Dated this 4th day, of October, 1901. W. T JUNKIN, Clerk of Fenelon Falls.

PREFERENCE.

Many people prefer comb honey to extracted honeythat's all right.

Some of them have a notion that because extracted honey is cheaper that it is not purethat's all wrong.

Extracted honey is honey and nothing else, whereas comb honey is honey and beeswax.

That's easy to remember, as is also the fact that I sell the Bobcaygeon, Sturgeon Point, Best honey it is possible to produce.

ASK YOURSELF

this important question: Are you trading now with the best house, where you are getting a dollar's worth of goods for your hard-earned dollar, are are you trading with a house that is selling you "just what they wish," simply because they think you have to buy of them?

SUCH PEOPLE

we extend a cordial invitation. Come right down here and let us show you how differently we do business. Our aim is to please and satisfy you. As soon as you enter our store the hand of welcome is immediately extended to you. We give you square treatment that will make you a lifelong customer, and we sell you

AT PRICES WHICH ARE RIGHT.

IF YOU WANT THE NEWEST AND BEST

come and trade with the up-to-date house—the house whose business has attained gigantic proportions in a short time; the house that is far in the lead and intends to stay there.
