OSHAWA Galvanized Steel SHINGLES

The cheapest good shingle is the costless "Oshawa." Good for a century's weather-wear. Guaranteed for 25 years without your even painting—"Oshawa" double-galvanized shingles need no paint to outlast any roofing there is. Make roofs fire-proof, too,—guaranteed in every way you want. Cheap in first cost as common wood shingles, yet more durable than slate. Sold under a written guarantee that really means something to the buyer.

You can't afford any other kind

With a hammer, a snip, and a horse-pot on sense anybody can roof buildings right with "Oshawa" Galvanized Steel Shingles. They need no cleats. They lock on all FOUR sides. Made in only one grade—of 28-gauge semi-hardened sheet steel in the patented "Oshawa" way

"Oshawa" Shingles are an investment, not an expense.

More than 100 farm buildings were proof, too damaged in Ontario alone last year by lightning. Not one of them would have been harmed if they'd been "Oshawa"-roofed. These shingles insulate a building—make it safe against every element. Let us tell you what it will cost you to roof the "Oshawa" way.

WHY HE WAS NOT PROMOTED.

He watched the clock.
He was always grumbling.
He was always behindhand.
He didn't believe in himself.
He asked too many questions.
His stock excuse was "I forgot."
He wasn't ready for the next step.
He did not put his heart in his work.
He learned nothing from his blunders.
He chose his friends among his inferiors.
He never dared to get on his own judgment.
He did not think it worth while to learn how.
He tried to make "bluff" take the place of ability.
He thought he must take amusement every evening.
Familiarity with slipshod methods paralyzed his ideal.
He did not learn that the best part of his salary was not in his pay.

A man never boasts that he doesn't know the meaning of fear when his wife is present.

CHINESE SEVEN AGES.
Unknown Philosopher Pictures the Course of the Life of Man.

A French officer, Louis de Chantilly, tells in Paris Gil Blas of his discovery in a Buddhist convent in the mountains of Tonkin of a dusty manuscript containing the Chinese version of the seven ages of man.

"At 10 years old," says the writer, whose name has long been forgotten, "the boy has a heart and a brain as soft as the tender shoots of a young bamboo. At 20 he is like a green banana; he is just beginning to ripen in warm rays of common sense.

"Thirty years sees him developed into a buffalo. He is strong and lusty, full of bodily and mental vigor. This is the true age of love; the age for him to marry at.

"At 40 years the prosperous man has grown to be a mandarin and wears a coral button. But it would be truly indiscreet to confide to him at this early age any functions calling for judicial intelligence or calm.

"When he reaches 50 years, however, although he has grown stout and fleshy, he is fit to hold any municipal or state office; he can administer a city or province or perform any official duty.

"But at 60 years he is old. Handicrafts and all active bodily activities are beyond him. He gives his dependents and clients advice. That is all he is fit for.

"At 70 he is just a dry rice straw. He has only one care: to husband the breath of life that is left to him, to preserve it, even by artificial means. His sons must assume the care of his estate and the performance of his duties."

GERMANY'S ORATOR.
Herr Bebel the Most Finished Talker in the Empire.

"The most finished and effective speaker in Germany," said Professor Ernest Schnabel of Berlin, "is Herr Bebel, the leader of the Socialist party. This man had no advantages of early training, no university education, and indeed gained his knowledge of literature through his own unaided efforts. He worked at the trade of a wheelwright in his younger days, but even while struggling for a living he was a close student, particularly of governmental affairs and political economy. His views are obnoxious to a great majority of his fellow members of the Reichstag, and yet whenever he rises to speak he commands the closest attention of the legislators. Among his followers he is idolized, and they obey him as implicitly as if he were their king. He is a man of austere life and is said to be without even the smaller vices of mankind."

A Cure for Costiveness.—Costiveness comes from the refusal of the excretory organs to perform their duties regularly from contributing causes usually disordered digestion. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, prepared on scientific principles, are so compounded that certain ingredients in them pass through the stomach and act upon the bowels so as to remove their torpor and arouse them to proper action. Many thousands are prepared to bear testimony to their power in this respect.

ELUSIVE.
Doctor—Now, Giles, can you tell me exactly where you feel the pain?
Giles—Well, sir, it's a hypercritically sort of pain, I puts me finger on it and it ain't there; an' when I touches where it's gone to, it's in the old place all the time!

NO REASON AT ALL.
"Mamma," said Eddie, quietly, "why do landlords object to letting houses to people with children?"
"I don't know, Eddie," replied his mamma. "Tommy, stop that hollering! Goodness, Bessie, don't make so much noise! And, Willie, if you don't stop breaking those windows, I'll tell papa of you!"

PROOF.

"The evidence shows, Mrs. Mulsohey, that you threw a stone at Policeman Casey."
"It shows more than that, yer Honor; it shows that Oi hit him."

In Nature's Storehouse There are Cures. — Medical experiments have shown conclusively that there are medicinal virtues in even ordinary plants growing up around us which give them a value that cannot be estimated. It is held by some that Nature provides a cure for every disease which neglect and ignorance have visited upon man. However, this may be, it is well known that Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, distilled from roots and herbs, are a sovereign remedy in curing all disorders of the digestion.

He: "You wouldn't marry me for my money, would you?" She: "Why no, you silly boy! I wouldn't marry you for anything."

It is the Farmer's Friend.—The farmer will find in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil a potent remedy for wounds or pains in the body or for affections of the respiratory organs and for household use generally. He will also find it a convenient friend in treating injured horses, cattle, etc., or relieving them when attacked by colds, coughs or any kindred ailments to which they are subject.

"Your husband is so different from other men, isn't he?" "Yes; but how did you know, you never met him?" "No; but he married you, you know."

Mirrors are a nuisance in the house of a man whose face is branded with eczema. His own reflection shames him. Let him anoint his skin with Weaver's Corate and purify his blood with Weaver's Syrup.

Little Johnnie—"Mother, tell how papa got to know you." Mother—"One day I fell into the water, and he jumped in and fetched me out." Little Johnnie—"Hm! that's funny; he won't let me learn to swim."

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their heart's content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Old Growells (sternly)—"What was going on in the parlor last night that kept you up so late, young lady?" Pretty Daughter (holding up her hand)—"This engagement-ring, papa. Isn't it a beauty?"

Lady: "Don't you know that a barking dog never bites?" Tramp: "Yes, mum; but how am I to know that all of a sudden your dog won't stop barking?"

SENTENCE SERMONS.

Kindness is a seed that never finds a barren soil. Virtue for profit will become vice for more profit.

The best friendship is that which brings out the best in us.

What we call destiny often is only a matter of determination.

If you would lose all force think always of your own feelings.

The true man fears the power of sin more than his punishment.

Mending your ways is the best way of mourning over them.

If you cannot hate hypocrites and evil you are not likely to love virtue.

Many a man who is proud of being wicked is really only weak in the head.

It will not give you wings to have your name on the fly leaf of the Bible.

You can tell the character of any age by the place it gives to character.

An abnormal sense of your own rights soon will hide your neighbor's righteousness.

You can never meet the needs of a thirsty world by packing water on both shoulders.

In the light of heaven we may find the greatest heroes have been hidden from earth.

The man who never thinks of the feelings of others is sure to be devoid of epidermis himself.

A man never has any trouble about his habits when he is carried away by some great work.

A man is likely to quit talking about magnates as soon as he buys his first block of stock.

Success often means to get what others want, but what you no longer have any appetite for.

Many pulpits waste so much time on an invisible devil that there is neither light nor heat left for men.

It is a good deal easier to preach things heroic and divine than it is to practice things ordinarily human and decent.

WOMEN RAILROADERS.

The number of women employed on the Russian railways is increasing. According to the latest returns there are now working on the 25 Russian State railways no fewer than 22,000 women as gatekeepers, clerks, telegraphers, etc. The average wage varies from 130 to 135 roubles yearly ($65 to $70). The extremes are great. Thus, the women clerks receive on an average from 450 to 460 roubles, or about $230, while the women attending at the station get only 40 roubles, or about $19.50 a year, in addition to free lodging and a few extras.

TABLE ETIQUETTE.

Landlady—"Here is the hash, Mr. Knox."
Mr. Knox—"No introduction necessary, madam. We have met before, I believe."

GIVE ME STRENGTH

This is the cry in these strenuous days, when business makes such demands upon us.

Exercise and fresh air are necessary if we would be strong, but the tendency of life to-day is towards conveniences and modes of living that deprive us of the very means of keeping our strength and health unimpaired.

We sit more, we sleep less, we eat richer and more artificial foods than formerly.

The natural remedy—the practical means of withstanding these inroads upon our safety—

Take the fresh air and sunshine when possible, that is—when going to and from work—
