Rev. Dr. Inscott's Suggestive Question on the Sunday School Lesson for April 25th, 1909.

The Gospel in Antioch.—Acts xi: 19-30; xii: 25.

Golden Text—The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. Acts xi: 26.

Verses 19-20—Who were they that were "scattered abroad"?

Had these men any authority from the church to preach? (See Acts viii: 4.)

Is it the duty of every Christian to preach Christ, whether or not he has been appointed by the Church to do so?

Is it possible to enjoy the fullness of God's love, and never say a word about it?

Are good people liable to be narrow in their views?

Are persecutions and all sorts of trouble always helpful to the children of God?

Some of these disciples seem to have been narrow, and preached to Jews only; others being broader, preached to the Greeks also. What made the difference in these men?

Which is the greater power to broaden our views, and make us love everybody; our environment, or sinking deeper and rising higher in the love of God?

Verses 21—Whether a man is narrow or broad, if he only preaches Jesus, will God use him to extend his kingdom?

Are any efforts to extend the kingdom of God in vain?

Verses 22—Did the news that Antioch had received the word of God give the church at Jerusalem joy or sorrow?

What news is the most joyous either to an individual Christian, or to a Church?

What was the purpose of sending Barnabas?

Verses 23-24—What sort of a man was Barnabas?

Is it necessary, or not, to be filled with the Holy Ghost, in order to make converts, or to comfort the children of God, and are those results always attained in the ministry of a man filled with the Holy Ghost? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Do we exhort one another as much as we should, to "cleave unto the Lord"?

Are half-hearted people well pleasing to God?

Verses 25-26—Why did Barnabas start off to Tarsus to seek Saul?

Does it frequently happen that two holy men can do much more together, than they could do working apart?

Where were the disciples of Jesus first called Christians?

What had Christ's followers been called previous to being called Christians?

Verses 27-28—Is the gift of prophecy, that is telling future events, given to any person to-day?

Verses 29-30—Should the church of Christ to-day be a practical brotherhood, caring for one another, and helping each other financially, and in every other way, as the need may be?

Should not the church be doing for its members the work now being done by fraternal societies?

Chapter xii: 25.—Barnabas and Saul took the contributions from Antioch up to Jerusalem to relieve the need there, and then returned; was it just as noble work as if they had been up there preaching?
