Provincial Secretary's Department. In no Department has able Liberal Administration been more fully shown than in that of the Provincial Secretary.

The revenue from this Department, in 1871, under the Sandfield-Macdonald Government was $2,282. If that rate had continued for the succeeding years, the total would have reached only $73,000.

U ler Liberal rule, however, the rev te from 1872 to 1903 inclusive, has stalled the large sum of $728,-
