

DID THEIR DUTY IN EVERY CASE

HOW DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS BANISH PAIN IN THE BACK.

Cured Mrs. Jas. Murphy and Everyone Else She Recommended Them To.

River Gagnon, Que., Sept. 11.— (Special).—No complaint if so—among women as Pain-in-the-Back. It is a safe estimate that fully half the women in Canada are afflicted with it. For that reason every evidence that there is a sure and complete cure in existence is thankfully received. And there is abundant evidence that Dodd's Kidney Pills is just such a cure. This district could furnish a dozen cures, but one is that of Mrs. Jas. Murphy.
She says:

"I suffered for thirty-eight months with a pain in my back. I took just one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and I have never been troubled with the pain since. I also recommended Dodd's Kidney Pills to other people, who complained as I did and in every case the Pills did their duty and brought relief."

HERE AND THERE.

Bits of Knowledge About Almost Everything.

Few Russian trains travel at a faster rate than twenty-two miles an hour.

Paris has the biggest debt of any city in the world. It amounts to $400,000,000.

Silver money 250 years old is still in circulation in some parts of Spain.

In London out of one hundred widowers who marry again twelve marry their housekeepers.

Within the past four years France has recorded 26,000 suicides, while in Italy the number has been only 8,000.

More cases of consumption appear among needle-makers and file-makers than any other class of workers.

More than 2,000 people earn a living in Paris by fortune-telling, and their total yearly earnings are estimated at $2,000,000.

The finest tomb in Great Britain is undoubtedly that of the Duke of Hamilton, in the grounds of the Duke's seat. It cost over $1,000,- 000.

A bee, unladen, will fly forty miles an hour; but one returning to the hive laden with honey does not travel faster than twelve miles an hour.

Stockholm has the largest deathrate from the use of alcohol of any city in the world. The number of deaths from this cause is 90 in 1,- 000.

In Switzerland every male between the ages of twenty and sixty-five is obliged to vote, unless he be a pauper, criminal, or a bankrupt. These have not the right of voting.

The soil of Siberia at the close of the summer is found still frozen for 56 inches beneath the surface, and the dead that have lain in their coffins for 150 years have been taken up unchanged in the least.

In parts of Australia, where the average rainfall is not more than 10 inches, a square mile of land will support only eight or nine sheep. In Buenos Ayres the same area, with 84 inches of rain, supports 2,560 sheep.

When a Prince of the Austrian Royal Family dies, his horse follows the funeral covered with a black cloth, and lame in one hoof. The lameness is produced by driving a nail through the horseshoe. This is a sign of the deepest possible mourning.

The children of the Ainos, a people living in Northern Japan, do not receive their names until they are five years old. It is the father who then chooses the name by which the child is afterwards to be called.

In Iceland, that country of gentle and old-fashioned customs, it has always been the fashion to present to the baby, when its first tooth appeared, a lamb, to be its very own, cared for and tended as no other pet could be, and never to be parted with.

The heat developed by the firing of heavy guns is remarkable. During some recent tests a gun that had been fired seventy-five times melted solder placed upon the chase, while another was hot enough to soften lead, indicating a temperature of 600 degrees Fahr.

HOW ANARCHISTS WORK

BY ONE WHO, UNFORTUNATE-LY, HAS KNOWN THEM.

Their Ranks Are Honeycombed Through and Through by Police Spies.

Though the better-known Anarchists are kept under close observation by the police in every capital in Europe, and though the various Anarchist Groups are never without their spies, this constant watching has in practice lamentably failed to protect the world's rulers from assassination or attempted assassination. The reason is that the assassin is usually a comparatively obscure member of a Group, and keeps his own counsel. To avoid betrayal or discovery he disappears quietly and acts upon his own initiative.
Often his closest friends do not know what he intends to do. Until the world echoes with his crime, they are as ignorant of its planning and accomplishment as the most unsuspecting policeman.

PAID BY DETECTIVES.

Ravochole went about Paris with a bomb in his pocket. Vaillant had no difficulty in getting past the police and exploding a bomb in the Chamber of Deputies. Six Anarchists could enter the theatre at Barcelona without suspicion and throw their murderous machines into the crowded stalls beneath. Guarded as was President Carnot at Lyons, the Italian Casserio got near enough to him to stab him to the heart.
The Empress Elizabeth could be shot in an Italian public square. Spido could step out of a crowd and shoot at our own King as he sat at the window of a railway carriage in a Brussels railway station. King Humbert of Italy could be shot by Bresci while engaged in a public duty at Monga. President McKinley could be assassinated by an Anarchist who held a revolver concealed under a handkerchief while pretending to shake his hand.

All this despite the fact that the ranks of the Anarchists are honeycombed through and through by the spies in the pay of the secret police.
In the days of the old Autonomie Club, in Tottenham Court Road, England, there was probably not a single European Government whose representative was not on the roll of membership. The spy kept his employers regularly informed of every move he had a chance of knowing anything about. When the Walsall Anarchists were tried for bomb conspiracy, it came out that one of the most prominent witnesses was in the pay of Scotland Yard, and Inspector Melville made no secret of the fact that he had paid secret service money to numbers of Anarchists.

SPY AND SHOPKEEPER.

One day a man came into London from France apparently destitute.
He cultivated the Anarchist Groups.
Several members gave him food, and clothing, and even lodging. His manner was sincere. His principles seemed violent. He was soon received with open arms at secret meetings. A "comrade" was presently despatched on business to Paris. The man, on his own request, was permitted to accompany him. In France the "comrade" was promptly arrested on arrival.

In one of the back streets of London, the name of which is known to the writer, there was at one time a shop in which Anarchist publications of all countries were on sale.
The "comrade" who had charge of it was implicitly trusted, and the shop became the resort of the most influential Anarchists in London.
Alas! the comrade turned out to be a police-spy who was supplying Scotland Yard not only with valuable information, but with photographs of his comrades. One night a crowd of outraged Anarchists assembled in front of that shop, smashed the windows, and ransacked all the rooms. But the betrayer was invisible. Another spy had informed him what was going to happen that evening, and he had flown.

All professions and all occupations are represented among the Anarchists. There is the philosopher who wraps up the bomb doctrine in gilt paper. There is the visionary journalist and litterateur who constitutes himself the prophet and the preacher. There is the trained chemist, and the engineer, and the army man, and the unfrocked priest; and in addition are the desperadoes and scum and riff-raff of the gutter; creatures who, like Ravochole, are as ready to murder solitary misers for their hoards and rob graves for trinkets as they are to spout at Anarchist meetings on the wrongs of the proletariat; creatures who throw bricks through the shop-windows of jewellers on the chance of "expropriating" the proceeds of their commodification.

HOW THEY ORGANIZE NOW.

The pivot of Anarchism is the Group, and this characteristic makes the ramifications of the movement difficult to grip. Unlike other secret societies, Fenianism, for instance, it has no organization. A dozen men may meet to-night, say, as "The Bond of Right." By tomorrow night the members may have quarrelled and divided, and half of them have formed another group, called "The Lion's Cubs." Since the smash up of the old Autonomie Anarchism in London is not quite what it used to be, but There are very few cleansing operations in which Sunlight Soap cannot be used to advantage. It makes the home bright and clean. 1B

let nobody assume that it has disappeared. The public parks and open spaces soon shatter that delusion.

HELP MYSELF SOCIETIES.

The writer could quote a number of villainous extracts from Anarchist newspapers, collected for him by a man at one time inside the movement. He prefers, however, the humorous side of the advertising columns, which certainly yield humor in plenty. Here is an announcement from one of them: "The Anti-Broker Group, having reached a sufficient strength, is ready to assist all comrades and friends who require its services, free of charge.
Apply to —, Office of this paper."
The Anti-Brokers, it should be explained, were gentry who had solved to their own satisfaction the question, "Why Pay Rent?" Here is another advertisement, which might be set as a test for the sense of humor: "A severe winter is inevitable; therefore advertiser intends making preparations accordingly. Anyone willing to help form a 'Help Myself Society' should communicate with —, Office of this paper." One more: "Poacher wants trustworthy comrade. Mostly night-work. Apply —."

One day the police got wind of the early publication of printed matter to which they had reason to take objection. The type was placed on the highest shelf in the printing office. The place was suddenly raided.

"PIE" SAVED HIS COMRADES.

The police took possession of everything they saw, and were about to depart, when one of the officers remembered that the top shelf had not been searched. One of the men in the place was told to bring down everything from the shelf. Laughing up his sleeve, probably, he mounted a pair of rickety steps, grasped the precious column of type, and, pretending to slip on the steps dropped it thudding to the floor. The result was what printers call "pie," and the very evidence for which the police had made the raid was destroyed before their eyes.—London Answers.

Printer—"I'm sorry that one of our compositors has made a serious mistake in your daughter's wedding invitation. He has made it read:
'Mr. and Mrs. Jones desire your 'presents' instead of 'presence.'" Jones—"Oh, well, I think you needn't trouble to alter it. You see, that's just what we do desire."

Gunner—"Some scientist remarks that if you eat onions you will live for ever." Guyer—"What would be the use of living for ever when no girl would ever let you kiss her?"

HONEST PHYSICIAN.

Works With Himself First.

It is a mistake to assume that physicians are always skeptical as to the curative properties of anything else than drugs.

Indeed, the best doctors are those who seek to heal with as little use of drugs as possible and by the use of correct food and drink. A physician writes from Calif. to tell how he made a well man of himself with Nature's remedy:

"Before I came from Europe, where I was born," he says, "it was my custom to take coffee with milk (cafe au lait) with my morning meal, a small cup (cafe noir) after my dinner and two or three additional small cups at my club during the evening.

"In time nervous symptoms developed, with pains in the cardiac region, and accompanied by great depression of spirits, despondency—in brief, 'the blues' I at first tried medicines, but got no relief, and at last realized that all my troubles were caused by coffee. I thereupon quit its use forthwith, substituting English Breakfast Tea.

"The tea seemed to help me at first, but in time the old distressing symptoms returned, and I quit it also, and tried to use milk for my beverage. This I was compelled, however, to abandon speedily for while it relieved the nervousness somewhat, it brought on constipation. Then by a happy inspiration I was led to try the Postum Food Coffee. This was some months ago and I still use it. I am no longer nervous, nor do I suffer from the pains about the heart, while my 'blues' have left me and life is bright to me once more. I know that leaving off coffee and using Postum healed me, and I make it a rule to advise my patients to use it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

WRESTLED WITH BEARS.

Fatal Pastime of Millionaire, Who First Made Them Drunk.

A German millionaire named Johann Kugler, residing at Tiflis, has been killed and partly devoured by a bear.

Kugler, who was an ardent sportsman, had trapped a number of bears in the Caucasus. These he placed in an improvised menagerie on his estate and plied with liquor.
When the bears were in a sufficiently intoxicated state, Kugler was in the habit of having wrestling bouts with them, in which, owing to the helplessness of the animals, he always was the victor.

On the last occasion, however, a bear of more formidable strength than the rest, and rendered more savage by the spirits which Kugler had given it to drink, lunged itself upon him and crushed him to death.
The body of Kugler, who, as a rule, would not permit spectators to witness his wrestling matches, was afterwards found in the bears' den, terribly mutilated, one of his limbs being partly gnawed away.

The never failing medicine, Holloway's Corn Cure, removes all kinds of corns, warts, etc.; even the most difficult to remove cannot withstand this wonderful remedy.

Joe—"But, my dear fellow, is your income enough to justify you marrying?" Fred—"I'm afraid not."
"Then what reason have you for taking so serious a step?" "I have no reason. I'm in love."

A Cure for Costiveness.—Costiveness comes from the refusal of the excretory organs to perform their duties regularly from contributing causes usually dis-ordered digestion. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, prepared on scientific principles, are so compounded that certain ingredients in them pass through the stomach and act upon the bowels so as to remove their torpor and arouse them to proper action. Many thousands are prepared to bear testimony to their power in this respect.

"I can argue with anyone here," said the contentions man, fiercely.
"I can argue—" "Oh, yes, you can argue," said the quiet little man in the corner; "the misfortune is that you can't reason."

Use Lever's Dry Soap (a powder) to wash woollens and flannels,— you'll like it.

Little Ike (who has an inquiring mind)—"Papa, ish it true dot der pen ish mightier dan der sword?" Old Un—"Yase, uf gourse. How could a man put his proberity in his wife's name mit a sword?"

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator does not require the help of any purging up around us which give them a value that cannot be estimated. It is held by some that Nature provides a cure for every disease which neglect and ignorance have visited upon man. However this may be, it is well known that Parmelee's Vegetable Pills distilled from roots and herbs, are a sovereign remedy in curing all disorders of the digestion.

BARRELS MADE OF PAPER.

Another recent and novel use to which paper is being put is in the manufacture of barrels. The wine-growers of Greece, being badly off for wood with which to construct their casks, and the cost of its import being excessive, lately resolved to employ paper in the manufacture of their barrels, which will, it is said, be soon in universal use throughout the country.

In Nature's Storehouse There Are Cures.—Medical experiments have shown conclusively that there are medicinal virtues in even ordinary plants growing up around us which give them a value that cannot be estimated. It is
digestion.

FOR COUNTING HERRINGS.

Very clever is a Swedish inventor named Ekenberg, who has constructed a machine which takes herrings as they come from the net, sorts them into the four sizes recognized by the trade, scrapes off their scales, cuts off their heads, splits, cleans, and washes them inside and out.
The machine does all this automatically, and turns out 20,000 herrings per hour.

A Wide Sphere of Usefulness.—The consumption of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has grown to great proportions.
Notwithstanding the fact that it has now been on the market for over thirty-one years, its popularity is as great as ever, and the demand for it in that period has very greatly increased. It is beneficial in all countries, and wherever introduced fresh supplies are constantly asked for.

A QUARRELSOME WOMAN.

Schoolmaster (to his wife)—My dear, I wish you would speak more carefully; you say that Henry James came to this town from Sunderland.

Wife—Yes.
Schoolmaster—Well, now wouldn't it be better to say that he came from Sunderland to this town?

Wife—I don't see any difference in the two expressions.

Schoolmaster—But there is a difference—a rhetorical difference. You don't hear me make use of such awkward expressions. By the way I have a letter from your father in my pocket.

Wife—But my father is not in your pocket. You mean you have in your pocket a letter from my father.

Schoolmaster—There you go with your little quibbles. You take a delight in harassing me. You are always taking up a thread and representing it as a rope.

Wife—Representing it to be rope, you mean.

Schoolmaster—For goodness' sake, be quiet. I never saw such a quarrelsome woman in my life.
