

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

Burnt River.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. Oviato, of Cleveland, are the guests of Mrs. T. Brisbin. Miss A. Smith, of Cameron, is visiting at Mr. Swanton's.

Mrs. James Budd (nee Lily Suddaby) is visiting her father, Mr. S. Suddaby. Miss Edith Tinney, of Lindsay, is spending a few days under the parental roof.

A very pretty event took place at Fenelon Falls on Wednesday, Oct. 7th, when Miss Edna Tinney, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Tinney, was married to Mr. Adolphus Levely, eldest son of Mr. S. Levely. A reception was held in the evening at the home of the bride's father. The number of costly and useful presents showed the esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Levely will live at Burnt River, and their numerous friends join in wishing them many years of happiness and prosperity.

A very quiet wedding took place at St. Margaret's Rectory, Toronto, when Miss Lillian Suddaby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Suddaby, of Burnt River, was married to Mr. J. Budd, of Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Budd have many friends at Burnt River, and all extend to them their best wishes for a long and prosperous life. Mr. and Mrs. Budd will reside in Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Umphrey attended the Wilson-Umphrey wedding in Lindsay on Wednesday last. Among those who attended the Fenelon Falls fair were Messrs. Brisbin, Oviato, Perdue, Townsend, Misses Retie and Handley and Mrs. Budd.

Mr. W. Bailey, of Donald, spent Sunday at Burnt River.

Mr. B. Cain, student at Albert College, Belleville, conducted the services in the Methodist church on Sunday last. Miss O. Townsend, of Glendown, spent Sunday at home.

Fairbairn.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Mr. Harold Wallace, our teacher, has resigned his position to accept a more lucrative one with the Flavell's, Limited, Lindsay, as book-keeper. His place has been filled by Miss Parker, of South Verulam, who comes highly recommended. We extend to her a cordial welcome to our community.

Mr. John Campbell, of North Verulam, who was stricken with typhoid fever a short time ago, died on Saturday morning last, and was buried at Bury's Green on Monday afternoon. His funeral was conducted by the brethren of L. O. L. No. 3410, of which Order he was an active member. The procession was one of the largest ever seen in this part, thus showing the esteem in which he was held. His sorrowing friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Messrs. Nicholas and Junkin are busy threshing around the corners. The grain is turning out good, but the straw is not nearly as plentiful as last year. Cheese sold on Lindsay board on Monday, Oct. 5th at 12 3/16 for the entire board. The make is down considerable on account of continued drought. There will be only one more sale this season—on Nov. 5th, which will include the whole of October make.

Bury's Green.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Mrs. William Small, of Michigan, is visiting at Mr. George Brooks's. Mrs. Sam. Skuce, of Onemee, is visiting Mrs. J. Skuce. After two weeks of great suffering from typhoid fever, John Campbell passed away on Saturday morning. He was a young man, strong and active, and his early death was a surprise to everyone. He leaves a father, mother, four brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss. The funeral to the Presbyterian burying ground was the largest ever seen in the community, being fully a mile long. The Orangemen, of whom he was a member held their usual service at the grave.

Norland.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Miss Mary Houston, of Toronto, is visiting old friends and acquaintances in this place.

Misses Flora and Lulu Adair were visiting friends in St. Catharines and Toronto, but have returned home again.

Mrs. G. W. Alley, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, is slowly improving, and her many friends will be glad to see her around again soon.

Mr. C. J. S. Banting, of Barrie, was in town one day last week.

Mr. George Smith, O. L. S., of Lindsay, gave Norland friends a flying visit last week.

Messrs. James and Charles Peel, of the Gull River Co., of Lindsay and Cobocok, were in town last Friday on business, and dined at the Boardway house.

Mr. Wm. Pearson was in Lindsay last week on business.

Master Reggie Courtemanche, son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Courtemanche, was so ill that he was not expected to live; but he has improved lately, and is now on a fair way to recover.

Mr. James Wakelin, who has been very ill, is able to be around again.

Mr. Matthew Greer, Sr., who has been on the sick list, is still in a very low condition, and his recovery is doubtful.

Mr. R. Morrow, who has the contract for the carpenter work of the new stone school house, has been with his men, Mr. John McMillan and Mr. Alex. McMillan, of Eldon, who have been working at the school for the past two weeks, and will soon have it completed. One of the carpenters had the misfortune to get his ankle badly sprained by a falling scaffold, but we hope that he will soon be all right again.

Rosedale.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Miss M. Clifford, of Warsaw, Ont., who has been the guest of Mrs. Wm. McIntosh, of this place, for the past six weeks, returned to her home last week.

Mr. Wilfred Arkwright, of Reaboro, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. W. H. Priddy, of Peterborough, was in Rosedale on Saturday last on business in connection with the building of the new lock.

Mr. H. Daniel, who was a juror at the fall assizes held in Lindsay last week, returned on Friday, looking much better as a result of his short sojourn in that town.

Mr. A. Spence, Resident Engineer, moved on Tuesday last to his new office in the new lock house, which is almost completed.

Haliburton

(Correspondence of the Gazette)

Haliburton's annual fall fair, which was held last week, was, in some respects, an improvement on last year's exhibition. While the show of horses, cattle, horses, pigs and sheep was nothing to feel proud of, the grain and vegetable department was exceptionally good. The ladies' department, too, was a credit to those who took part. I noticed a number present from Minden, all of whom expressed themselves as well pleased with the show in general.

Dr. Wilson, of Fenelon Falls, was present at the fair, and spent some time during the day in renewing old acquaintances. I am informed that the Dr. will oppose Col. Hughes in the battle to be fought on the 26th inst. If the Dr. sets resolutely to work, putting aside all business, and facing every tedious obstacle he may, at the close of the battle, find himself at the head of the poll. Who knows?

S. Phillipps, Esq., I. P. S., paid a professional visit to the school on Tuesday, where he remained from early morning till late in the afternoon.

Mr. E. W. Leith, of the T. Eaton Co., accompanied by his wife, returned to the city on Wednesday last, after spending a couple of weeks with his father, Mr. W. R. Leith, of town.

A number from Haliburton went down to Fenelon Falls on Wednesday to attend the fall show in that place.

Mrs. Wm. Speer, of town, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nugent, of Fenelon Falls.

DRESSMAKING.

Miss M. Tipling, of Fenelon Falls, has opened a dressmaking shop over Terrill Bros.' store.
