALK.
If you would win laurels as a bright conversationalist, first impress your mind with the fact that it is not flow of words that you need, but ability to direct conversation. You must draw out the timid, avoid dangerous channels, and make every man and woman about you appear at his or her best, while your own efforts are confined to an occasional word to fill a gap. When you are trying to make a company a conversational success, always avoid a rattling liveliness on your own part. Don't imagine that to be clever you must be a wit. Your main object is to make yourself interesting, without being obtrusive. If you are naturally witty, well and good. It will show itself occasionally. But if your wit is forced it will degenerate into mere affectation, and affectation is fatal.

Customer—"Why doesn't that spinster, Miss Brown, deal at your shop any more?" Grocer—"One of my clerks insulted her." Customer—"How?" Grocer—"She overheard him telling someone that she was our oldest customer."

"I was thinking," said the old-fashioned young man, "of asking her father if I might pay my addresses to her." "H'm," mused the wise girl, "in this case I'd advise you to pay in advance."

Bookkeeper—"I would like a little more salary, sir. You see, I'm married now, sir." Employer—"And need the increase for your family?" Bookkeeper—"No, sir; for myself. You see, my wife knows just what I'm getting now!"

He—"Well, there's one thing; you never hear of a man wishing he was a woman." She—"Of course not. It might be his fate to marry some horrid man."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

ONE SPOONFUL
Will build for you good health, through good nerves, by using South American Nervine
Almost all disease is the result of poor nerve action. Without good nerves neither brain, nor stomach, nor liver, nor heart, nor kidneys, can work well. Nerve food must be such that it will be absorbed by the nerve ends. Such a food is South American Nervine, the greatest tonic known, a cure for dyspepsia and all stomach ailments.

ADOLPH LE BODIE, B. C. L., Montreal's well known barrister, writes: "I was suffering from insomnia and nervous debility, prostration and exhaustion. I took five bottles of South American Nervine, and am wholly recovered."
The Great South American Rheumatic Cure is the only one that has not a single case of failure in its record. Cure sure within three days; relief instantly.
