ABOUT TIME

to think of your Fall and Winter FOOTWEAR.

We have received this month the following well-known makes:

25 doz. pairs of the Empress shoes for women; price $2.00 to $4.00.

300 pairs of the Slater shoes for men; price $3.50 to $5.00.

40 cases of men's, women's, boys', misses' and children's Rubbers from the best Canadian factories.

The length of time a shoe wears is the best way to test its quality. Customers often tell us they have worn the Slater or Empress Shoe for over a year.

GROCERIES.

This season's goods.

New Selected Raisins.
New Cleaned Currants.
20 cases Horseshoe Salmon.
40 cases Corn, Tomatoes and Peas.
20 half chests of Japan Tea at 25c.

POULTRY.

I will pay the highest cash or trade price for live Chickens, Hens, Ducks, Geese or Turkeys delivered at my store or poultry house any Monday.

J. L. ARNOLD.

DON'T BLOW UP

the grocer if you find you are without a sufficient store of edibles in the house. The wise way is to come here and order a supply

WE'RE READY to show you the finest lines in groceries. You'll know their quality the minute you see them.

One Day in Capitalistic Hell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, 10 Rochester street, South End, Boston, found starving.

W. F. Hoell, 1 William street, Boston, with five children, found almost starved.

Charles Skinner, weak and exhausted from want of food, sank helpless on the streets of Butte, Montana.

John Fleming and wife, 25 Bolton street, Boston, old and sick, found in their one room without coal or food, and life almost extinct.

Mrs. Wallace, aged 83, San Francisco, jailed for asking for a nickel to keep from starving.

John Davis, laborer, Marion, Ind., received a letter from his little ones in North Carolina to come home on Christmas. Had no money; stole a horse to get money to go home; jailed for a year. He read the letter from his little ones and cried.

Miss Bertie Reister, 108 East 17th street, New York, shot herself to get out of this competitive hell.

Iowa insane asylum has increased its population 278 during the past year. Other states are as bad. Monticello (Iowa) Express says "fierce competition and lack of opportunity does it."

John Murphy, Boston, sentenced to three months imprisonment for stealing a basket of coal, said: "Yes, your honor, my wife and three children are freezing and starving. I did it to keep them from dying." At the same place H. H. Buxbaum, councilman, stole $12,000 from his employers and confessed, but was let off by the judge on his good behaviour.

Mrs. Carey, with baby five weeks old and one four years old toddling after her, walked the streets in New York until exhausted from hunger, and dropped lifeless on the sidewalk. Hanna's sons are to build a $100,000 monument to the late skinner of labor.

Judge Mathers, Des Moines, Iowa, sentenced Frank Hefler to one and a half days in jail for stealing a single lump of coal, worth one cent, according to testimony. Hefler stated that he had to have it to keep from freezing. The railroad from which it was stolen steals thousands annually from the government in mail contracts—but then that is respectable.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan, 4085 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, sick, with three children, was found in a shanty, without fire or food, by Policeman Burke.

Wm. Chase, aged 50, died of starvation in the barn of Grocer McLean, 382 Beacon street, Boston.

Unknown girl found on bench in Riverside park, New York, nearly covered with snow. Coroner found that she had starved to death.

Jeannette McCoy, East 102nd street, New York, aged nine, died of hunger and overwork trying to keep a sick father and three little sisters from starving.

Mrs. Schneider, evicted from house and sick, died of hunger and exposure on 45th street New York.

And at Mrs. Astor's ball there were Twenty Million Dollars' worth of gems displayed on the more or less nude bodies of the females!

When you consider that these items are just one day's record, printed in just two papers, and that in the same papers there were more than a hundred crimes recorded, you can have some idea—just a faint idea—of one day's horrors in this competitive hell. A paper fifty times as large as the appeal could not print a brief description of the cases of starvation, murder, hoodlums, the and other crimes that are committed each day under this beautiful capitalistic system. There is an average of 85,000 criminals in the prisons of this country; there are 75,000 paupers in the poor-houses of the country; there are estimated to be 5,000,000 paupers outside the poor-houses who receive alms to keep them a part of the time; there are 9,000 murders committed each year; there are more than 1,000 suicides each year; there are more than a million crimes of a minor character. This is the system and its effects that capitalists ask you to support with your votes. Under Socialism we shall have no want, no poverty, no hunger, no theft, no murder for property, no embezzlement, no forgery, no robbery, no evictions, no sweat-shops, no injustice. Crime will disappear, because there will be no profit possible to any one because of any wrong act or wrong teaching. —Appeal to Reason.

A Towel bargain. Large size, fringed ends with red border, worth 32 cents. Sale price 17 cents at Burgoyne's.
