

Kinmount.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. John Magee, a well-known resident of Somerville township, died at his home on Sunday, November 24th, after a trying illness of several months, and was interred in the Kinmount cemetery on the following Wednesday. A number of friends and relatives from Toronto, Fenelon Falls and other places attended the funeral. Mr. Magee was a brother of Messrs. Robert and Frank Magee, of the Falls.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. C. Wellstood, Sr., on Monday evening, at 7.30 o'clock, by Rev. A. Cummer, when Miss Ethel Hill, of Norwich, England, was married to Mr. Bertram Beall, of the same place, but at the present time assistant agent at the G. T. R. station here.

Mr. J. P. Brownridge has severed his connection with the G. T. R. Co., and his place as agent for Kinmount is being filled by Mr. Donnelly.

Miss Edythe Wellstood went to Fenelon Falls this (Wednesday) morning with her little niece, Miss Edythe Fisk, who has been visiting in Kinmount for several weeks.

Miss Bertha Beech is leaving for Toronto this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griffin, of Fenelon Falls, spent Sunday with friends in Kinmount.

Rosedale.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

It was with deep regret that this community heard of the death of Mrs. Wm. Isaac, after about a week's illness. She was one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Cameron Point. The sympathy of the entire neighborhood goes out to the family and friends in their sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eade have left their farm in Somerville, which is, we believe, to be taken possession of by Mr. Robert Brooks in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eade intend, we understand, to leave this community ere long, as they have bought a residence in Fenelon Falls.

Mrs. Sutherland's new residence is nearly completed, and she hopes to be settled in it before the New Year.

Miss M. G. Reynolds has just returned from Toronto, after a three weeks' visit with friends.

Mr. W. McNeven, of Reabore, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Peter McNeven.

Everything is rather quiet around here. The people seem to be anxiously waiting to see what the Grits purpose doing on this part of the T. V. Canal.

Miss M. Arkwright and Miss R. Goodman spent Sunday in Fenelon Falls.

December Busy Man's Magazine.

The Christmas number of The Busy Man's Magazine contains an unusually large number of articles bearing on Canada and the British Empire. The stories, too, are Canadian in tone, (contributed, of course, by Canadian writers). "A Canadian Wit," is the title of a bright sketch of Samuel Nordheimer, who enjoys the distinction of being a brilliant entertainer, as well as a most successful business man. "Banking in Canada" is a short resume, by a veteran banker, of the banking system during the past fifty years. "The Former Rulers of the Canadian West," a brief history of the Hudson's Bay Company, will appeal to all interested in the early developments of Canada. "Training of Canadian Farmers," illustrates the good work that is being carried on by James W. Robertson, principal of the Macdonald College at Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec. "Creative Power of Advertising" should be studied by every business man. Other articles of deep interest are: "Trade Unions and Trusts," "What I Found Out as a Business Girl," "Retirement from Business," "The Straightway of Life," "Story of the Clarendon Press," "To Cut the Ocean in Two" and "Life on Board the Dreadnought." A half-dozen photographic illustrations of "Men of the Hour," adds much to the appearance of the magazine. This is, without doubt, the strongest number of the Busy Man's that has yet appeared.

WHAT SHALL I GIVE?

This is the question everyone is asking himself at present. It can be answered easily in many cases by a visit to my store, where

- A WATCH, A CHAIN,
- A FOB, A BROOCH,
- A LOCKET, A NECKLACE,
- A PIN, A RING,

or some other thing can be found to suit your requirements. Don't send to the city for these things until you see what you can get right here in town.

FARM LABORERS AND DOMESTICS.

I have been appointed by the Dominion Government to place immigrants from the United Kingdom in positions as farm laborers or domestic servants in this vicinity. Any person requiring such help should notify me by letter, stating fully the kind of help required, when wanted and wages offered. The number arriving may not be sufficient to supply all requests, but every effort will be made to supply each applicant with help required.

NEWSPAPER LAW.

1. A post-master is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law), when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.
2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.
3. Any person who takes a paper from the post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.
4. If a subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it he takes it from the post-office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
