(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Messrs. Armstrong & Campbell have purchased quite an extensive timber limit from Mr. W. Devitt, and have set up their portable saw mill, and are prepared to do all the custom sawing that comes along. We wish them success in their undertaking.

At the last meeting of L. O. L. No. 1410 the following brethren were duly elected as officers for the ensuing year: W. M., Foster Heron; D. M., Thomas Kelly; Chap., C. Heaslip; Rec. Sec., E. Tiers; Fin. Sec., J. Mulligan; Treasurer, Wm. Gamble; Lecturer, Thos. Patterson. The brethren have decided on holding a basket social on Jan. 17th at their lodge room, for which there will be a good programme prepared.

The teacher of last year, Mr. H. Wallace, has been re-engaged for another year. He will commence his duties in the new school house that has been erected here, which will be quite a change from the old log one, it being a nice brick building.

C. O. O. F. NOTICE.—Mr. C. W. Hughan, D. D. G. M., and Dr. White, P. D. D. G. M., will visit Trent Valley Lodge on Monday evening, Jan. 6th, for installation of officers. Members will kindly turn out, as a large attendance is requested.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE.—The watch night service at St. James' Church was well attended and the service solemn and interesting. The sermon was taken from Exodus 33: 14, "My presence shall go with thee and give thee rest."

SLEIGH RIDE.—The children of the Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a sleigh ride on Monday afternoon. They were driven out to the residence of Mr. Frank Smitheram, in Fenelon, where tea was served and a programme disposed of, after which they returned home, arriving in the village about 8.30.

ST. PETER'S, VERULAM.—The Reverend Canon T. R. O'Meara, assisted the Rev. W. H. A. French, at St. Peter's Church by preaching an inspiring sermon on John 21: 15, 16, 17. Next Sunday being the first Sunday of the New Year, Holy Communion will be administered instead of the Sunday following which is the regular Communion Sunday.

IRISH EVENING.—Do not forget the Irish evening to be given on Monday, January 6th, by the Literary Society of St. James' Church. The Irish evening will be held at Maryboro Lodge, the residence of Mr. Thomas Cashore, where a fine programme of Irish selections, songs, etc., will be presented. Refreshments at the conclusion of the programme. All will be welcome. Admission 10c.

"CANED."—Mr. J. H. Brandon was well caned by his employees last week, a number of them calling at his residence on Christmas morning and performing the act in a very informal manner, and to his complete surprise. The cane is an exceedingly handsome one of the gold-headed variety, and "Jack" is justly proud of it. The opinion expressed by his friends is that the "caning" served Mr. Brandon jolly right.
