

path instead of the roadway, and the cutter was, of course, smashed all to pieces. Mrs. Harry Webster was on the footpath, drawing her baby in its little sleigh, and managed to reach the end of the bridge a second or two before the horse overtook and passed her.

MONEY WANTED.—A great many of our subscribers are in arrears for the Gazette, and, though the individual amounts owing are not large, they would make a nice little "pile" if they were all paid at once. This is the time of year that farmers are just wallowing in wealth, and we hope that those of them who are delinquent subscribers will drop in and leave off being delinquents as soon as possible. Some people seem to think that printers don't need money, but they do; at least we do, and we guess it's the same with the other members of the fraternity.

PERSONALS.—Mr and Mrs. Geo. H. Rutherford, of Rossau, have been at the Falls since Friday last, and may remain all winter. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fielding, of Muden, were at the Falls on Tuesday. Miss Dickson returned on Monday from a visit to friends at Toronto. Mr. Thos. Austin returned on Tuesday from visiting his brother Henry at the Toronto General Hospital. Mr. John Austin went to the city on Monday, and we have not seen him since. Mrs. Dr. Brien, of Essex, and Mrs. Harry Hanna, of Bethany, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Edwards, of Manilla, were at the Davis Rutherford wedding at the Falls on Wednesday.

BIRTHS.

West.—At Fenelon Falls, on Saturday, December 3rd, the wife of Mr. Thomas West of a daughter.

MARRIED.

Davis.—Rutherford.—At the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. R. C. H. Sinclair, B. A., on Wednesday, December 14th, Mr. Warren B. Davis, of the editorial staff of the Boston American, Boston, Mass., to Ethilda Claribel, (Popsy,) youngest daughter of Mr. Robert Rutherford, of Fenelon Falls.

The bride wore a travelling dress of brown broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of English violets. She was unattended, except by the matron of honor, Mrs. F. N. Rutherford. The happy couple left on the 5 p. m. train for Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

was in the parlor eating bread and honey." Why wasn't she eating bread and butter? She could have had it if she wanted it—but who ever heard of a queen eating bread and butter? Honey used to be expensive, but it's only about half the price of butter now; and why shouldn't you fare like the queen did?

For ten cents a pound I can sell you better honey than the queen in the story book had.
