KEEP YOUR FEET DRY.

Keep them warm, too.

Any care that you give your feet at this time will well repay you.

A maxim says that if your feet are right you are all right.

A good deal of truth in it, too.

There are felt shoes, rubbers, overshoes and moccasins here that will fit any foot. They are new goods, strong and durable. Put a pair on and your feet will never guess that the weather is cold or the ground wet or slushy.

Prices always right.

J. L. ARNOLD.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We want our friends and customers to know that from this date we make up only our own goods, and that we will in no case manufacture at any price goods bought from shoddy pedlars. Our reputation and business has been built up on the best of materials and workmanship, and we still wish to maintain it. Hence this notice.

Coboconk.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)
The pretty little town of Coboconk was the scene of much excitement on the night of January 9th, when it was awakened from its slumber by the cries of fire, which was raging in Mr. Geo. Richman's general store. The fire was discovered about twelve o'clock by Mr. Richman, who slept over the store. He had not retired very early that night, and had not gone asleep. About twelve o'clock he heard a roaring noise in the store, and on peering through the stove pipe hole into the flames, he discovered half of it in flames. The alarm was immediately given, and in a few minutes a men were busy with their buckets carrying water to quench the fire. The fire was extinguished after doing considerable damage. Coboconk should be congratulated on its brave firemen.
Mr. Russel is in town visiting relatives.
A number of our young people intend taking in the tea at Rosedale on Wednesday night, Jan. 15th.
Mr. R. J. Cooke, of Fenelon Falls, spent a few days in town visiting friends.
Miss Bertha Richman is in Lindsay visiting her sister, Mrs. A. L. Webster.
Mrs. W. Bain is in Woodville visiting friends.
Mr. B. Wilson, of Lindsay, spent Sunday in town.

Burnt River.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)
Mr. Sam. Suddaby spent Monday in Fenelon Falls.
Miss C. Shuttleworth is visiting in Baddow.
Mr. Chas. Green has gone to the north for the winter.
Miss Mattie Brisbin has returned to Rochester.
Mr. Norman Nottter, Toronto, called on friends last week.
Mrs. Jos. Handley has been on the sick list for the past week.
Mr. Alex. Rettie, sr., one of Burnt River's oldest residents, had a bad fall on Saturday and will be laid up for some days.
No need of the people of Burnt River to go out of town to have their tailoring done, an up-to-date tailor shop has been opened up. Everything up to the mark.
Mr. Alex. Rettie is fixing up his saw mill and preparing for the spring cut. A large number of logs have already been brought in.
Mr. Earls, of Manitoba, is visiting Mr.

Booth. After an absence of thirty years he sees a great change in this vicinity. Since the telephone connections have been established in Burnt River it has proved a great convenience. Many are now looking forward to make arrangements with Fenelon Falls to be supplied with electricity for the lighting of the homes and the streets.

Fell's Station.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)
Miss K. Hughes returned to the city on Thursday last, accompanied by her sister Miss Bna Hughes.
Mr. J. W. Moise and Miss Leona Moise returned to their home at Orono, Ont., on Friday morning, after a very pleasant sojourn at Mr. Wm. Mitchell's, Fairview.
Miss E. Devitt has returned to her former position as teacher at Tipling's School, 3rd line.
Mr. Geo. Carow, who has been spending the Xmas holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. S. Carow, returned to the Belleville Business College on Monday.
Our efficient teacher, Miss D. Piggott, has returned from her holidays.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Cundill, of Baddow, spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Bulmere. A dance and oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, on New Year's eve, was much enjoyed until the wee small hours of the morning.
Mr. Jas. Poulson is busy taking out the timber for a new barn which he intends erecting in the spring. Another new barn is also in preparation on Mr. Wood's farm.
Voting for councillors and local option has been the topic of the day, and by the reports we have the right men in the right places. The correspondent sincerely agrees with the man on the corner at Powles' concerning the local option question.

Kinmount.

Special from Our Own Correspondent.
Early this morning a disastrous fire took place when Craig & Austin's saw-mill was burned to the ground. The cause is unknown, as the mill, being closed for the winter, there was nothing to cause fire. Fortunately the wind blew away from the yard and the lumber was in no danger. As yet no particulars are known as to the insurance, etc.
On Friday of last week the St. James' S. S. held their annual 'ea, concert and Xmas tree in the Foresters' Hall. It was unanimously voted a big success. The programme consisted of motion songs by the children, drills etc. The two principal features were, a short play entitled "Way down East" and a musical operetta by fourteen young ladies, called "Market Day." Both were splendidly carried through and the children all performed their parts most creditably.
The Royal Templars are preparing for a concert in the near future.
The fight for local option during the recent election was a keen one, but the right won and next May the bars must close.

Rosedale.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)
Mr. F. J. Goodman went to Toronto on Monday on business.
Word arrived here on Monday evening of the sad death of Mr. Isaac McMahon, a former resident of this place, who was accidentally killed while working for the Gull River Lumber Co. in Stanhope Township. Much regret is felt here over this sad affair.
We are pleased to see Mrs. A. Sackett out again after a week's illness.
Mr. A. McFadyen returned to Toronto last week after a two weeks' visit to his uncle Mr. T. Reynolds.
The Presbyterian pulpit was very ably filled by a student from Knox College, Toronto, on Sunday evening in the absence of Mr. Ross, who was unable to be present owing to the illness of his son.
This week we are wondering who the poet is.
Order, confidence and prosperity could be brought out of the present anarchy and distress in three months if Socia- lists were at the helm. But you prefer to have the government operated by the great brains that produce panics every ten years! Squirr, smarties.
