SURRENDER OF PORT ARTHUR.

On Tuesday last General Stoessel, the brave defender of Port Arthur, surrendered to the Japanese, after blowing up or otherwise destroying all the forts, shipping and public buildings. The czar still keeps a stiff upper lip, and says that the war will go on until Russia shall be in a position to dictate terms of peace; but talk's cheap. The Japanese have captured Port Arthur at the cost, it is said, of eighty thousand men and one hundred million dollars.

The Rev. Hossack.

Under the heading "Thou Art the Man," a member of the Parkdale church gives the Toronto Star the following information regarding Rev. D. C. Hossack, who has acquired fame amongst Conservatives by his recent attack upon Hon. Geo. W. Ross:

"During the past week letters have been appearing relating to the letter lately appearing in the press from the pen of D. C. Hossack. May a member of the congregation of Dunn Avenue church—and one who knows Mr. Hossack as he is, and as others see him—say a few words which may or may not throw a side light on the interesting production in question. Years ago I knew D. C. Hossack as a barrister in Cobourg. His ambition was to become candidate for Northumberland; but the older delegates chose another, and that disappointed young man gave utterance to the statement that he "would put his knife into the Reform party yet." Turning to the ministry, Mr. Hossack, in course of time came to Parkdale church, where, amid the calls of that congregation, the political question still held its place. A Senatorship became vacant, and a Parkdale gentleman was an acknowledged applicant. The Rev. D. C. Hossack made a "pastoral call," and among other things discussed was this vacancy. Mr. Hossack, under the guise of the Good Samaritan, offered to use his influence. The strange part of the affair is that Mr. Hossack had his application in for the same position! During the past few months his ambition has been to be a candidate in the Federal or Provincial elections. The application was received by the Liberal committee, and a deputation waited upon Mr. Hossack, refusing to comply with it. The open letter follows. These are homely facts, and if Mr. Hossack were to pose as a lawyer or ward politician, a class suitable could easily be found for him, because "there are others." The humiliating part of it all is from the church standpoint. What influence will it all have upon the great body of non-church-ers? Here is a minister of the church—a nominal minister of the gospel representing the glad tidings of peace—armed with the knife of malice, ill-nature and worldly avarice ready to use for personal gain. Mr. Hossack was once a man of promise—and Dunn Avenue church was loyal to him—but what can even his friends of yore think now of his eloquent words concerning humility and lowliness when he brazenly asks the reverse? The Globe aptly asks: "What does it matter, anyway?" From a worldly standpoint it is the old story of thorns being found on the thorn tree—"by their fruits ye shall know them." From a church point of view his letter is a disgrace to his former friends, a disgrace to every congregation whose pulpit he has occupied, a disgrace to Toronto Presbytery. Mr. Hossack says he is willing to sacrifice his all that truth may prevail. Nathan's words may well be used—"thou art the man!"

LINDSAY 1—FENELON FALLS 4.

The return match with Lindsay last Thursday evening in the rink here was a very good exhibition, though there was hardly enough scoring to suit some of the spectators, especially the Lindsay ones. The visiting team came up on a special train with between two and three hundred supporters, and were dead sure they would win, just like every team always is; but their winners were out of working order, or else the home team had a better set, for the visitors didn't succeed in getting the puck into the Fenelon net until about ten minutes before time was called. In the first half Fenelon scored once, and would have counted some more but for the efficiency of the Lindsay goal keeper. But they hadn't it all their own way by any means, and Gould, in the Fenelon goal, stopped so many hot shots that when, near the end of the game, a cooler one came along, he did the stopping act a little too soon, and before he could repeat it the puck was in the net. Fenelon added three to their tally in the last half, making the final score stand four to one in their favor. Though the score was small, the play was fast, and at times a trifle rough. Taylor, of the Lindsay forward line, receiving a tap on the head that put him out of business for a few minutes. Several players of both teams decorated the fence for short periods, Artie Boyce going up a couple of times for displaying too much enthusiasm in the gentle art of "shunting." Artie will have to learn to be more careful with his hundred pounds or so of avoirdupois, or some day the Lindsay team will miss one of their big forwards and find him stuck to the side of the rink like a chew of gum. The Lindsay rooters were a good natured crowd, and when they found the argument going against them they promptly changed the subject by pretending they were a glee club—and some of them could sing, all right.

The line up was as follows:

FENELON FALLS:	McGAW:	LINDSAY:
Gould goal	McGaw point	Riley
Davey point	Irving	Duffus
Burgess cover point	Taylor	Pringle
Deyman rover	Parkins
Beteau centre
Sandford wings
Boyce wings
Referee, Wm. McIntyre, Bobcaygeon.

LINDSAY O. I. 6—E. F. JUNIORS 2.

The match on Wednesday evening between the Lindsay Collegiate seven and the local juniors did not draw a very big crowd. Some people stayed at home because it was very cold, and some didn't go because it was "only the juniors" who were going to play, and they thought it would be slow. The former were wise, but the latter were otherwise, for the boys on both sides played as fast and clean a game as anyone could wish to see. The home team had a little the best of it all through, though the visitors scored the first goal, and later in the game put in three more so close together that our boys had hard scratching to keep the lead. Following were the teams:

L. C. I.—Goal, McGaw; point, Coyle; cover-point, Williams; forwards, McDougall, Doogan, Dean, Killen.

Fenelon Falls.—Goal, Lane; point, L. Duggan; cover-point, Ouellette; forwards, Boyce, Brokenshire, Corbett, A. Duggan.

Referee, Chas. Corbett.

Robson—Oakley.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Oakley, 167 Manning avenue, Toronto, on the evening of Wednesday, December 28th, Miss Sarah Oakley was married to Mr. Harry Robson, of Fenelon Falls. The Rev. S. S. Bates officiated, and the ceremony was witnessed by about forty friends of the young couple. Miss Annie Oakley, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. William Bishop, of Fenelon Falls, assisted the groom. The bride wore a dress of pearl grey crepe de chene over taffeta silk chiffon, with a yoke embroidered, with chiffon. The bridesmaid was clad in a champagne crepe de chene over taffeta silk. The house was decorated with holly and evergreen, and the tables were daintily decorated in pink and white, carnations predominating.

Powles' Corner.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The trustees of the school are having the building cleaned this week. The ceilings and walls are being kalsomined and the blackboards repaired. Mr. William Pethic is doing the job.

The annual school meeting was held at the usual time and place. Mr. H. W. Johnston was the retiring trustee, and Mr. John Dancy was elected for the next three years. Two or three important questions were discussed, one being the advisability of purchasing a piece of ground to enlarge the playground; but as there was not a very large representation of the ratepayers, a special meeting is being called for Thursday evening of this week. If the pupils could be kept in the playground during the noon hour and at recess, an additional playground might be some benefit, but, judging from past years, it would be a useless expenditure of money.

The election of the mayor of Toronto is a good temperance lecture, and it should cause the next Premier of this province, whoever he may be, to see that he will be compelled ere long by a mighty host of temperance people to do something that never was done before. All that has ever been done in Canada.
