

He Is Back At Work Again

Abraham Garand's Rheumatism cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

He suffered for Five years and was Four Months off work, but Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Alfred Station, Ont., Mar. 29 (Special).—After being laid off work for four months by kidney disease and rheumatism, from which he had been a sufferer for five years, Abraham Garand, a section man on the railway here, is back at work again and he gives all the credit for his cure to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I am forty-one years old," Mr. Garand said, when asked about his cure. "And have been section man here for ten years. For five years I suffered from kidney disease and rheumatism, also sciatica in my right hip, which descended to my feet. For four months I could not work. Reading of cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills led me to try them. I used nine boxes in all and to-day I am advising all who suffer from rheumatism to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Rheumatism and sciatica are caused by diseased kidneys failing to strain the uric acid out of the blood. Cure the Kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills and they will strain the uric acid out of the blood. Then you can't have rheumatism.

ALL GONE.

"Since it went dry," announced the prominent citizen, with pride in his voice, "our town is unexcelled."

"How do you make that out?" asked the casual visitor, who had seen better towns.

"Because," replied the prominent citizen, "it is now a good town, bar none."

These Pills Cure Rheumatism.—To the many who suffer from rheumatism a trial of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is recommended. They have pronounced action upon the liver and kidneys and by regulating the action of these organs act as an alternative in preventing the admixture of uric acid and blood that causes this painful disorder. They must be taken according to directions and used steadily and they will speedily give evidence of their beneficial effects.

SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE.

Old Calling Has Not Altogether Lost Its Followers.

The palmy days of the typical soldier of fortune are popularly supposed to have passed away.

Nevertheless, there are still plums to be picked up here and there. Sergt. Baldock, for example, has just been appointed cavalry instructor to the army of Mulai Hafid, the new Emperor of Morocco.

This means that he exchanges his "non-com.'s" chevrons for an officer's epaulettes; while his former pay of a few shillings a day is increased to something like $7,500 a year, with "allowances." And this delectable little billet has become his, curiously enough, because he fought so gallantly at Marakesh for Abd-el-Aziz, the old Emperor, whom Mulai Hafid defeated and deposed.

In the same way the Chinese Government took into its service during the great Taiping uprising quite a number of Europeans who had previously warred against them on the side of the rebels. Some of these were men of low origin—runaway sailors and the like—yet they frequently rose to high rank, and such as survived retired with their fortunes made for life.

It is well-known, too, to Britain's intelligence department that there are several men of British nationality dwelling on the other side of the northern frontiers of India amongst the warlike border tribesmen. Some of these are deserters from the British army, and would meet with short shrift if they were caught.

Others are civilian adventurers, ex-civil servants and the like. But they are soldiers of fortune, ready and eager to fight upon occasion, even against their own countrymen; and for the most part they make a pretty good thing out of it.

ENGLISH SHOPPING.

Toronto "Truth" says: We had no idea how easy and convenient it was to shop in England, until we made a trial of it recently with that old and reliable firm of Walpole Brothers, (established in 1766), 89 and 90 New Bond Street, London W. They also have shops at 108 and 110 High St., Kensington W., 6 Onslow Place, South Kensington and 182 Sloane Street, Hyde Park, End. London, England.

In 44 Bedford St., Belfast, and 8, 9 and 10 Suffolk St., Dublin, Ireland, they also have large retail stores. In Warington, County Down, and at 2 and 4 Clarence St., Belfast, Ireland, their great factories are situated, which supply their enormous retail trade. They manufacture Irish table damask, household and family linens, cambric handkerchiefs, quilts and counterpanes, blankets and flannels, carriage and travelling rugs, muslin and lace curtains, ladies' and infants' hosiery of every description. This firm has the highest reputation for honorable dealing, and any person wishing to purchase any of their goods, may do so by correspondence, and may rely absolutely on their representations regarding the quality as well as the prices of their products. The facilities afforded by the parcel post and express company arrangements between England and Canada render it perfectly safe and easy to order directly from this house. A catalogue will be mailed to any address on request to the New Bond St. shop, London, England.

WORLD'S OLDEST SOLDIER.

Czar Kindly Greets a Veteran of 120 Years.

Probably the oldest soldier in the world, Andrei Nikolaievitch Schmidt, who is aged 120 and fought in the Russian army during the Napoleonic wars, recently arrived in St. Petersburg with the object of seeing the Czar.

Though the newspapers at St. Petersburg have heard nothing of it, Schmidt was granted a private audience of the Czar. Schmidt was extremely proud, and despite his immense age he bore himself with martial air.

He was introduced into the Czar's study, and his Majesty received the veteran with extreme kindness. Schmidt answered several questions, but finally, overwhelmed with emotion, he broke down and burst into tears.

The Czar made the old soldier some valuable presents, and presented him to the Czarewitch and to one of the little grand duchesses. "After this happiness," old Schmidt declared, "I can die in peace."

The rattle of pans and dishes in the kitchen sounds better than classical music to a hungry man.

In Fields Far Off.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is known in Australia, South and Central America as well as in Canada and the United States, and its consumption increases each year. It has made its own way, and all that needs to be done is to keep its name before the public. Everyone knows that it is to be had at any store, for all merchants keep it.

We Must Go from heated rooms to the cold open air, and the change sets us coughing. Curing winter colds is not hard if you take Allen's Lung Balm. A neglected cold is troublesome and dangerous.

Tramp—"Help me lady, please! For three years I worked for the cause of temperance." Lady—"Were you a temperance orator?" Tramp—"No; I was the horrible example!"

"A Grand Medicine" is the encomium often passed on Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and when the results from its use are considered, as borne out by many persons who have employed it in stopping coughs and eradicating colds, it is more than grand. Kept in the house it is always at hand and it has no equal as a ready remedy. If you have not tried it, do so at once.

More public clocks are displayed in New York than in London and Paris combined.

QUESTIONS THEY WILL ASK.

"What makes you look so blue, old man?" "Oh, Mabel has sent me back my ring." "Has she? What's the matter?" "We've—we've had a quarrel." "But what about?" "Why, I hesitated when she asked if I was sure I'd have loved her just the same if we'd never met."

Trial is Inexpensive.—To those who suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism or any ailment arising from derangement of the digestive system, a trial of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is recommended should the sufferer be unacquainted with them. The trial will be inexpensive and the result will be another customer for this excellent medicine. So effective is their action that many cures can certainly be traced to their use where other pills have proved ineffective.

Other people may have good taste, but of course yours is a shade better.

A GREAT ENGLISH RAILWAY.

London and Northwestern is One of the Most Popular.

Among all the great railways in England the London and Northwestern stands out as one of the best managed, safest and smoothest railways in that tight little isle. Travellers from this side of the water are landed in Liverpool right alongside the commodious and convenient Riverside Station of this railway, where, without any extra cost for transfer of luggage, and with the utmost facility and despatch, and without leaving cover, they can take the train for any part of the United Kingdom. Special corridor trains, three or four if necessary, for London, are always in waiting on the arrival of the great steamships, that there may be no delays whatever. These trains are models of excellence and convenience, and have luxurious dining cars attached, generally two on each train, where most excellent meals are well served at reasonable prices. The coaches are kept very clean, and are well hung, and as the roadbed is one of the best in England, there is very little vibration, even when travelling at sixty to seventy miles per hour.

All Canadians will make no mistake in seeing that they are booked via the London and Northwestern always.

If some men were to lose their self-conceit there wouldn't be much left.
