

Once More the Proof Is Given

The Dodd's Kidney Pills
Wenture the Deadly
Bright's Disease.

Martin O'Grady Suffered From Bright's Disease for a Year, but the old Reliable Kidney Remedy Cured Him.

Emmet, Renfrew Co., Ont., Apr. 5 (Special).—That the one sure cure for Bright's Disease, the most deadly of all kidney diseases is Dodd's Kidney Pills is again proved in the case of Martin O'Grady of this place. And for the benefit of other sufferers, Mr. O'Grady has given the following statement for publication:

"For over a year I suffered from Bright's disease. I was attended by a doctor, but he did me no good. My appetite was fitful, my sleep broken and unrefreshing. My memory failed me and I was always tired and nervous. I had sharp pain and pressure at the top of my head.

"Being advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, I bought a couple of boxes and found relief soon after I started taking them."

This is only one of hundreds of cases in which Dodd's Kidney Pills have conquered the worst form of kidney disease. They never fail to cure Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Lumbago or Siatica.

AMAZON CORPS FOR ARMY

WOMEN ANXIOUS TO FIGURE ON BRITISH FIRING LINE.

Proposed That Regiment Should be Feminine From Colonel to Drummer.

Good progress is being made in the formation in London, England, of a mounted corps of women nurses, whose duty it will be to follow the army in battle and render first aid to the wounded. The latest feminine candidates for military honors, however, are not satisfied with the scope offered them as members of a nursing corps.

These women all lead an open air life, and are good horsemen and fine game shots, and they think these qualifications could be put to better practical use than in doing hospital work. They want to stand shoulder to shoulder with their brethren in the fighting line should there ever arise an emergency desperate enough to require their services. They propose that the many women throughout the British Empire who possess the same qualifications as themselves shall be formed into a league on the lines of the British Legion of Frontiersmen, thus becoming an Imperial regiment of Amazons, with branches in every colony, ready to answer the call to arms whenever it is sounded.

ENTIRELY FEMININE.

It is suggested that the headquarters should be in London. The regiment would be entirely feminine, from drummer girl to officer. Influential and capable women would be appointed squadron leaders and troop officers, and the instruction would include riding, scouting, driving, rifle and revolver practice, signaling (telegraphic, lamp, flag and heliograph), despatch carrying and all sorts of postal work. Such, in brief, is the scheme.

The matter of uniform is offering no obstacle to the rapid growth of the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry Corps. All the members seem perfectly content with a dress by no means elaborate. They look very smart in short dark blue skirts, high black boots, scarlet tunics, white belts and peaked cloth caps, all of which they have to provide themselves, for the body is purely voluntary.

Each applicant for admission to the corps is told, "Your work in war time will be to follow the fighting line and catch the men as they drop." This prospect does not discourage applicants, and a steady stream of smartly attired women, many of them wives and daughters of army officers, pours into the recruiting office to interview Capt. Baker, the commander of the corps.

TWELVE MONTHS' COURSE.

All members are expected to remain in the corps for at least twelve months and to attend riding school once a week. Applicants must pass a corps doctor and acquire a knowledge of first aid.

Many of the women who join are sufficiently well-to-do to have horses of their own, but for those who cannot afford the expense Capt. Baker is recruiting a corps of nursing infantry. In each case he is ambitious, and says that he is aiming at a strength of one thousand yeomanry and three thousand infantry.

The minimum height for recruits in the yeomanry is 5 feet 3 inches, as a woman under that height has difficulty in mounting without help. There is no intention that these nurses when on active service shall encroach upon the work of the ambulance corps. They will not remove the wounded, but will render first aid, further hospital work being left to the organizations within whose province it falls.

WILL GO INTO CAMP.

In the summer it is proposed that the Yeomanry Corps shall go into camp, where they will attend personally to their horses and perform many of the duties which fall upon a cavalryman under canvas. The establishment of this corps of trained nurses should do much to prevent a repetition of what happened during the Boer War, when a number of high-bred and romantic women, seeking notoriety more than anything else, went out to South Africa as nurses. Totally incompetent, these women were not only in the way, but the cause of much unnecessary suffering on the part of the unfortunate patients who happened to fall into their hands.

The first woman officer of the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry Corps to receive her commission is Lieut. Lady Ernestine Hunt, eldest daughter of the Marquis of Allesbury. She will lead one of the troops of which the corps will be composed. She is well qualified for the work she has undertaken, having received a thorough training as a nurse. She was a staff nurse at Krugersdorp during the Jameson Raid.

All fitting boots and shoes cause corns. Holloway's Corn Cure is the article to use. Get a bottle at once and cure your corns.

Teacher—"Did Jimmy Green help you do this sum?" Willie—"No'm." Teacher—"Are you sure he didn't help you?" Willie—"Yes'm. He didn't help me—he did it all."

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

Old Chap—"Yes sir, I'm ninety-three next birthday, and I don't recollect ever telling a lie." Young Man—"Well, you can't expect your memory to be very reliable at that age."

A Pleasant Purgative.—Parnellee's Vegetable Pills are so compounded as to operate on both the stomach and the bowels, so that they act along the whole alimentary and excretory passage. They are not drastic in their work, but mildly purgative, and the pleasure of taking them is only equalled by the gratifying effect they produce. Compounded only of vegetable substances the curative qualities of which were fully tested, they afford relief without chance of injury.

BAD EXAMPLE.

A well-to-do Scottish lady one day said to her gardener, "Man, Tammas, I wonder you don't get married. You've a nice house, and all you want to complete it is a wife. You know, the first gardener that ever lived had a wife." "Quite right, missus, quite right," said Tammas, "but he didn't keep his job lang after he got the wife."

First Broker—"How's that mining scheme of yours coming out?" Second Broker—"Splendid. Why, we sold every share before we found the mine."

"Yes, grandma, when I graduate I intend following a literary career—write for money, you know." "Why, Willie, my dear, you haven't done anything else since you've been at college."

"THE COWBOY BARONET."

Sir Genille Cave-Brown-Cave, of Stretton Hall, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire, who is better known in Canada as "the Cowboy Baronet," has had a wide experience of the value of Zam-Buk. Writing to a friend recently, and speaking of this great balm, he says:—

"I feel it is only my duty to let you know that great benefit I have derived by keeping Zam-Buk handy, and having it in constant use. For the sprains and bruises which I have incurred in my horsemanship, and in my cowboy life generally, I have found it a reliable and speedy healer. Some of the best riders in the West that I know, use Zam-Buk regularly with the greatest benefit. I may mention that, on one occasion, my horse, "Bob," came down with me, rolling over my limbs, and tearing pieces of skin off my arms. By use of Zam-Buk immediately the wounds and bruises were cleanly and quickly healed, and the raw parts covered with new, healthy skin.

"When on the Mexican plains, I have used Zam-Buk for poisonous insect-bites.

Zam-Buk is Nature's own healing balm, being composed of pure herbal essences. It is a sure cure for eczema, ring-worm, ulcers, cuts, burns, bruises, poisoned sores, chronic wounds, bad leg, piles, festering sores, and all skin injuries and diseases. Druggists and Stores everywhere sell at 50c. a box, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto; 3 boxes, $1.25. You are warned against harmful imitations, sometimes represented to be "just as good."

Mistress—"Are you not rather small for a nurse?" Nurse—"No, indeed, madam! The children don't fall so far when I drop them!"

Month After Month a cold sticks, and seems to tear holes in your throat. Are you aware that even a stubborn and long neglected cold is cured with Allen's Lung Balm?

In China, a pupil, when reciting his lesson, turns his back to his teacher.

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

A restaurant-keeper and a dentist, who are next-door neighbors in a certain street, had fallen out, and it is rather hard on the former that the latter should have a glaring announcement in his window to the effect:—"Teeth sharpened to tackle tough steaks."

The merits of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup as a sure remedy for coughs and colds are attested by scores who know its power in giving almost instant relief when the throat is sore with coughing, and the whole pulmonary region disordered in consequence. A bottle of this world-famed Syrup will save doctor's bills, and a great deal of suffering. Price 25 cents, at all dealers.

Milliner—"Really, Miss Passay, the white feather on your hat makes you look at least five years younger?" Miss Passay—"Well, you may er—put a couple more white feathers on it."

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

"That man will never forget his first and only love." "And who may that be?" "Himself."

A Good Medicine requires little advertising. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil gained the good name it now enjoys, not through elaborate advertising, but on its great merits as a remedy for bodily pains and ailments of the respiratory organs. It has carried its fame with it wherever it has gone, and it is prized at the antipodes as well as at home. Dose small, effect sure.

FRANCE'S RUM BILL LOWER.

Statistics for 1907 Show Large Decrease.

Statistics for 1907, just issued by the French Ministry of Finance, show that the consumption of alcohol is gradually diminishing in France. The decrease is more rapid in the towns than in the country, although the consumption is still much greater per head in the cities.

In north and west France considerably more alcohol is drunk than in other departments, the average consumption per inhabitant in the Seine Inferieure being three gallons per annum. In the centre and south-west the consumption is as low as half a gallon. Havre has earned an unenviable distinction, its consumption of alcohol being nearly four gallons per head.

The consumption of absinthe is rapidly rising.

PHOTOGRAPH OF THE HAND.

New Method of Identifying Criminals Devised.

A novel method of identifying criminals with absolute certainty has been devised by Prof. Tamasia. When comparing the veins on the back of both hands a striking diversity will be observed. Far more important, however, are the differences noted in the hands of different persons. In order to cause the veins to stand out more distinctly the wrist should be bandaged for a short time. Their courses can then be photographed. Owing to the size of the hand it is far easier to discover slight diversities than in minute prints of finger tips. Nor can any voluntary alteration of the vein tissues be feared, unless the hand should be seriously injured.

Long Distance Wireless

Victorian and Virginian
Up-to-Date.

The Marconi Company has received instructions to fit up the Allan line turbine steamers Victorian and Virginian with long distance wireless equipment. These two vessels will be the first steamers on the Canadian route to be thus equipped, and the installation will enable them to be in communication with either side of the Atlantic for the entire trip between Montreal and Liverpool.

Pecken—"You are not married yet, are you?" Youngbach—"No; but I'm engaged, and that's as good as being married." Pecken—"It's a whole lot better, if only you knew."

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

"Can any little boy," asked the new teacher, "tell me the difference between a lake and an ocean?" "I can," replied Edward, whose wisdom had been learned from experience. "Lakes are much pleasanter to swallow when you fall in."

A Thorough Pill.—To clear the stomach and bowels of impurities and irritants is necessary when their action is irregular. The pills that will do this work thoroughly are Parnellee's Vegetable Pills, which are mild in action but mighty in results. They purge painlessly and effectively, and work a permanent cure. They can be used without fear by the most delicately constituted, as there are no painful effects preceding their gentle operation.

Hicks—"Micawber's wealth, I dare say, is wholly due to his own unaided efforts." Wicks—"On the contrary, the most of it is due to his creditors; but they'll never get any of it."

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

Mrs. Dunleigh—"It is very singular that your mother always happens to call on me when I am out." Little Flossie Dimpleton—"Oh, we can see from our window whenever you go away."

PE-RU-NA

For Cramps in the Stomach of Six Years' Standing.

"I was troubled with cramps in the stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors.

"They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured.

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine, being cured by Peruna, so thought I would give it a trial. I procured a bottle at once, and commenced taking it.

"I have taken nineteen bottles, and am entirely cured. I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."—Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant St., Watonsville, Cal.

Janks—"I see that young Noodle and Miss Sharp have made a match of it. He's got no head at all, but she's a clever girl." Griggle—"Well, you can't expect a match to have two heads to it."

If your children are troubled with worms, give them Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; safe, sure and effectual. Try it, and mark the improvement in your child.

A Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's bill a heavy financial load? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? I know what these mean to delicate women—I have been discouraged, too; but learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your burdens. Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and will if you will assist me.

All you need do is to write for a free box of the remedy which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one box will cure you—it has done so for others. If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for 2c (the cost of a postage stamp). Your letters held confidentially. Write to-day for my free treatment. MRS. F. E. CURRAE, Windsor, Ont.
