

OUR SINCERE WISH— A BRIGHT AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR TO ALL.

We wish at this time to convey our best thanks to our many friends and customers for their kind and liberal patronage during the year that is now closing, and to solicit a continuance of the same. Our aim during the coming year will be to serve all of our customers well, to sell only the most reliable goods at the lowest price possible---in a word, to make this the best shopping place for you.

TERRILL BROS.,

Cheapest General Store In The County.

FENELON FALLS.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

Norland.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. D. McPhail, dealer in thoroughbred stock, of Sonya, was in town one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. David Caldwell of Orillia, are spending their Xmas holidays with Mrs. Caldwell's sister, Mrs. James Kay.

What makes Mr. Woodcock wear such a smiling face these days? Why, Santa Claus has left him a Christmas box in the shape of a fine baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nelson, of Parry Sound, are spending their Xmas holidays with Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. James Wakelin, Sr.

Mr. B. M. Pearson, of Oxbow, Sask., has arrived in town, and intends spending the winter with friends in Norland, Lindsay and Beaverton.

The Xmas tree and entertainment which was held under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school here was a decided success, and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Quite a number of our young people attended the Xmas tree and entertainment held in the Methodist Sunday school at Cobocok, on Dec. 23rd, and all report having a good time.

Captain Warren is renewing old friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Hugh McIntyre, of Fenelon Falls, is at home for his Xmas holidays.

Miss Grace Dand is gone to her home in Collingwood to spend her Xmas holidays.

Mrs. Sipe and son Gordon, of Haliburton, have been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Owen Wessels, of this place.

Mr. Frank Bryant has gone to his home at Miner's Bay.

Mrs. Owen Wessels and her little daughter Iona are visiting friends in Haliburton for a few weeks.

A sleigh load of young people of the village went up to Mr. Owen Wessell's on Xmas evening for a good time, and didn't return until the wee sma' hours of the morning. All report a jolly good time while there.

Shooting matches have been the order of the day, and our crack shots have carried off more than their share of geese and turkeys. Among the contestants were Messrs. Edwin LeCraw, Roy Day, Duncan MacIntyre, Archie Laidlaw and Lorne Adair. Lorne Adair is certainly an expert crack shot, and is to be congratulated on the number of geese and turkeys which he shot for himself, which totalled 14, besides a number he shot for other people.

Wishing the Gazette a bright and happy New Year is the prayer of its friends.

Haliburton

(Correspondence of the Gazette)

The municipal nominations were held in the town hall on Monday, resulting in the re-election of Dr. Giles, reeve by acclamation. The members of the old council were all nominated, and, in addition, three new men are in the field.

Mr. Douglas Kellett, of town has opened out a flour and feed store on William street. We trust the new venture will be a paying enterprise.

Mrs. Wm. Speer who has been visiting her sons in Toronto for the Christmas holidays, has returned.

Rosedale.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Christmas passed rather quietly in our village.

Messrs. Hamilton and Glover, of the engineering staff, are spending their holidays in Peterborough.

Mr. D. McNeven, who has been a resident of Manitoba for the past number of years, is at present visiting his mother here.

Mr. Jack Swanton is visiting friends at Keene. Mr. and Mrs. P. McNeven, of Rosthern, Sask., also returned last week to Fenelon, where they intend spending the remainder of the winter months.

Fell's Station.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Miss Kate Hughes, of Toronto, is spending the holidays at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wood and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thompson, Fenelon Falls, over Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cundill, of Baddow, took Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. Bulmer.

The Misses May and Nellie Tipling, of Fenelon Falls, spent Christmas day with their parents at Honey Grove.

Quite a number of the young people from around here attended the annual ball at Kinnmount on Christmas night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Small and family, of Bury's Green, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mitchell, Fairview, for a couple of days this week.

We are pleased to learn that our teacher, Miss D. Piggott, has been re-engaged for the coming year, much to the satisfaction and interest of the section.

Miss E. Devitt is spending the holidays at her home in Devitt's settlement.

Mr. E. Hughes is home from the chemical camps at Haliburton for the holidays. Master Robbie Bulmer, who met with a painful accident recently, having broken his arm while playing at school, is, we are glad to hear, progressing very nicely under the skilful treatment of Dr. Johnstone of Fenelon Falls.

Miss Maud Flett, who is attending Lindsay high school, is spending a few days under the parental roof at Bury's Green.

We hope that the present good sleighing will continue throughout the winter. Wishing the editor and staff a happy and prosperous New Year.

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The following are some of those who spent Christmas in this locality: Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, of Smith township, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Herron and Mr. James Herron, of Peterborough, Mr. Fred Jeffrey, of Maxville, Peel County, formerly a resident of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Parrish, of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Daniel, of Toronto, Mr. Roy Marsh, of Leal, North Dakota.

One of the most successful Christmas tree entertainments was held last Thursday night in the school house. The sleighing and the mild evening were ideal, and a large and representative gathering of all ages and from different parts of the hemisphere came to do honor to those who assisted in making the entertainment a success. A recitation by Percy Leonard Powles, 4½ years old, brought forth great applause. $15 was realized, though the admission fee was only 10 and 15 cents.

Mrs. W. H. Bowles, of Randolph, is visiting her brother, Mr. O. Glaspell.

Mr. W. Day, of the O. A. C., Guelph, is spending the Christmas holidays under the parental roof.

Mr. A. Parrish arrived home from the North-west the first of this week.

Where are all the farmers who were interested in the telephone some months ago? It is time there was another meeting.

SALE OF VILLAGE PROPERTY BY TENDER.

In the matter of the estate of the late Joseph William Fitzgerald, of the town of Parry Sound, Province of Ontario:

Tenders will be received by the undersigned, up to January 31st, 1909, for the purchase of the following village lots in Fenelon Falls:

Lot No. 1, west of Colborne St., south of Francis St.

South half Lot No. 1, west Colborne St., north Bond St.

Lot No. 7, west of Colborne St., south of Louisa St.

All tenders to be addressed to

E. FITZGERALD,
Fenelon Falls.

47-1

For Winter

Do you want a suit or overcoat for winter? If so, try us, we can suit you.

TOWNLEY BROS.

YOUR COURSE

in Shorthand or Business will bring you best results if taken at our old established and thoroughly reliable school. Winter term begins January 4th. Catalogue free. British American Business College, Y. M. C. A. Building, Toronto.

TELEGRAPHY

will win for you a good salary. You can learn it quickly under superior conditions at our school. Catalogue free. Write CENTRAL TELEGRAPH SCHOOL, TORONTO.

W. H. SHAW, T. J. JOHNSTON,
PRES. PRINCIPAL.

To all our friends and patrons we extend the compliments of the season.

May the coming year, 1909, be a happy and prosperous one for you.

Robson & Son.