Great Missionary Congress.

The National Missionary Congress to be held by the churches of Canada under the leadership of the Laymen's Movement, is described as "unique, broad, far-reaching and epoch-making." It is the first time in history that men of a nation have met to consider and adopt a Missionary Policy for their country.

The theme for the Congress as a whole is Canada's National Missionary Policy, Home and Foreign, and the meetings will be devoted to such topics as "The Relation of the Ministry to the Missionary Church," "The Victorious Problem of Missions," "The Awakening Orient," "The Place of the Church in the Making of the Nation," "The Christianization of Our Civilization," "The Stewardship of Life," and such practical questions as "How to Lead the Church to its Highest Missionary Efficiency."

The Congress will assemble in Massey Hall, Toronto, Wednesday, March 31st, and will not conclude its sessions until Saturday, April 4th.

Speakers of international reputation will present different subjects, and among those who have already promised to come are:—Mr. Robert E. Speer, of New York; Bishop Thoburn, of India; Dr. Zwemer, of Arabia; Mr. Silas McBeo, of New York, editor The Churchman; Mr. J. Campbell White, of New York, and Hon. S. B. Capen, of Boston, Secretary and Chairman of the Laymen's International Missionary Movement. One of the interesting speakers at the congress is to be Mr. D. F. Wilber, American Consul at Halifax, who, with his wife, was converted in Singapore, while he was American Consul there.

Hon. Joshua Levering, Baltimore, and Mr. L. H. Severance, of Cleveland, two of the leading business men of the United States, who went abroad as Commissioners under the auspices of the movement to investigate mission work in the foreign field, will report to the Congress the result of their investigation.

Special music is to be furnished by a male quartette, who come together from Duluth, Minn.; Youngstown, Ohio; Minneapolis, Minn., and New York City, for this special Congress.

How They Frighten the Children:

Matilda Graham; in Saturday Night, writes:

"I should have minded quite a bit about Mr. Hughes (Inspector) for I am sure that he is a very kind man.

"I wrote him last Tuesday about that Order-in-Council that The Globe published that was made by Dr. Dawson and Sir John A. Macdonald, and he wrote me such a nice letter—though it was typed, which I thought rather a 'semi-ready' way of writing to a lady—and said that he had been too busy of late, especially during the Christmas holidays, just before your municipal elections, even to read the Orange Sentinel; but he would look into the matter at once and see that the English practice is followed in future in the board schools here. And I am sure he will—for James he is a strong Imperialist, as is also his brother, that brave Col. Hughes, who with no other man in his company except his body servant—Dick Turpin or Claude Duval, or some name like that—terrified the rebels in South Africa so much that I am told the Boer mothers used to frighten their children when they were naughty by just saying: 'the initials of his name, S H!'"

Curling.

Following is the standing of the rinks up to the 9th inst. in the Brandon Cup competition. Not a great deal more than half the scheduled games have been played yet, so that there is still a good chance for somebody to overtake skip Hamilton and his aggregation, which are at present in the lead. Last year the cup was won by W. H. Robson's rink.

Wedded Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fallis, of Bethany, celebrated their golden wedding on Saturday, January 23rd. The large number of congratulations, supplemented by the substantial and costly tokens of esteem, which were features of the occasion, go to show the high regard in which this couple are held by their neighbors and friends. All their half century of married life has been spent in the township of Manvers, although both are natives of Erin's green isle. They were married in the township of Clarke, Durham County, January 1859; Mr. Fallis carried on farming successfully during his residence in Manvers, and retired about five years ago. Among the guests at the celebration were two daughters and a son, three grandsons and one granddaughter from Manitoba, two brothers and two sisters of Mrs. Fallis, one of the brothers being Mr. F. J. Kerr, and one of the sisters Mrs. Robert Rutherford, of Fenelon Falls. A delightful time was spent renewing and recalling old acquaintances and times until the small hours of the morning, when the guests dispersed, leaving with the bride and groom best wishes for a continuance of life and health until they should all meet together again at celebration of their diamond wedding.

UNRESERVED CREDIT SALE.—Mr. Thos. Cashore will sell by auction on Tuesday next the 16th inst., the farm stock and implements of Mr. John Copp, in the township of Fenelon. Sale to commence at one o'clock sharp. Mr. Copp is moving to the Falls, and the sale will be without reserve. See bills.

BEATEN, BUT HAD A GOOD TIME.—The hockey team of boys under 12 taken to Lindsay last Friday by Messrs. Mann and Deyman were defeated by the score of 6 to 0, the Lindsay seven being too heavy for them. Nevertheless the game was a good one. The visitors were well entertained afterwards, and were taken to the Y. M. C. A. building, where they enjoyed all the privileges of that institution during their stay. The return match will be played at the Falls on Friday, the 19th inst.

A Loss.—On Friday last one of Messrs. Moore & Connell's best horses died of acute indigestion.

MARKETS.—Fall Wheat 95 to 98; Spring Wheat 90 to 95; Oats 40 to 42 cents per bushel. All other quotations unchanged.

I. O. O. F. DEGREE MEETING.—About thirty members of Corona Lodge of Odd fellows will go to Lindsay on Monday to attend a degree meeting of the Order, in which brethren from all over the district will take part.

HOCKEY MATCH.—Don't forget the hockey match between Lindsay and the Falls at the rink here to-night (Friday). Admission 10c and 15c. This is the first visit of the Lindsayites this season, and an interesting game is looked for.

BAKNET SOCIAL.—Remember the basket social at Bury's Green this (Friday) evening. Col. Sam. Hughes will exhibit his limelight views and Miss Myssie Newton, the well known elocutionist, of Lindsay, will contribute to the programme. Admission 25c.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.—The box social held at Mr. John Shane's on Wednesday evening last was well attended and a very enjoyable evening spent by all present. Mr. Cashore was auctioneer, and under his persuasive influence the bidding was lively, $26.45 being added to the funds. The parish workers intend having a social evening in the near future at the home of one of the members of the organization.

A SUCCESS.—The Scotch entertainment in St. Andrew's church on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, was an unqualified success. The tea served to a large number of guests in the neat and delightful style for which the ladies of the church are so famous—the menu card being artistic and much admired. The programme, from beginning to end, was of a high order of merit, and every item was greatly enjoyed. The intimation from the chairman that on March 17th similar honor will be paid to Old Ireland, was received with great applause, indicating the place that the Emerald Isle has in the hearts of many in this community.

The soil of Ceylon is of volcanic origin, containing phosphorous and minerals in a large degree. This imparts to "Salada" (the well-known packet Ceylon tea), a delicacy and fragrance that is incomparable.

The new Masonic lodge at Kinmount was dedicated on Thursday last, a large number of prominent members of the Order from the Falls, Lindsay and other points being present and taking part in the ceremony. The proceedings concluded with a sumptuous banquet.

The winter fair held a short time ago at Lindsay was most encouragingly successful in every way, according to the directors report made at a meeting last Monday. Mr. Johnston Ellis was re-elected president, and Mr. H. B. Clemens secretary. The enlargement of buildings for future fairs is being considered by a committee appointed for the purpose.

Victoria County Council by reason of the additional labors imposed upon County Clerk McNeillie, as Secretary of the County Home, made an advance to his salary $300 a year. It was an acknowledgement, none too liberal, of faithful services well performed. For thirty-four years, Mr. McNeillie has been a model official, his books have been reported by the Provincial Inspector as the best kept in the Province, as advisor of the Councilors his tact and grasp of the County business was shown, when at the return to the old County Council system, a Council almost entirely of new men took on the work without the least difficulty. The County is fortunate in having a Clerk and Treasurer so capable, and so courteous to all with whom he comes in contact.—Independent.
