ST. JAMES' CHURCH.—On Sunday next, instead of the subject previously announced, the Rector will give a report of the proceedings at the Missionary Congress at Toronto.

W. I. ORGANIZATION MEETING.—A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Womans Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Jos. Moynes, Pleasant Valley, on Thursday, the 22nd of April, at the hour of 2 p. m. All the ladies of the locality are cordially invited.

PRESBYTERIAN CONCERT.—Watch for the Presbyterian concert on the evening of Wednesday, April 21st, when you will see what happens in Fairyland "White Mortals Sleep"; also the "Professor's Round-up," which is to be performed in the interest of the free ice fund for the Phillipino Islanders.

EXPANSION OF THE WORD.—About the end of April Mr. Fred. Warren will move from his present location to the store in the McArthur block formerly occupied by Mr. L. L. Cooke, and nearly opposite the post office. Mr. Warren's business has been steadily increasing, and he finds it necessary to have more room.

REPAIRING.—The building next door to A. McKillen's shoe shop on Colborne street, which was damaged by fire about a month ago, is being repaired, and will contain one shop instead of two, as formerly. It is expected it will be occupied by Mr. Wilson, who had just fitted it up as a barber shop when the fire occurred.

METHODIST CHURCH.—The special Evangelistic services which have been so strikingly successful, will be continued to-night (Friday) and both services on Sunday. Rev. C. E. Cragg will remain over for the Sunday meetings. Special music also will be furnished, and both services on Sunday promise to be of special interest and power. All who care to come will be cordially welcomed.

The boiler and engine, the work of removing which had been commenced, will have to be fixed up again, as they will be used another season. Mr. Thos. Cashore will also commence getting his yacht ready for business before long.

MONTHLY AUCTION SALE.—The first of the monthly sales, mentioned in these columns and otherwise advertised, will be held at the McArthur House yards on Tuesday, April 13th. Everything sold on commission. Parties having anything to dispose of at this sale will please inform Mr. Cashore without delay, in order that it may be included in the list which will be advertised in a few days. Remember the date, Tuesday, April 13. List will be published next week.

W. I. MEETING.—A successful meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Friday afternoon, March 26th, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Martin. A large number attended, including several visitors, non-members. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Moynes, the Vice-President. The Secretary, Miss Nie, read the minutes of last meeting, which were approved, and the roll was called. A good programme was then rendered. An instrumental solo by Miss S. Martin and a duet (instrumental), by the Misses Maud and Tillie Patten were much enjoyed. Mrs. Wm. Burgoyne contributed an excellent essay entitled "The Model Woman." Miss Doris Townley sang a solo in a very pleasing manner, and Miss T. Patten recited "St. Peter at the Gate." The subject chosen for discussion was "Fault Finding." It was viewed from various standpoints by the members, a number of whom, Mrs. (Dr.) Gould, Miss Hand and Miss Nie, contributed well written papers on this subject. The subject for next meeting will be "Sanctification." Refreshments were served by the hostess, and it was announced that the next meeting would be held at the residence of Mrs. A. Munthorn, at which a number of the members of Cameron Branch are to be present.

Healthy Expansion.

Canada seems to have reached a point of development where there is substantial appreciation of Canadian magazine effort. The Home Journal announces an increase on June 1st from twenty-eight to forty-four pages, with a number of new departments. Miss Jean Graham, at present on the staff of the Canadian Courier and staff writer also of the Canadian Magazine, takes the editorial management on April 1st and is associating with her a number of the best known Canadian writers. The Home Journal, when the proposed changes have been inaugurated, will be one of the best of its class on the continent. The April number just issued is bright and attractive as usual and has in addition to its very interesting fiction and household departments a number of special Easter features well worth while. The price is to be advanced with the June number, but in the meantime subscriptions are being taken at the old figure.

Rev. Dr. Linseott's Suggestive Question on the Sunday School Lesson for April 4th, 1909

Peter and Cornelius. Acts x: 1-18. Golden Text.—In every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness is accepted of Him. Acts x: 35. Verses 1-8.—Was a devout Roman in those days as well pleasing to God as was a devout Jew?

Can you give any reason to-day why God is not as well pleased with a devout Roman Catholic as with a devout Protestant, or vice versa?

What reason is there for or against the idea that revelations and visions were given to devout men of all nations in those days, as well as to the Jews?

Verses 8-16.—Is it wise and profitable to have certain set times for prayer, or is it better to be always in the spirit of prayer, and let our needs, or the Holy Spirit, direct us as to special times for prayer?

Are people who are not seeking for revelations likely to have them? The eating of the flesh of those animals, or most of them, which Peter saw in his vision is forbidden in the old testament; how do you account for it that "the word of God" and the spirit of God do not agree in this case?

Peter in the first instance stuck to his creed, and refused to obey the direct voice of God. Was he right or wrong in so doing?

Must we, in thought, be bound in all things by the written words in the Bible, and refuse to obey any direction of the Holy Spirit to the contrary?

Verses 17-27.—Does God blame us if we test what we think to be revelations before we act upon them?

When God gives a revelation that is not unmistakably clear, may we depend that he will arrange circumstances or give another revelation to clear up the doubt, as in this case?

Was Cornelius reconciled to God, or an accepted child at this time?

Verses 28-29.—Are any of the Commandments of the Bible to be tested by the teaching of Jesus and by the spirit of God, or must we unhesitatingly obey them all, just as they read, without any question? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
Verses 30-33.—If we prayed and fasted more, should we have more visions of God?
Is there any merit in good works; and how much, if any, credit does God give for them?
Does God in these days give by his Spirit, such detailed and matter of fact instruction, as he gave to Peter and Cornelius?
Verses 34.—What is the ground of a man's acceptance with God, according to Peter's statement here?
According to the suggestion in verse 37, Cornelius had heard about Jesus, his teaching, his death and resurrection. Is it at all unlikely that he was a believer in Jesus?
Verses 44-48.—What is the meaning of the Holy Spirit falling on this company? Excepting the gift of tongues, are all Christians privileged to receive the Holy Ghost as these persons did?
How may a Christian in the state Cornelius was in, receive the Holy Ghost as he did?
