

CLOSE SEASON.—The close season for bass and maskinonge commenced on Wednesday of this week, and will last until the 16th of June, until which time it is the duty of every person who wishes to see the fishing in the local waters continuing good as at present, to assist in having the protective law rigidly observed.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—Special Easter services will be held in St. Andrew's church on Sunday. Subject of morning sermon, "If a man die, shall he live again?" Special music will be provided. Evening service will be in part as follows: Anthem, "Christ is Risen," by the choir; Solo, "Face to Face," Mrs. Ruth-erford; Violin solo, Miss Brandon; Solo, "Easter Dawn," Miss McDougall; Solo, "Rock of Ages," Miss Bryans; Anthem, "Joyful Eastertide," Choir; Violin Solo, "Martha," Wm. McDougall; Sermon by Pastor.

OFF THE TRACK.—Several freight cars on the Haliburton train jumped the track about two miles this side of Kinnmount on Tuesday morning, and, as the Lindsay auxiliary train was engaged elsewhere, the line was not cleared until night. Fortunately the engine and the passenger coaches kept the rails, and nobody was hurt. A special train ran up from Lindsay, and the passengers and baggage were transferred around the wreck and taken on to their destination. The trains got back to their regular times again next day. The cause of the run-off was said to be a "soft spot" in the road-bed, which gave way under the weight of the train. These soft spots are of frequent occurrence on all lines when the frost is going out in the spring, and in spite of careful running, sometimes cause a spill.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Telephone Talk.

Mr. Editor,—

In my last letter on this subject I tried to interest the business and professional men of your town in rural telephones, and I hope I will see some fruit from my small endeavors. Two or three hundred dollars invested in our little enterprise would help us out immensely just now. But this time I would like to impress on the country people the fact that they are not giving this thing the support that it deserves. A few weeks ago Mr. Bert Billett, son of Mr. James Billett, of Verulam, had the misfortune to get his leg broken. Mr. Billett immediately telephoned Dr. Wilson, who went out and attended the case, and the doctor told me that he has no doubt that through his being there as soon as he was, (which would not have been possible except for the telephone), two, if not three, trips were saved. The doctor said: "I am satisfied that the telephone saved Mr. Billett ten or fifteen dollars, besides the discomfort of driving after the doctor and the conveniences of taking messages without going out of the house." A farmer who had a telephone heard a noise in the road, and, going to a window, saw a pair of horses tearing along the road, and two frightened and helpless women in the rig. He telephoned to a neighbor further on who he knew had a number of men working; and the result was, when the runaway team got to that neighbor's place, there were a lot of resolute men on the road who captured the horses, and in all probability saved the lives of those two women. Not so long ago as to be forgotten by the neighbors, Mr. James Armstrong's house took fire on a very cold night. He was away from home, and if Mrs. Armstrong had not been a heroine, she and the children might have been burned to death; as it was, she was very severely frozen. If she had had a telephone, she might have had assistance. It is the duty of every person to take all the precautions available to guard against such disasters.

Fire Sale of King Hats.

A few weeks ago the headquarters of the "King Hat" suffered a serious loss by fire and many thousands of dollars' worth of the best hats were damaged by water and smoke. Several hundred dozen were only slightly disfigured, and many not at all. We were fortunate enough to secure 15 dozen of the best of these from the Salvage Company at a price that will enable our customers to invest in a King Hat at less than price of ordinary cheap trashy makes. See them on Saturday, get one for Easter. They're all this year's styles worth $1.50 to $3.00. Sale Price Saturday, $1.00.
