NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Baddow.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The farmers around here will soon be through seeding.
 Mr. James McGregor, of Blackstock, is visiting his sister, Mrs. George Goodmand.

Mrs. C. Hepburn and her son Edgar, of Beaverton, spent a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Arthur Limerick returned home to-day, after spending a week with friends in Lindsay.

Our teachers are looking forward to being home on the 24th.

Miss Ethel Wilson spent Sunday at home.
 The boys are delighted that the sucker fishing season is at hand.

A swell horse, buggy and harness were in this vicinity from Saturday until Monday.

Fairbairn.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. Well Smith is wearing a smile these days over his new baby boy; also Mr. John Mulligan over his pair of boys.

Death has removed another of our old settlers in the person of Mrs. Thomas Devitt, whose funeral took place on Sunday last to the Verulam cemetery, attended by a large concourse of friends. This is the third old settler to go within the last three weeks, Mrs. William Mulligan and Mrs. James Akister Sr. being the other two.

Mr. Charles Moffat has arrived, and is busy preparing for the season's work in the cheese factory, expecting to start operations in a day or two. He has as his helper Mr. Ernie Kelso, of Bobcaygeon, who is a practical cheese-maker also.

Burnt River.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mrs. R. Moffat spent Saturday in Lindsay.

Mr. Ed. Lansfield, of Fenelon Falls, spent Sunday at Burnt River.

The local foot-ball team are getting in fine trim for May 25th.

Mr. H. McDougall, of Fenelon Falls, is spending the week at Burnt River.

spent Monday at Burnt River.

Mrs. Plevin spent Monday at Fenelon Falls.

Work on the telephone line between Burnt River and Kinmount is being rapidly pushed forward, and connections will be secured within a few weeks.

Preparations are being made for the celebration on May 25th. Tea will be served by the ladies of the English church, and an entertainment will be given in the evening in the Orange hall.

Bury's Green.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. Jas Pogue has decided that it is not good to live alone and has taken a partner in the person of Miss Ferris. The wedding took place at the home of her sister, Mrs. McKenzie, of Silver Lake. Their many friends wish them every happiness.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. James Akister passed away on Monday. She leaves behind to mourn her loss a husband and twelve children, all grown up, also one brother and two sisters. The funeral on Wednesday was largely attended. Rev. Mr. French conducted the service and spoke from Philippians 2nd chapter and 7th verse, and delivered a strong message. Deceased was a faithful member of St. Peter's church and will be held in loving memory by many.

Rosedale.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. Fred Goodman, of Fenelon Falls, spent Sunday in Rosedale.

The steamer Kawartha took a party of our most prominent citizens to Fenelon Falls on Thursday evening last, where they attended the concert given by the St. James' Literary Society of that place. All speak in glowing terms of the quality of entertainment provided.

Miss Jessie Spence, of Peterborough, is at present a visitor in Rosedale.

Mr. McDonald evidently intends to complete his work upon the new canal here as soon as possible, as he is receiving a large amount of up-to-date machinery of all kinds. He brought a large dredge down from Kirkfield on Saturday last, and expects to have it in operation soon.

The first drive of the season passed through here on Monday. The logs were owned by Messrs. J. and W. Brandon, of Fenelon Falls, and were cut during the past winter on their property south of here.

The Rev. J. Ross, of Kinmount, called on friends in Rosedale on Monday.

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. Peter Hewie has leased his aunt's farm for a term of five years. Mrs. Margaret Hewie and her son Thomas will take this season's crop off, and will likely sell the farm stock and implements some time next fall.

Mrs. H. Smith, of Lipton, Sask., is visiting relatives here and at Fenelon Falls.

Mr. William Cooper is another loser. A few weeks ago one of his cows got mired in the swamp and failed to recover from the effect, dying the other day.

The farmers are making good progress with their seeding, and some will be done this week.

Now that the political campaign is on, let it be an educative one. A great many of the electors are not thoroughly familiar with public affairs, so the good old-fashioned way of public meetings are at once in order. This, with the press, is the way to educate the electorate.

Vegetation has made a nice start, and if there be no more spring frost, there should be lots of fruit this year. And a good many people are beginning to think that the month of June will be a good month for the Hon. A. G. McKay.

Haliburton

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Many persons in the vicinity of Haliburton are on the "sick list," and the doctors are busy night and day. The patients on whom Dr. Soudy operated for appendicitis are improving rapidly, and expect to return to their homes in a few days.

S. Phillips, Esq., I. P. S., visited the village school on Friday, the 15th inst., and rumor says "he was much pleased with the way in which the juveniles are being handled in that institution."

The base-ball boys are practising in the evenings, and a match is spoken of between our home team and some outside sports.

We are to have a general holiday on the 25th, (Victoria Day,) when all kinds of manly sports will be in order—baseball, canoe racing, horse racing, foot racing etc. A large number are expected to be present. In the evening there will be an entertainment in the hall under the auspices of the Orange Order, when Col. Sam Hughes is expected to entertain the audience with his celebrated illustrated lecture on South Africa.

A number of our citizens are intending to take in the excursion to Guelph on June 4th.

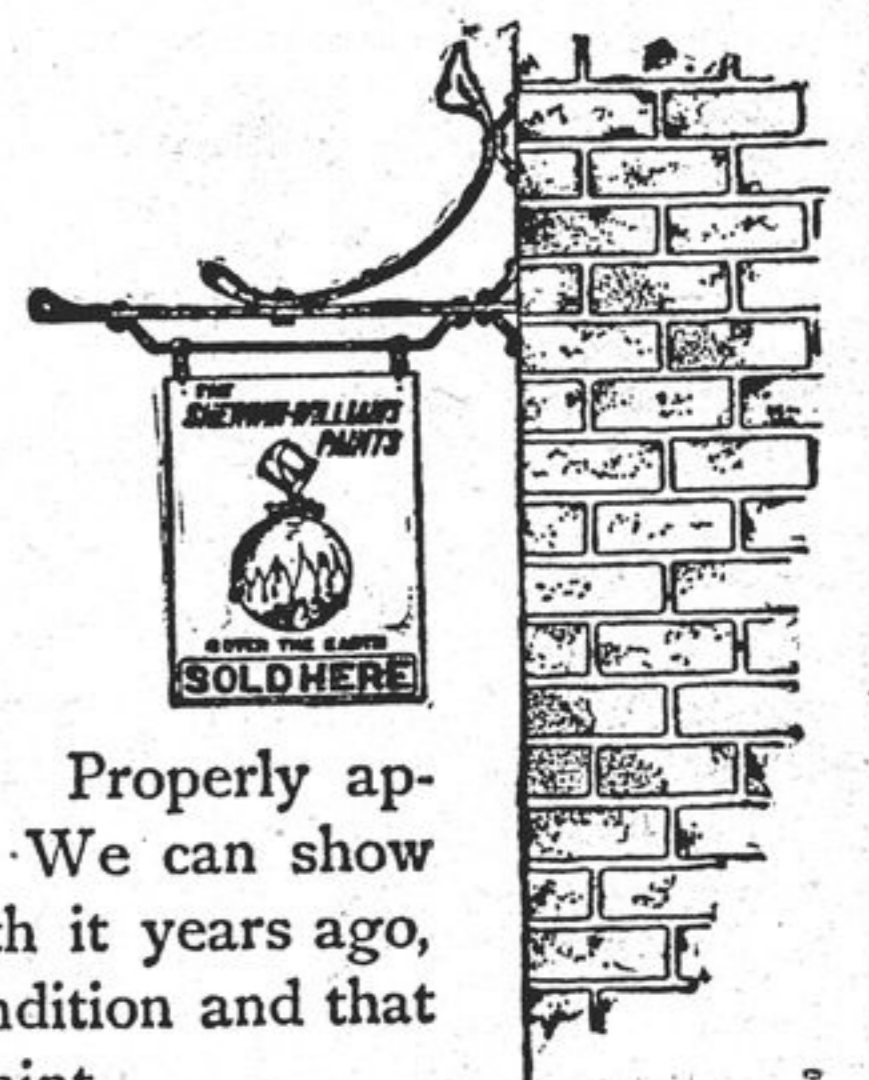

The farmers in this locality are about through seeding and planting. Vegetation in this latitude is farther advanced at this date than it was on the first of June last year.

The mills are all in operation again,

The Safe Paint to use is

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

It is a pure lead, zinc, and linseed oil paint of the greatest durability. Properly applied it can't go wrong. We can show you houses, painted with it years ago, that are still in good condition and that prove the value of the paint.
