TROUBLES OF BIG CITIES.

London's trouble is her fog, Tokio's trouble is earthquakes; in her worst 200,000 residents were killed. Calcutta's trouble is cholera, and the bubonic plague is the trouble of Bombay; each city pays to her trouble an annual tribute of 9.0 lives. Madrid's trouble is the solan, a summer wind from the southeast; it is exceedingly hot, and is accompanied by blinding, choking clouds of dust, so that, notwithstanding a temperature of 105 or 110 degrees, all windows must be closed. The mistral is the trouble of Marseilles, an east wind that increases the city death rate 50 per cent. Bagdad's trouble is the "Bagdad button," a sore that attacks practically every resident and visitor, leaving a button-shaped permanent scar.

"Before we were married," said Mrs. Chatterton, "you used to tell me how much you loved me, but you never do now." "Of course not, my dear," replied the masculine end of the matrimonial combine. "Since our marriage you haven't given me a chance to tell you anything."

As Fire Spreads in dry grass, so does an inflammation in the throat grow down into the lungs. Deal promptly with a cold as with a fire, and when you begin to cough use Allen's Lung Balm.

Women are naturally foolish; they are more afraid of mice than they are of men.

An End to Bilious Headache.—Biliousness, which is caused by excessive bile in the stomach, has a marked effect upon the nerves, and often manifests itself by severe headache. This is the most distressing headache one can have. There are headaches from cold, from fever, and from other causes, but the most excruciating of all is the bilious headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will cure it—cure it almost immediately. It will disappear as soon as the Pills operate. There is nothing surer in the treatment of bilious headache.

The young man had gone to the heiress's father—always a ticklish job—but he took his courage with an iron grip. "Sir," he blurted out, "I want to ask you for your daughter's hand." The old man, not in the least disconcerted, said:—"Which hand? The one she signs cheques with, I suppose?"

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

SAFE SENTENCE.

Some of the West Indian islanders have learned that when a foreigner misbehaves himself on their shores it is better to suffer in silence than to mete out punishment at the risk of a visit from a gunboat from the miscreant's native land. A judge in Haiti recently took occasion to pay off old scores to redeem his self-respect in the case of an offender brought before him. To his first question, as to the nationality of the accused, the interpreter answered that the prisoner was from Switzerland.

"Switzerland!" said the judge. "That country has no sea-coast, has it?"

"No, your honor," replied the interpreter.

"And no navy?"

"Very well then," said the judge, "give him a year's hard labor!"

JUSTICE TO YOUR STOMACH.

Some Sensible Advice in Regard to Habits of Eating.

There are a few rules that may help you in doing justice to your stomach:

Don't change your food too abruptly. If you are used to a heavy dinner and a light lunch, go easy on a heavy lunch and a light supper. Your system has to be coaxed into taking care of so much food at an unusual hour.

Don't eat a quantity of fruit, candy, fancy cakes and vegetables all in one day and at odd hours. Be very sure that both fruit and vegetables are entirely ripe before indulging.

Don't drink quantities of tea and coffee when you are not used to them, just because they are served and you are off on a holiday. They are over stimulating, and throw the whole system into confusion.

If you are used to a light breakfast before going out to a day's work, whether social or commercial, don't try to eat a heavy breakfast made up of things you never touch. You start the day badly.

The other way around is also true. If you are one of those healthy, vital persons who like to eat a substantial breakfast, don't take coffee and rolls alone.

A Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's bill a heavy financial burden? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? I know what these mean to delicate women—I have been discouraged, too, but learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your burdens. Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and will if you will assist me.

All you need do is to write for a free box of the remedy which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one box will cure you—it has done so for others. If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for 2c (the cost of a postage stamp). Your letters held confidentially. Write to-day for my free treatment. MRS. F. E. CURRAH, Windsor, Ont.

Well, Sally, did you eat your ice cream with avidity?"

"No, I eat it with a spoon."

They are Not Violent in Action. Some persons, when they wish to cleanse the stomach, resort to Epsom and other purgative salts. These are speedy in their action, but serve no permanent good. Their use produces incipient chills, and if persisted in they injure the stomach. Nor do they act upon the intestines in a beneficial way. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills answer all purposes in this respect, and have no superior.
