J. H. Carnegie, M. P. P. Resigned.

The resignation of Mr. J. H. Carnegie as member of the Ontario Legislature, and his appointment to the office of Distributor of Law Stamps, have been announced, and a convention of the Conservatives of the riding has been called for Tuesday, May 11th, to nominate a candidate to fill the vacancy. The news came as a surprise to a good many of the electors of the constituency, who had come to regard Mr. Carnegie as a fixture in the position which he has held so long. There is a good deal of speculation as to who will receive the nomination of the convention. Several prominent members of the party are spoken of as possible candidates. As yet there is no information to hand as to the intentions of the Reformers, and it is impossible to say whether there will be a contest or not.

Mr. Carnegie has been exceptionally popular with his constituents of all shades of politics, and Reformers and Conservatives alike regret his retirement.

Obituary.

Another of the early settlers of this vicinity passed away on Thursday of last week in the person of the late Archibald McArthur, who died at the age of 82 years, after a short illness due to a severe attack of la grippe. Mr. McArthur was born in the Island of Islay, Argyllshire, Scotland, and came to Canada in 1832 with his parents, who settled at Sydney, Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia. As fishing and sailing are amongst the principal occupations in those parts, Mr. McArthur soon became a proficient sailor, and at the age of 21 shipped on a large sailing vessel. As first mate he visited all the principal ports in the world, spending seven years altogether on board ship. During this period he was married, at Boston, and returned to Sydney in 1852, where he farmed for a couple of years. This was in pre-Confederation days, and comparatively nothing was known of the interior of Canada, which was looked upon by Nova Scotians in much the same light as Labrador or the northern parts of Canada are at present, or have been until recently. Practically all the trade was with Boston and adjacent territory, and with the West Indies and the old country. In 1854 Mr. McArthur came to Lindsay, and soon afterwards settled on the farm in Fenelon township which he has ever since occupied.

Mr. McArthur was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mary McAuley, who died in 1868, and by whom he had three sons, Neil, John and James, and one daughter, Mrs. J. S. Campbell, of Fenelon Falls. He afterwards married Miss Mary McKinnon, who died about twelve years ago, leaving three sons, Alexander, Archibald and Neil. All are living except the first son Neil, after whom the second son Neil was named.

Mr. McArthur was a man of many excellent qualities, and will be missed by a large circle of friends. The funeral took place on Saturday to the cemetery at Glenarm and was numerously attended.

Hymeneal.

Kinmount, May 4th, 1909. A wedding of much interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Hopkins on Thursday, April 29th, at 8 p. m., when their only daughter, Bertha Louise, was married to Mr. Elwood Roberts, manager of the Farmers' Bank at Bethany, and recently of Kinmount. The ceremony, conducted by Rev. A. Cummer, pastor of St. James's church here, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kingstone, of Minden, took place in the drawing room, under an archway formed in the bow window of carnations and foliage, to which an aisle of white satin ribbon led from the door through which the bride entered with her father, and attended only by her tiny nephew and niece, Clare and Dorothy Hopkins, as page and flower girl. She wore a dainty gown of white silk embroidered mull, with long tulle veil, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley.

A pretty climax to the ceremony was the opening of a beautiful bridal bell of white roses, allowing a shower of confetti to fall upon the bride and groom who stood immediately beneath it. After a shower, also, of congratulations, a very dainty wedding breakfast was served, with the usual number of toasts, in the dining room, which was also prettily decorated with roses and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left on Saturday for their home in Bethany. Mrs. Roberts will be much missed by the people of the village and St. James's church, where her kindly assistance in the choir has been much appreciated. Mr. Roberts, too, during his term as manager of the bank here, made himself very popular, and the happy couple bear with them to their new home the best wishes and warmest congratulations of a wide circle of friends.

MILL STARTED.—Moore & Connell's sawmill commenced operations for the season on Monday morning last. They have a big stock of logs on hand.

TRANSFERRED.—Rev. A. C. Cummer, of Kinmount and Burnt River Anglican Churches, is to be transferred to Cannington. Mr. Cummer is well and favorably known among Church people here.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—The Evangelistic Band of the Lindsay Y. M. C. A. will take part in special services on Sunday, May 9th. Four of the eight will sing quartettes.

METHODIST CHURCH.—On Sunday, May 9th, the pastor will preach at both services. In the morning infant baptismal service will take place. In the evening, by special request, the seventh commandment will be the subject of the sermon.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The subject of discourse in St. Andrew's church next Sabbath evening will be "The Logic of Religion," or "First Things First," an appeal to the business man and lodge member. Subject on Sunday morning "Heaven."

ROSEDALE LOCKMASTER APPOINTED.—Mr. A. E. Minthorne has been appointed lockmaster at Rosedale, and will go on duty on May 17th. Mr. Minthorne has been a resident of the county all his life, and of Fenelon township for many years, and will without doubt perform the duties of the position in a thoroughly efficient manner.

AN APPRECIATED VOCALIST.—Friends of Miss Lilian G. Wilson at the Falls will learn with pleasure that she has been appointed soprano soloist in Westminster Presbyterian Church on Bloor street east, Toronto. Miss Wilson is also being very favorably received by Toronto audiences. On April 24th at a piano recital in Nordheimer's Music Hall Miss Wilson assisted, giving two vocal numbers. On the 30th, at Queen street Presbyterian Church, which was recently opened, a sacred concert was given, in which Miss Wilson was the soprano soloist. The concert was a great success, and was repeated with equal credit on the following Monday, May 3rd. On May 4th, at the Normal School, Miss Wilson took part in a recital given by the pupils of Mr. Arthur Blight, with whom she is studying.

Mitchell Advocate.—"Miss Drake is a talented mimic and a singer of no mean order. One of the best things was a "Love Song," in which Miss Drake took two parts, the lady and the gentleman, so realistically that one would believe that two instead of one were singing. She is an exceptionally clever young lady and her entertainment was highly appreciated."

UP-TO-DATE REFRIGERATOR.—Mr. Paul Oullette has about completed a large refrigerator in connection with his slaughter-house that will prove a great convenience during the summer. The refrigerator has a wall of ice ten feet thick on each of the two sides, and about four feet on top; the two end walls, which are comparatively narrow, being grouted with a couple of feet of sawdust. There is an almost air-tight vestibule over the entrance, through which a track attached to the ceiling runs, and along which carcasses can be quickly taken out of or put into the refrigerator. There is accommodation in the refrigerator room for eight or ten carcasses, and the low temperature keeps them in perfect condition even in the very hottest weather. When the finishing touches are put on Mr. Oullette will have a strictly first-class outfit.

District Notes.

Post.—The boating season for 1909 opened this morning when the steamer Kathleen made her first trip to Sturgeon Point. This trim little steamer left the town wharf at ten o'clock, and took a few passengers down to the pleasant summer resort. It looks just now as if the Kathleen will be the only passenger boat between Lindsay and the Point this summer.

Peterboro Times.—In a short time the Trent Valley Canal officials will have a fourth boat navigating the waters. A potato bug, or a steam scow has been built by Mr. Hickey near lock No. 6, and now it is about ready for launching. The new boat will draw only two and a half feet of water and is specially designed for navigating the drowned lands and all shallow water. It is fitted with a new 25-horse power boiler and engine, and is completed in every respect. It is 40 feet long by 17 feet wide.

Fairbairn.

Seeding is progressing very slowly on account of the rain, which is keeping the land very wet. The farmers are anxiously looking for the weather to become warmer, as the feed is about done with a great many in this locality.

Messrs. Armstrong and Campbell have the single machinery installed in their mill, and are now busy cutting shingles. They have timber enough on hand to keep them cutting about three months.

Mrs. Jas. Akister, Jr., is visiting her father, Mr. Wm. Elliott. She intends to go west as soon as she hears from Mr. Akister, who went on April 13th with a carload of stock and effects to Swift Current, Saskatchewan.

Mr. Wilmot Connor, of Little Britain, called on Fairbairn friends last week.

Mr. Joseph McFarland's egg wagon made its first trip on Tuesday of this week; and, I tell you, Mr. Brandon was made very welcome by all the ladies, as they had nearly all the empty dishes filled to the top waiting for him.

(The above was crowded out last week.)
