Other pain obtundors used. A good set of teeth inserted for $10. Dr. Neelands visits Fenelon Falls (McArthur House) the

How The Rich "Earn" Their Wealth.

By Jas. T. Van Rensselaer, Los Angeles.

Comrade John D. Rockefeller is with us in Los Angeles. It took him two weeks to reach here from New York.
In that time his income was $2,000,000.
It took him fifteen minutes to walk from his private car to a room in the Hotel Green. For that walk he was repaid by an increase to his wealth of $1-750. The first night of his stay he slept eight hours, and awoke $54,759 richer for his repose. With the aid of his valet, it took him exactly half an hour to dress. By the time he was ready for his breakfast he could have signed a cheque, in favor of himself, so to speak, for $3,500, that being the amount he earned in that brief space of time. The journey from his bed chamber to his chair in the hotel dining-room occupied just five minutes, for which providence paid him $570. After breakfast, three hours were spent on the golf links, for which enjoyment, thanks to the American people, he received $20,534. After luncheon, as he slowly lighted his cigar, $100 came into his possession.

But the above gives only a small idea of the rapidity with which our comrade is growing "rich." It is only four years since his last visit to the Pacific coast.
At that time the San Francisco Cal. made an accurate estimate of his possessions, and of his income. This I give below:

ROCKEFELLER FORTUNE, 1897.
Fortune.....	$200,000,000 00
Annual Income.....	12,000,000 00
Monthly Income.....	1,000,000 00
Daily Income.....	41,095 00
Hourly Income.....	1,712 24
Income per Minute...	28 54
Income per Second...	48

If we multiply the above amounts by four, we shall not be very far wrong in our estimate of Comrade Rockefeller's present wealth and income. Let us then see what this would be:

ROCKEFELLER FORTUNE, 1903.
Present Fortune.....	$800,000,000 00
Annual Income.....	48,000,000 00
Monthly Income.....	4,000,000 00
Daily Income.....	164,380 00
Hourly Income.....	6,844 00
Income per Minute...	114 60
Income per Second....	1 92

To show what this phenomenal increase really means, and its foreboding to the American people, let us assume that the comrade lives twenty-four years longer, and returns to Los Angeles every four years, his wealth increasing in the same proportion. This happening, he would be worth as follows:

ROCKEFELLER FUTURE FORTUNE.
In 1907.....	$ 3,200,000,000
In 1911.....	12,800,000,000
In 1915.....	51,200,000,000
In 1919.....	204,800,000,000
In 1927.....	3,276,800,000,000

What makes the above figures still more astounding is that the entire wealth of the United States is only $100,000,000, 000, which increases at the rate of less than $300,000,000 each year.

In this country, last year, half a dozen groups of capitalists controlled $20-000,000,000, or one-fifth of the total national wealth. It the amount under their control increases in the same proportion as Comrade Rockefeller's for-ture, by 1906 they will own or control $80,000,000,000; by 1910, $160,000,000, 000,000. As the total possession of all the states by that time will only be valued at $130,000,000,000, these men will own the American people.

Are August Bebel and Eugene V.
Debs far wrong when they declare it to be a mathematical certainty that we shall see the end of the competitive system in 1908? Is there any chance, think you, of our seeing Socialism in our time?

A Socialistic Rooster.

William Morris, the celebrated English philosopher, artist and poet, wrote a fable, which I shall Americanize for your delectation: About Christmas time the poultry of a certain country held a great convention for the good of the race, at which it was resolved that the most important subject to poultry was
"WITH WHAT SAUCE THEY SHOULD BE EATEN." After which many prominent members of the meeting aired their various views on the subject. There was a large following that adhered to tariff for protection sauce; others contended that free trade sauce was the thing; others for labor union sauce; others for single tax sauce; others for public ownership of railroad sauce; others for paper money sauce; others for imperial sauce; and others for anti-trust sauce.
When they had worried over these until the boldest rooster had grown hoarse and the hens ceased to cackle, a battened old barnyard cock took the floor and, much to the surprise and disgust of the vast assembly, declared that he did not want to be eaten at all. He was immediately sat upon by the poultry working class and turned over to the police, with execrations for being a Socialist, anarchist, disturber of the peace and general nuisance. The assembly then ordered that their resolutions be engrossed and sent to the head poulturer. Can you draw the moral?—Wayland.

Nice System, eh?

Business worries cause the suicide of 1,500 people a year in the principal cities of this country. Nice system, eh?
Vote for a system, believe in it, fight for it—and then kill one's self to get away from it! The modern business man is a lulu. He never thinks—he just thinks he thinks. He knows less of the system he lives under, less of political questions, less of the phenomena about him than the average laboring man who belongs to a union. The other day I met a business man from Kansas City, and we were discussing the growth and meaning of the trusts and monoplies, and he said that he had never had any insight into the subject until recently, when he engaged one of his workmen in conversation, and he had his eyes opened as to what all this ferment and crush meant. He said he was no match for the employee, whom he would have said, had he been asked, was an ignorant, stupid specimen of the genus homo. The business man is now reading up, to be as intelligent as his employee.—Exchange.

Why Shut Your Eyes?

Think of the thousands of millions of money spent by the rulers in war machines, and the millions of common people taken from useful, productive industry to destroy wealth and property!
And then to think of the further fact that every dollar spent has to be paid by the laboring class! And that is the best kind of society that the present rulers know. Have n't the working people had enough experience in the matter to quit upholding the rulers and their alleged christian supporters? Let us establish Socialism, and then the workers will get all the wealth they produce, in every country, and there will be no wars.
The working people do not want to kill each other, or invade other countries.
The rulers want this, so that they will have more people to rob by interest, rent and taxes. Why shut your eyes to the facts?—Appeal to Reason.

If you don't want Socialism, quit professing to believe in the "Golden Rule" as the rule of life.

If you don't want Socialism, quit praying "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven."

If you don't want Socialism, quit advocating the universal Fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man.
