Induction Services.

The ceremony of the induction of the Rev. W. H. A. French to the incumbency of St. James's, Fenelon Falls, and St. Peter's, Verulam, on Thursday evening last, was witnessed by a large gathering of parishioners and others who turned out, despite the unfavorable weather, to be present on the interesting occasion.

The induction was performed by the Rev. Rural Dean Creighton, of Lakefield, and the service which followed was conducted by the Revs. C. H. Marsh, of Lindsay, E. A. Langfield, of Peterboro', A. Cummer, of Kinnmount, and — Spencer, of Essonville. The sermon, an excellent discourse, was delivered by the Rev. Canon Sprague, of Cobourg.

The decoration of the church for the occasion was exceptionally beautiful; for the ladies who had charge of this work had placed at their disposal by Mr. John Slater the entire stock of flowers in his garden—a stock for which it would be hard to find an equal outside the gardens of professional florists, and the result was the most magnificent floral decoration ever seen in the village.

The Harvest Home tea, held in Dickson's hall in connection with the event, was well attended, though rain fell almost continually during the evening, and the finances of the church were augmented to a very satisfactory extent.

The induction of the Rev. C. S. Lord, B. D., into the pastorate of St. Andrew's Fenelon Falls, and St. John's Somerville, which took place on Tuesday afternoon, was another event of interest which was witnessed by a large number of adherents of the Presbyterian church and their friends. The induction was performed by the Rev. J. W. Wallace, of Lindsay, and the new pastor was addressed by the Rev. Mr. Kannawin, of Woodville. The Rev. Mr. Ferguson, of Glenora, addressed the people, and the Rev. Mr. Munroe preached the opening sermon. The fowl supper held in the basement of the church in the evening was largely attended, the weather being perfect, and the church was filled to the doors for the addresses which followed. The Rev. J. W. Wallace occupied the chair, and interesting addresses were delivered by the Revs. W. J. M. Cragg, A. Cooke, and C. S. Lord. Excellent music was rendered by the choir, assisted by Miss Lillian Wilson.

Obituary

The community was shocked on Saturday morning last when it became known that Mr. John J. Townley, one of the village's most popular, progressive and successful business men, had passed to the Great Beyond on the previous night. Mr. Townley had been confined to his house for about two weeks, but his condition was not considered dangerous until a few days before his death, when symptoms of congestion of the brain appeared, and from that time he steadily grew worse until the time of his death. Mr. Townley, who was in his 49th year, came to the Falls thirteen years ago last spring to take the position of cutter in a tailoring establishment then being conducted by Mr. R. Taggart. He soon afterwards commenced business for himself, and between then and the time of his untimely demise, had built up what is without doubt one of the largest merchant tailoring businesses in the district. Mr. Townley was born in London, Eng., and before settling at the Falls, had travelled extensively in Europe and America, having been in business at Port Essington, Alaska, and Vancouver, B. C., before moving to Toronto, from which city he came here. He is survived by a wife, three sons and two daughters. The two eldest sons, Messrs. H. J. and A. L. Townley, who have been able assistants of their father in his business for several years, will carry it on without a change.

Powles' Corner.

(Correspondence of the Gazette)

The members of the congregations of the church here have decided on having a thank-offering to raise money for church purposes, and the date of the event, which is to take place in November, will be given next week. Last fall the members of the congregation had a thank-offering as a substitute for a fowl supper, and were well pleased with the result. Fowl suppers and tea meetings mean a lot of work and anxiety, and also a considerable amount of expense, and as a means of raising money for the cause of God are not proper or right.

Mr. J. H. Stroud is confined to the house with typhoid fever, and Dr. Wilson, of Fenelon Falls, is attending him. His many friends are making daily enquiries as to his condition. The many friends of Mr. Sam Moore, who has also been on the sick list, are glad to learn that he is able to be out again, though he is not yet well enough to go to work.

There is going to be a great scarcity of hay and straw during the coming winter, and several head of horses and cattle have already changed hands.

Next week the last victim of the beef ring will be killed and delivered, which will make twenty-five for the season.

The farmers are very busy with their fall ploughing and threshing, picking apples, taking up roots, and other jobs too numerous to mention.

Mr. Walker Lamb will leave the house he is now living in about the 20th of November, and take possession of a vacant house owned by Mr. John L. Brown, with whom he has engaged for a year.

Mrs. E. Ryley, of Waubausine, and Mrs. Thos. Payne, of Midland, were visiting at Mr. James Powles's for about two weeks.

Mrs. John Knox, who was on the sick list for a week or more under Dr. Graham's care, is now on her feet again.

SOLD AGAIN.—The old McMullin farm, about a mile from the Falls, has again changed owners, Mr. E. B. Whytall having sold it to Mr. John Eade, Jr., of Somerville. The price paid was $2,500, and we hear that that is about its value.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—A meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the residence of Mr. Geo. J. Nie, Fenelon Falls, on the afternoon of Friday next, the 28th inst., at 2.30 p. m. An address on "Thanksgiving" will be delivered by Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. A. French.

ST. JAMES'S CHURCH.—Rev. W. H. A. French being out of town, the services in St. James's church, and in St. Peter's, Verulam, will be taken on Sunday next by the Rev. Mr. Creighton, of Lindsay, and on the following Sunday by the Rev. A. C. Collier, curate of St. Paul's church, Lindsay.

A WARNING.—A young fellow in town had to "cough up" $14.95, the other day, for getting drunk and disorderly and assaulting the constable, who, as the local representative of King Edward, cannot be punished with impunity. This is a warning to other bibulous and beligerent youths to not go and do likewise.

WORTH THE MONEY.—Two years ago, more or less, Mr. Andrew Torrance gave Mr. E. G. Brock $45 for a practically thorough-bred Jersey cow coming three years old, and a few days ago he sold her to Rev. Fr. O'Leary, of Galway, for $75. This seems a big price, but she is worth every cent of it, for she has given no less than 16 lbs. of butter in a week, and would no doubt do better on first-class grass. Mr. Brock bought her somewhere near Cambay when only a few months old. She was taken to her new home near Swamp Lake on Wednesday by Mr. Thos. Scott.
