

him years afterwards, when driven into a corner and could find no other excuse. When the charge of government took place in January, 1907, so widely and freely expressed had been the dissatisfaction with the actions of the old council, that it was expected the new council would at least have sufficient respect for the wishes of the poor ratepayers to demand of the directors a statement of how that large amount of money was expended. But a whole year has been allowed to pass and still another council elected, yet nothing has been done; and when I gently remind them of their duty the receive flares up on their behalf, and with a great flourish of trumpets, claims it is a personal attack upon himself.

Yours truly,

JAMES DICKSON.

Fenelon Falls, Feb. 25th, 1908.

District Notes.

Mr. Hugh McPhail, of Maple Lake, one of the oldest residents of Haliburton County, died on the 12th inst., in his 92nd year.

E. B. Squeers, Esq., of Dorset, has been elected Warden of Haliburton County. He is said to be the youngest man who ever held the office.

A movement is on foot to establish an independent telephone line from Dorset to Minden, Huntsville and Baysville.

A hen belonging to Mr. G. Loucks, of Dorset, has passed through a rather trying experience, having been imprisoned in a well for twenty-two days before being discovered and rescued. She is singing as merrily as ever, apparently none the worse of her long fast.—Echo Corr.

Forty years ago a man named Thomas McNearney, then a resident of Emily township, lost his right hand in a threshing machine accident, and his neighbors subscribed about $35 to help him through. Last week County Treasurer McNeillie received an order for the amount from Mr. McNearney, who is now living in the state of Iowa. McNearney could not send the money to those who subscribed it, as the only ones he had any recollection of are dead, so he sent it to the county treasurer to be used for the benefit of the poor of the county.

BIRTHS.

HUGHES.—In the township of Verulam, on Wednesday, February 25th, 1908, the wife of Mr. Albert Hughes of a son.
