Rev. Dr. Linscott's Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson for Jan. 3rd, 1909.

The Lame Man Healed.—Acts iii: 1-26.
Golden Text.—His name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know. Acts iii: 16.

Verse 1.—Are two devout persons better than one for worship?
Is it any help in the Christian life for each Christian to have a very intimate spiritual friend?

Verse 2.—Was it any fault of this man that he was lame?

Did God think any the less of him for being lame?

Is any sickness or bodily sickness necessarily sinful?

WHAT PROPORTION OF OUR AILMENTS ARE A RESULT EITHER OF OUR SIN OR OUR CUL-PABLE IGNORANCE?

(This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

To what class of persons do the poor generally go for help?

Verse 3.—Which is the better, to beg or to starve?

Was this a legitimate way for this man to make his living?

Should the state maintain all persons who are born with infirmities which make it impossible for them to maintain themselves?

Are our laws righteous which forbid begging?

Verse 4.—If you want to impart spiritual benefit, can you do it more effectually by looking the person straight in the eyes?

Verse 5.—Does effectual teaching or helping others depend as much upon the person taught, or needing help, as upon the teacher or helper?

Verse 6.—Was it an advantage or a disadvantage that Peter and John had no money to give?

Was it an advantage or a disadvantage to the lame man that Peter and John had no money?

Would a Church do better work if it did not give money to the poor, but, instead, gave them the things they needed most?

Need the want of money, or ability, ever prevent any man from doing the work in life which God has appointed him to do?

If we invoke the name of Jesus, in the work to which we are appointed, what effect will it have upon the accomplishment of our work?

Verse 7.—By what power was this lame man healed?

What reason is there for the belief that the power of God generally works in conjunction with human effort?

Verse 8.—Would it be wise, or not, if we made more outward demonstration in returning God thanks for the wonders of his love?

Is there any merit in outward enthusiasm if we have inward loyalty to God?

Verse 9.—If we were to outwardly demonstrate more, would the work of God go on faster?

Verses 10-11.—What is the greatest influence in advancing Christ's Kingdom?

Verse 12.—Is it a sign of faith, or of unbelief, when we "marvel" at the fulfilment of any of God's promises?

Verses 13-16.—Which was the guiltier, Pilate or the chief of the Jews, for the murder of Jesus?

Verse 17.—If a man does a wrong thing through ignorance, when he could have known better, is he as guilty as if he knew better?

Verses 18-20.—What is our only reasonable hope of salvation?
