IT'S THE QUALITY THAT TELLS.

Groceries

Have their daily claim upon the attention of the housekeeper, and Christmas but emphasizes the superior service offered by our store in quality and variety.

The Best Pudding

Comes from the bowl into which the best ingredients go, and our superior currants and raisins, spices, peels and flavorings do their part towards a satisfactory result.

The Children's Part of Christmas

Always well cared for—was never so completely and attractively provided for as now. There is wholesomeness in everything for eating, especially the Candy. Don't forget we have everything required in the line of Footwear for Christmas.

J. L. ARNOLD.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

W. L. ROBSON.

Who's Your Tailor?

If you ask any particularly well-dressed man in Fenelon Falls or surrounding district, "Who makes your clothes?" invariably he will tell you

'TOWNLEY.'

Be one of the number, and call and see what he is doing for the Fall and Winter. His prices are right, consistent with first-class style and workmanship. He makes no other.

Fell's Station.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Another twelve months have passed away, and again we are enjoying the pleasures that always accompany Christmas time.

Quite a number from around here took a trip to Lindsay on Saturday to attend the Christmas market.

A very large crowd attended the shooting match held at Mr. William Hoskins' (Bury's Green) on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bulmer Jr. and Mrs. B.'s sister, Miss Logan, spent Christmas with Mr. Bulmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bulmer.

We hear that there are two or three weddings to take place not very far from here in the very near future.

The Christmas tree which was held at Fell's school on Friday night last, closing the school for this year, was a splendid success, and a lovely lot of presents were distributed among the scholars and their parents. The presents were all very useful ones as well as pretty, showing the good taste Miss Martin displayed in selecting them. Miss Martin also presented the school with a lovely picture, for which all extend their thanks, and most sincerely regret her departure.

Miss Katie Hughes, of Toronto, came home a short time ago to attend the funeral of her brother, the late John Hughes. The whole community extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved mother, brothers and sisters who are left to mourn his loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert English, of Fenelon Falls, took Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eldridge.

Mr. W. L. White, book-keeper for the Jones stone quarry, left a short time ago for his home at Detroit, Mich.

Wishing the editor and staff a very happy and prosperous new year, I will drop my pen for the present.

MIDNIGHT SERVICE.—A midnight service will be held in St. James' church, commencing at 11 30 p. m. on Sunday next, the last day of the old year. Everyone is invited to attend.

LINDSAY MODEL SCHOOL EXAMS.—In the list of candidates passed by the Board of Examiners at their meeting on Dec. 23rd, we are pleased to note the name of Miss Hilda Nevison, of Fenelon Falls. The other successful candidates were Herbert J. Veals, Ida Graham and Winnie Purdy. There were twenty seven in the class.

BROKE AN ARM.—About 3 o'clock last Friday afternoon Mrs. James Stinson, of Verulam, slipped and fell on the sidewalk on Francis street west, a few yards from the Gazette office, breaking one of the bones of her left forearm close to the wrist and dislocating the other. Mr. David Jewell, who found her sitting on the sidewalk, helped her to Dr. Graham's office, where her injuries were attended to, and she is doing well.
