

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. R. Suggitt, of Valencia, and Miss Bessie Suggitt, of Cameron, visited Baddow relatives for a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson, Jr., spent Saturday in Cambray, attending the funeral of Mrs. Wilson's uncle. Miss L. Jordan, of Lindsay, spent a few days in Baddow this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. McGregor of Cambray were the guests of Mrs. Geo. Goodhand over Sunday. A number from here attended the Baptist convention at Fenelon Falls last week. Mr. J. Carew and Miss Tinney, of Burnt River, spent Sunday in Baddow. Mrs. Stonehouse, of Winnipeg, is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Wilson, at Daisy Bank farm. The annual Sunday school picnic held at Rosedale on Friday last was quite a success; but, owing to the cold weather and a high wind, the attendance was no doubt smaller than it would otherwise have been. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Robson, of Fenelon Falls, spent Sunday in Baddow. Several from here took in the excursion to Guelph this week. Mr. D. Barnett and Miss Viola McIntosh, of Rosedale, attended the Methodist church here last Sunday morning. The people of the Baptist church have commenced work on their new shed. Mrs. McCaslin has returned home, after spending a couple of months in the States.

Encouraging Local Improvement

The Port Hope Guide says: Port Hope has set the Province of Ontario an example in civic pride of which the town may justly feel proud. Shortly after the competition was inaugurated, a prominent citizen of Hamilton, who happened upon the Secretary of the contest, called the circular containing a copy of regulations form and the rules and a couple of weeks later for the contest, item appeared in the Toronto papers from the Board of Hamilton, announcing that the Board had decided to award the prize to Port Hope. The following citizens' pledges have been printed and are being circulated in the town of Barrie by the Barrie Horticultural and Town Improvement Society: "I promise to keep my sidewalk clean. "I promise to keep the gutter in front of my premises free from weeds. "I promise to not to throw fruit skins or papers in the streets. "I promise to keep the weeds cut down on my premises. "I promise not to wheel over the boulevards. "I promise to keep my back yard neat and clean. "I promise not to walk across other people's lawns. "I promise to do all in my power to help others to keep this pledge.

Remains of a Giant Pine.

The Orillia Packet says: Mr. Edmund Wallis tells the Packet of a very remarkable log drawn to Mr. Aaron Stewart's mill, Uthoff, last winter, and lately measured. It grew on Mr. Rob. Downe's farm, and is from a giant pine cut down about twenty-five years ago, and allowed to lie all these years where it fell, on account of its great size and unwieldiness. The log measures six feet in diameter, and contains 1,885 feet. It is so large that it could not possibly be got into Mr. Stewart's mill without taking off the roof. It is therefore intended to blow it open with some explosive, and then handle it "in sections." Mr. Wallis suggests that this remarkable log, before it is too late, ought to be photographed. As he says, this county will never see its like again, and quite probably another pine of such dimensions was never at any time seen within the borders of the county. Perhaps Mr. B. F. Stewart may think it worth his while to run out to Uthoff and bring back a negative.

Those Hats Again.

The Kingston British Whig says: The Rev. D. H. Whitmore made an attack on the "Merry Widow" hat in an amusing way at the Young People's rally, held in Cooke's church, Kingston. The different societies were allotted certain parts of the church, and it so happened that the Rev. Mr. Whitmore and the members of the society of Calvary church were given seats near the rear. All in front of the preacher and his flock was one mass of millinery, for the audience was chiefly made up of young ladies. The preacher's chance came to him when he was called upon for an address. He said that he had been in the same position as a man who had attended one of Gipsy Smith's big meetings in Toronto, and then he told the story. It was the old, old story of the big hat. A man had travelled a long distance to hear the great evangelist, but he was wedged in between so many big hats that he could neither hear nor see anything. When the collection plate was passed along he relieved himself by dropping on it the following note, which was sent up to the evangelist: "Dear Sir,—I came one hundred miles to hear you, but could not see nor hear you, as I am sitting behind a big hat. Will you please sing 'Rescue the Perishing.'"

INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB THE GAZETTE'S BRANCH.

Rev. Dr. Linscott's Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson for June 27th, 1909.

Temperance Lesson. Rom. xiii: 8. Golden text.—Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ.—Rom. xiii: 14. Verse 8.—Is it always sinful to be in debt, when you have no visible means of paying it? Is it right, or wrong, to borrow when you have nothing to give your creditor? Is a business man who has honestly failed in business, and given up all his property, under moral obligation to make the balance of the debt, of future business? Under what conditions is it a business man's duty to borrow? Is it a business man's duty to give a discount for cash? Why are not the debts of a retailer repaid by the retailer? Why are creditors in common with the debtor? Wherein consists the sin of a wage-earner in constant debt? Is it the duty of everybody to love his neighbors? What is the advantage of loving everybody, to ourselves, and to those whom we love? Verses 9-10.—GIVE REASONS, OUTSIDE OF THE BIBLE, THAT WILL COVER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES, WHY IT IS ALWAYS WRONG TO DISOBEY THESE FIVE MORAL PROHIBITIONS. This question must be answered in writing by members of the club. Must all such acts, as are here forbidden, contravene the law of love to make them sinful; for example, if you had to kill a man who was about to kill one of your loved ones, would that be sinful? Can an act be wrong that works out for the good of all parties? Verses 11-12.—If you knew you had to die inside of a month, what effect would that have upon your intentions and actions, so far as God is concerned; and if it would change these in the least, does that not prove that you are now living wrong and are in danger? Most people are morally and spiritually asleep, and many are far into the night; what are the conditions which should suddenly startle such into full consciousness as to their danger and their duty? Verse 13.—How is it that the night is the time selected for so many bad deeds? Should a man ever do a thing which he is ashamed for his best friends and neighbors to know? Does the popular conscience generally, or always represent God's attitude to a thing; or are there some things God may be pleased with which the community would condemn as wrong, or vice versa? How is it that bar rooms are generally screened off from the public gaze? Why is it a crime for a man to get drunk? Why do most drunkards get drunk in the night, or away from public gaze? Does the drink habit generally lead to the other four grave evils mentioned in verse thirteen? Verse 14.—What is the sure remedy for the drink habit, and all kindred evils of the flesh? Does putting on Jesus always mean putting on strength, so we can control all the passions of the body and the ambitions of the soul? Lesson for Sunday, July 4th, 1909. Paul's Second Missionary Journey.—Antioch to Philippi. Acts xv: 36 to xvi: 15.
