Rev. Dr. Linscott's Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson for Jan. 3rd, 1909.

The Ascension of Our Lord.—Acts 1: 1-14.

Golden Text.—It came to pass while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into Heaven. Luke xxiv: 51.

Verse 1.—What former treatise is here referred to?

What did Jesus do, and what did He teach?

Does it in any way limit the idea of the teaching of Jesus, if we summarize it by saying that He people only taught two things, viz., to do righteousness and to see God?

Which class of persons are accomplishing the greatest good, the workers or the teachers?

Verse 2.—What was the chief objective commandment which Jesus gave to His apostles just prior to His ascension?

What is to-day the chief work of the Christian Church, and of each member of that Church?

Verse 3.—What was the nature and number of the proofs that Jesus gave of His resurrection from the dead?

Can you refer to any historical fact better attested with proofs than the resurrection of Jesus?

Verse 4.—What was "the promise of the Father" referred to in this verse? (See Luke xxiv: 49, John xiv: 16, et seq.)

What, in present day vernacular, is precisely the gift of the Holy Spirit?

Is there more than one God, and, if not, is not the Holy Spirit God himself, so to speak becoming incarnate to each person, localizing himself, and accommodating himself to the individual soul?

Had these apostles, up to this time, received the Holy Spirit into their natures in this particular sense?

Have all the Christians to-day received the Holy Spirit in the Pentecostal sense?

Is this same "promise of the Father" still standing for all of God's children?

WHY IS IT THAT SO FEW CHRISTIANS ARE CONSCIOUS THAT THEY ARE INDWELT AND ENVELOPED BY GOD, THE HOLY SPIRIT?

(This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 5.—What, if any, resemblance is there between water baptism and the gift of the Holy Spirit?

What are the conditions for a Christian to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit?

Verses 6-7.—What knowledge is the most desirable?

Can you give an example of some questions upon which it is useless to speculate?

Would it be a good thing for us if God were to answer all our questions in the way we desire?

Would it be a blessing, or a curse, for us to know the future, either as regards ourselves or our country?

Is it wise, or otherwise, for Christians to speculate, or teach, or even to form opinions, concerning the time of the second coming of Christ?

Verse 8.—What is a prime necessity for Christians to know and experience, in order to have power to live right, and to testify effectually of Jesus?

Verse 9.—Did Jesus appear to them to ascend into the clouds, much as a balloon ascends?

Verses 10-11.—What is the import of what these two men said to them concerning the return of Jesus?

Would the coming of the Spirit of Jesus on the day of Pentecost be the return of Jesus as these men meant?

Verses 12-14.—What did they wait for, and pray about, in this upper room?

Lesson for Sunday, Jan. 10, 1909.—The Descent of the Holy Spirit. Acts ii: 1-21.

A TREMENDOUS SACRIFICE SALE.

THE PUBLIC BENEFITS.

The public of Lindsay, Victoria County and vicinity will benefit greatly by B. J. Gough's big purchase of a number of manufacturers' surplus clothing stocks—$45,000 in all—consisting of men's and boys' clothing, suits, overcoats, furnishings, etc. B. J. Gough, of Lindsay, Ontario, secured $45,000 worth of men's, boys' and children's clothing, suits, overcoats, etc., at an unheard-of low figure on account of the recent condition of the money market. The manufacturers had to sell and B. J. Gough obtained these stocks at practically his own price. B. J. Gough says that he is going to give the people of Lindsay, Victoria County and vicinity the benefit of his great purchase of Manufacturers' surplus stocks by giving the people the most stupendous and most remarkable ten-day sale on men's, boys', and children's clothing, etc., that was ever given in the entire province of Ontario. The entire stocks, direct from the manufacturers, will be sold at such ridiculously low prices that the public will be amazed. This ten-day sale will be, without question of a doubt, the biggest bargain feast of men's, boys' and children's clothing, suits and overcoats, etc., that was ever given in Lindsay at any time before, or that will ever occur here again. Commercial circles will be astounded at the tremendous bargains offered. It will be a bargain earthquake of low prices on good quality clothing, furnishings, etc., that will rouse the people of Lindsay, Victoria County and vicinity from centre to circumference. It took great nerve and a big outlay of cash to buy this large surplus of Manufacturers' stock for a city the size of Lindsay, for as a rule these great snaps are usually gobbled up by the largest stores in Toronto, but B. J. Gough says there is nothing too good for the people of Lindsay and vicinity, and he proposes to give the public a stupendous ten-day sale on the above stocks that will be the talk of the entire province and surrounding country for ten years to come. It will be a premier effort in value giving on men's and boys' suits and overcoats, children's clothing, furnishings, etc., such as the public will long remember, as never heretofore have our people been able to buy clothing, suits, overcoats, furnishings, etc., at less than wholesale cost of manufacture. B. J. Gough's big store will be closed Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 4th and 5th, in order to get these great surplus stocks in readiness for the opening day's sale, and the store will not be open for business until the opening day of the sale, which will be Wednesday morning, at 9 a. m., January 6th. This is no ordinary clothing sale, but one in fact that seldom occurs in any community. B. J. Gough, of Lindsay has certainly prepared for immense crowds of people, having already engaged many extra salesmen in order to be able to wait upon the large crowds that will attend the sale during this stupendous ten-day clothing, suit, overcoat, furnishings, sacrifice. The people of Lindsay and vicinity have heretofore had the opportunity of attending such a sacrifice sale as B. J. Gough's Manufacturers' Outlet Sale will afford the public. It is an opportunity which comes to you about once in a lifetime. Let all who possibly can attend this most wonderful bargain event to replenish your clothing and furnishing goods needs. Remember the sale will last for ten days only. This great sale positively opens Wednesday morning, January 6th, at 9 a. m. Drop everything—make your arrangements to be in Lindsay, Ont., if possible on the opening day. Be sure you find the right place. Look for the big green and white sign, "B. J. Gough's Manufacturers' Outlet Sale," corner Kent and William streets, Lindsay, Ontario. We would advise early morning trading as much as possible in order to facilitate the proper handling of the immense crowds of people who will attend this gigantic clothing, suit, overcoat, and furnishings sale, which opens January 6th, (Wednesday morning) at 9 a. m. Be here on one of the ten sale days and secure your share of the many bargains offered. You cannot afford to miss this sale at B. J. Gough's store, corner of Kent and William streets, Lindsay, Ontario. Remember the opening date, and if you value money then prepare accordingly, and you will save many dollars on men's, boys' and children's clothing, suits, overcoats and furnishing goods, etc. Sale only lasts ten days beginning Wednesday morning, Jan. 6th, at 9 a. m., and ending Saturday night, Jan. 16th.

If you value Money, then prepare accordingly.
