

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—Next Sabbath morning the Pastor will continue his sermons on the life of Daniel. Evening subject, "How to be Prosperous."

WATERING CART.—The watering cart has been on duty during the past few days, and has laid a lot of dust that otherwise would have caused considerable inconvenience.

OFF THE TRACK.—The morning train from the north was over four hours late on Tuesday, having run off the track near Lochlin. During the morning the passengers were brought as far as the Falls by a train sent up for the purpose.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The annual meeting for the election of officers for the Women's Institute will be held this (Friday) afternoon in Dickson's Hall at 2.30. A full attendance is requested.

NEW TRUSTEE.—Two candidates were nominated at the meeting on Wednesday for the vacant position of school trustee—Messrs. H. A. McIntosh and H. W. Kearns. The probabilities are Mr. Kearns will fill the office, as Mr. McIntosh has no desire for the position and will resign.

WONDERLAND.—The Wonderland Moving Picture Entertainment opened on the evening of the 24th for the first time, and has been open every evening since. It is being well attended, and much favorable comment is heard regarding the character of the entertainment.

VICTORIA DAY.—The 24th of May passed off quietly at the Falls. Boating seemed to be the favorite pastime. A good many took advantage of the holiday to catch up with their gardening operations. Some went to Burnt River, to take part in the doings there. The weather was perfect, and everybody appears to have had a good time.

NEW GOVERNMENT BOAT.—A new Government tug, the "Herbert" passed through the locks here on Wednesday on her way to Kirkfield, where she will be employed towing stone at the locks. The "Herbert" is a flat bottomed boat, 40 feet long, and is well adapted for the class of work in which she will be engaged.

METHODIST CHURCH.—On Sunday evening next the choir—which was very highly complimented last Sunday on their singing, by the pastor, Rev. W. J. M. Cragg—will give a song service. Some of the great hymns of the ages will be sung, and the story of their authors told. Duets, quartettes, choir and congregational singing will constitute the service of praise.

AN EGG ITEM.—On Wednesday of last week Mr. W. Brandon, who drives Mr. McFarland's egg wagon—or, rather, the ponies that draw it—brought home a load consisting of fifteen cases, each containing 40 dozen of eggs, and one case containing 36 dozen. This makes a grand total of 528 dozen, or 6,312 individual eggs, and is believed to be the biggest load of "hen fruit" ever brought to the Falls.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

A large number of the citizens of Fenelon Falls paid our village a visit on Monday, the 24th.

Miss Viola McIntosh, of this place, was the guest of her friend, Miss Jean McPherson, of Balsover, from Friday of last week until Wednesday following.

Mr. Roy Craig, who has been engaged by the R. McDonald Co. as time-keeper here for the past year, left for his home on Saturday last. Much regret is felt at his departure, as he will be greatly missed in this locality.

Mrs. W. McDonald has been visiting friends in Toronto for a few days this week.

Mr. Will Knowlson, of the T. V. C. staff, spent Sunday at Sturgeon Point with his parents.

Miss Lillie McFadyon, of Toronto, is visiting her aunt, Miss Reynolds, of this place.

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The result of the election last Tuesday must be very gratifying to Dr. Mason and his many friends, Liberals and Conservatives, who went hand in hand and supported him. Time about is fair play, and the Conservatives should remember this the next time a Liberal in Fenelon Falls comes before the electors for their support.

The farmers in this locality are making good progress with their seeding, and some are nearly done; but we are afraid that a lot of seed too wet to give good results.

Mr. James Herron, of Peterborough, was home for the 24th.

Mr. E. Kendall is the proud possessor of a pair of twin colts. We would suggest, as names for them, Sir Wilfrid and Sir James.

The post-master did not get any mail on Tuesday, on account of the train running off the track.

Rev. Dr. Linscott's Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson for May 30th, 1909

Believing and Doing—James ii: 14-26. Golden Text—Faith without works is dead. James ii: 20. Verse 14—What does James mean here by "faith"?

Can a man have true faith, if he is not filled with love for his fellows and doing all he can to help them?

If a man "say he hath faith," what is the test of whether he is telling the truth?

Are there those to-day, who say, and probably think, they have faith, but lacking loving hearts, and the fruits of love, are deceiving themselves?

What is a Christian's proof to himself that he is not a deceived man in claiming to be in the favor of God?

Verses 15, 16—How do you class those who see people in need of food and clothing, and do not do all they can to supply the need?

Which person more nearly resembles Jesus, the one who talks very piously, and prays with the needy, but giving them no help, or the one who generously supplies the need without any religious pretensions?

If a man helps the needy to supply their own needs, is that as well or better than supplying the needs direct?

Is it possible for a church to be doing full Christian service which is not helping the needy, either in its own, or some other community?

Verses 17, 18—Is it possible to show faith without works?

Have all those who, with loving hearts, are engaged in good works, also got saving faith, whether they profess to have it or not, whether they are members of the church or not, and whether or not they are even orthodox in their views?

Have any, who attend church regularly and profess to be religious, but are harsh with the poor, give nothing to charity, and care nothing for the needy, got saving faith?

Have those got saving faith who pray for the poor and needy, and for the sick and suffering, and yet do nothing to feed the poor or comfort the sick?

Verses 19, 20—Is there any moral merit in mere orthodoxy, or is there any essential moral blame in mere heterodoxy?

Granted a man with the spirit of Jesus, engaged in good works, what does he lose by being heterodox, and what does he gain by being orthodox?

Verses 21-27—When God told Abraham to leave his own country and to start for another that God would show him, was there any other way that he could have faith in God, but by actually starting on the journey?

What is the meaning of, "and Abraham believed God and it was imputed unto him for righteousness"?

Love is an essential part of faith, and love implies action, or good works. Hence is it at all possible for a person to have faith who is not engaged in good works? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Lesson for Sunday, June 6th, 1909.—The Power of the Tongue. James iii: 1-12.

NEWSPAPER LAW.

1. A post-master is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law), when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.
2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.
3. Any person who takes a paper from the post-office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.
4. If a subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the post-office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.
5. Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
