

weary, art thou languid?" and the appropriateness of the questions appealed so strongly to the visitors' sense of humor that they had hard work to refrain from laughing "right out in meeting."

A LOCAL CIRCUS.—A short time ago it occurred to some of our village boys, all of them quite little fellows, to get up a circus in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital, at Toronto, and on the evening of Thursday of last week the idea was carried out in a ring on Bond street west, after a procession which amused everybody and delighted the youngsters. There were ten members of the company, viz: Dick Nevison, Bernard Chambers, Dan Docharty, Grenville Aldous, Harold Wilson, Lloyd Curtis, Melville Poulson, Neil McDiarmid, Harry McDiarmid and George Wilson. Young Aldous rode his father's white-legged pony; Poulson, who was drawn by his dog, was one of the clowns; Wilson was another; Neil McDiarmid performed on the trapeze; Chambers was a snake charmer, and all the other boys were "soldiers." The costumes of the troupe were as good as could be expected, and the performance, which we did not see, is said to have been very satisfactory. Although the price of admission was only two cents for adults and one cent for children, the receipts amounted to $3 15.

THANKS.

We take this opportunity of thanking our many customers for the liberal share of patronage which they have given us since coming to this town. Our growth of business during the past six months shows us that our prices and goods must be right. Our aim is to please and satisfy every customer who enters our store.

We are now preparing for fall openings. New goods are arriving daily, and we are sparing no pains to make this season's offer the most attractive which has ever been shown here.

To quote prices would give but a faint idea of the values we will offer. Don't spend one dollar before you see our stock. It will pay you.

NATURE'S WAY.

You can ripen an apple or a tomato by setting it in the sun, but it isn't as good as one ripened on the tree or vine. It lacks flavor.

Same with honey. Some producers extract the honey before it is ripe and expose it to the sun in large tanks. Result—the flavor is lost and the honey tastes "flat."

My honey is ripened on the hive, nature's way—the only right way. The price is ten cents a pound.
