Provincial Liberal Convention.

Premier Ross has called a Provincial Liberal Convention, which is to be held in Toronto on Wednesday of next week, the 23rd inst., "to consider, without prejudice, the political situation, and mark out a course of policy for the future with regard to prominent questions affecting the social well-being and the material prosperity of the Province." The idea of the convention was eagerly seized upon as soon as promulgated, and that the convention will be very numerously attended and will do a great deal of good is beyond a doubt. The Conservatives will make almost superhuman exertions to win the approaching Provincial elections, and it would be a distinct calamity to substitute, as Premier, Mr. Whitney for Mr. Ross, of whom the Globe says:

"Since his advent to the Premiership Hon. Geo. W. Ross has been beset by no common difficulties. He has met them all with a cheerfulness and patient courage that has deepened the attachment felt for him through every part of the Province. The call for a convention will, we venture to prophesy, be answered with enthusiasm, and with equal enthusiasm it will be made manifest that Mr. Ross has behind him an admiring and united party.

"Seldom has a political leader been so unfairly and so viciously attacked. But the malice has about spent itself, and nothing will so effectually dispose of it as a great meeting of the representative men of the Liberal party of Ontario, met to give counsel to their chieftain and assure him of their fealty and unwavering support.

"He is entirely worthy of that support. For the greater part of his life he has devoted his uncommon ability to the service of the Province. He has had no other object than to help it forward in its path as one of the most advanced of the States of the world in the scale of civilization. He has given himself ungrudgingly and with marvellous energy to this work, and the measure of his success is found in the fact that an inhabitant of this Province can stand up in any company and cite it as an unrivalled example of the successful working of democratic representative institutions.

"Mr. Ross has endured with uncomplaining philosophy an amount of misrepresentation and calumny that even party rancor cannot excuse. He will find that these tactics of his political foes have had an effect that did not occur to them. It has increased the devotion of his friends, and has filled all fair-minded men with a determination to show that no man can be injured in this intelligent Province by a mere torrent of abuse that has no foundation in fact or reason."

How Can We Stop Wars?

Mr. George T. Angell, the venerable editor of Our Dumb Animals, published in Boston, Mass., asks the above question, and answers it as follows:

"I believe it is within the power of the Christian church to stop almost every war. When the next war threatens, let the clergy of all denominations meet in every city and town and petition Congress to settle the dispute by arbitration.

"Let every clergyman on the next Sunday preach a sermon on war, and then circulate in his parish a petition against it. Let great union prayer meetings be held in all our cities and towns to pray that war may be averted, and let Christians of all nations be invited by telegrams to join in that prayer.

"Let every Christian wife and mother, when war threatens, wear some emblem of mourning until the danger is past. If these things were done, I think few politicians would care to rise in Congress or anywhere to advocate war.

"When the united voices of all the Christian churches shall demand peace on earth, good will to men, great armies will be no longer needed, and Christmas chimes will ring out such melodies as the world has never heard."

Fenelon Council.

Personals.

Mr. Fred Brodie left on Wednesday for Toronto and St. Louis.

Dr. Gould returned on Monday from the World's Fair at St. Louis.

Mr. Fred Greene, now of Peterborough, is spending a few days at the Falls.

Miss Alice Nie came home from Bobcaygeon on Wednesday and returned on Friday.

Miss O'Connor left on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving Day with her mother in Lindsay.

Miss Fanny Brandon left on Monday to attend the Presbyterian Ladies' College at Toronto.

Mr. Findlay Robson came home last week from a visit to his brother Joseph at Burk's Falls.

Mr. William S. Morin, of Aukland, New Zealand, is at the Falls visiting his aunt, Mrs. William Campbell.

Mr. E. G. Hand left on Monday to attend the Ontario Bee-Keepers' Convention at Toronto, and returned home on Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Pearce left on Thursday of last week for Manila, to attend the funeral of a grandchild of Mr. Lewis Pearce, (formerly a resident of this village), and came home on Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. H. Mitchell and her son Richard left on Saturday for Castleton, to visit Mrs. Mitchell's brother, Mr. William John Newman, who is so ill that his recovery is improbable. They returned on Tuesday.

Mr. Joseph Heard, who left for England on September 7th, got home again on Monday, much benefited by his trips across the ocean and several weeks' residence in Cornwall and Devonshire. He tells us that his cousin, Mr. James Moon, of London, who paid him a long visit five years ago, spoke of coming to the Falls to spend the remainder of his days. If he comes he will be heartily welcomed, as he is a friendly, sociable old gentleman, liked by everybody.

Beecher's Uncle Tom's Cabin Show.

The performance of this play will be given, from all information furnished, in a manner that has seldom been excelled for elaborateness in this town. There will be several in the cast, too, who will add to the general interest and attractiveness of the performance, as among others are the two famous Cook Twin Sisters, who will be seen as Topsy No. 1 and Topsy No. 2. Then there will appear Herbert Church as the gospel reading and faithful Uncle Tom, while little Beasy Troy, the child artist, who has gained favor on the stage, will appear as little Eva. The grand allegorical transformation scene in the fifth act is described as being particularly gorgeous, and requires the utilization of some nine especially painted drop scenes. As the final drop is carried to the top of the stage, there is shown in the rear Abraham Lincoln giving freedom to the colored man. There are countless numbers of people who practise good old staid ways of our ancestors, who are never seen in a theatre. When "Uncle Tom's Cabin" comes along, however, the mother of the family takes the children of the household to hear the pretty lessons taught by little Eva, and listen to the comic sayings of Popsy, the child who never was born, and the risible tickling remarks of Marks, the lawyer.

At Twomey's hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 22nd. Admission 25c. & 35c.

The Christmas Delineator.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive, illustrating and describing the latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of Love Songs from the Wagner Operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a very prominent place, and a chapter in the Composers' Series, relating the Romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper, entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phases of Washington social life. It is from an unnamed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pens of Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting and Elmore Elliott Peake, and such interesting writers as Julia Magruder, L. Frank Brum and Grace McGowan Cooke hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework, and the Cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition, there are the regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.

Powles' Corner.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Preparations have been commenced by Mr. Thomas Mark and his pupils to give a monster entertainment the last night of school in this year. Mr. J. H. Stanton, of Fenelon Falls, was out on the 31st of October and photographed the whole school. Mr. Mark has been here ten or eleven years, and he will take with him the photo of each pupil and the best wishes of all the parents in this section. Mr. Mark has been a good faithful teacher, and he and his estimable wife are splendid neighbors.

Mrs. Alex. Rutherford is visiting relatives at Wyeville, in Simcoe county.

The long spell of fine weather has enabled farmers to do a deal of necessary work, but the ground is too dry and hard for satisfactory ploughing.

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday, while Mrs. Thos. Archer was carrying a teakettle containing a quantity of boiling water, the handle broke and part of the water fell upon one of her ankles, which was painfully scalded, though not so seriously as to make treatment by a doctor necessary.

NOTICE.—At the termination of his recent business visit to the Falls, Mr. I. Whitesmith, of Manilla, requested us to notify his patrons that he will not be here again until next spring, if then; and that, therefore, it is useless for them to keep work on clocks, watches or jewellery, in the hope that he will be able to attend to it.

HE'S MOVED.—Mr. McFarland has deserted the old stand; and is now doing business in his palatial premises opposite the Bank. The fitting was commenced on Monday and is still in progress; but the stock is so large that it will probably not be all moved by the end of this month. The store is really a magnificent one, as every one says who sees it.

SURPRISE PARTY.—There was a real surprise party last Friday night at Mr. Fred Brodie's, where about thirty persons, some married and some single, put in a totally unexpected appearance a little before 9 o'clock. An excellent supper was served at 1 a. m. on Saturday, after which dancing was resumed and kept up for a couple of hours longer, to music furnished by Messrs. Ed. Chambers and Angus Fountain.
