HUSBAND WON'T CHANGE.

Will Not Change His Habits After Marriage.

It is pretty safe to calculate that if you don't like your lover's ways or habits before marriage, you will not like them any better after the ceremony. He may make all sorts of promises, but "promises are like pie crust, made to be broken." He may "turn over a new leaf," but you have no assurance, but his, that the leaf will stay turned. We are very likely to underestimate the strength of habit, especially in others. We forget how much habit means in our own case, and think it costs others less to give up than it costs us.

For instance, the girl who marries a man who smokes, expecting he'll give up his cigars for her sake, discovers that he remains pretty much as he was, if not worse. In the course of a long observation, I've never found a case where the woman's influence or wish was stronger than the man's love for his "harem of dusky beauties," says a writer. Many times the man has "sworn off" before marriage "to please her," and either temporarily stopped or smoked on the quiet, only to resume openly when the knot was safely tied. Her best way is to accept the habit with the man and do it without nagging, or else bid him go away, and camp on the trail of some man who really hasn't the habit.

Where Weakness is, Disease Will Settle.—If one suffers from any organic weakness, inherited or contracted, there disease will settle when it attacks the body. Therefore drive out the pains that beset you, do not let a cold or a cough harass you, and keep the respiratory organs in a good healthy condition. This you can do by using Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Prevention is the wisest course.

TRUE SAYINGS.

A green Christmas maketh a slim coal yard.
A frog in the pond is worth two in your throat.
A breach-of-promise suit is a poor substitute for a wedding coat.
There is nothing that will burn a hole in your pocket so quickly as a cool million.
If, as some poet has said, all life is music, the tramp must have been set to ragtime.
What a comfort it would be if the wolf at the door could be trained to chew up a few duns as they arrive!
There was a time when $100,000 seemed like a good deal of money, and, come to think of it, it seems so yet.
It is not so much the love of money, but the inordinate desire of its possessors to get rid of it, that is at the root of many latter-day evils.
Mrs. Gramercy: "What do we need for dinner?" Bridget: "Shure, mum, I tripped over the rug, an' we need a new set of dishes."

WEED CUTTINGS.

In Egypt an enormous amount of trouble and expense has been caused by the weeds and other vegetable growths which spread so rapidly as to choke canals and other waterways in a few days. Clearing by hand has been found impossible in one district, so a motor boat has been equipped with a unique weed cutter and placed in service. The cutting attachments consists of a pair of V shaped knives with sharp and powerful blades, worked by belt from the propeller shaft. They trail along the bottom of the waterway, cutting the growth off at the roots. It is said that the little boat will clear as much as five acres an hour.

Just when the coffee thinks it has good ground for complaint, the egg drops in and settles the whole business.

A husband who overcomes his wife's fits of temper by means of confections speaks in glowing terms of his sugar-curing process.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who, then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

The very corpulent suitor had just proposed on his knees to his innamorata and she had coldly declined. "If you will not accept my offer," said he, in desperation, "at least help me up."

After making a most careful study of the matter, U. S. Government scientists state definitely that the common house fly is the principal means of distributing typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox. Wilson's Fly Pads kill the flies and the disease germs, too.

"There was a strange man here to see you to-day, pap," said little Ethel, as she ran to meet her father in the hall. "Did he have a bill?" "No, pap; he had just a plain nose."

FAMILY NAME.

A new boy made his appearance in the schoolroom, and Miss Adair, the teacher, summoned him to her desk. "Do you expect to come to school here regularly?" she asked him.

"Yes'm."
"Where do you live? Are you in this district?"
"I guess so. I live down the street 'bout four blocks."
"What is your name?"
"Martin Luther Hicks."
"Martin Luther?" said the teacher. "I presume, Martin, you know for whom you were named?"
"Yes'm," answered the boy, brightening up. "I was named after me uncle on me mother's side. He keeps a liv'ry-stable."

A TERRIBLE CUSTOM.

Old customs die very hard in China, and in several parts of the Celestial Empire it is still considered a high act of virtue for a woman to publicly commit suicide after the death of her husband. According to the law, the proceeding is actually legal in some provinces, and such is the state of public opinion that in districts where it is officially prohibited the authorities rarely interfere.

Attacks of cholera and dysentery come quickly, there seldom being any warning of the visit. Remedial action must be taken just as quickly if the patient is to be spared great suffering and permanent injury to the lining membranes of the bowels. The readiest preparation for the purpose is Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. It can be got at small cost at any drug store or general dealer's, and it will afford relief before a doctor can be called.

FREQUENT.

And it sometimes happens that after a man has made his mark he acquires a wife who makes him toe it.

If allowed to roam over your house those few innocent-looking house flies may cause a real tragedy any day, as they are known to be the principal agents for the spread of those deadly diseases, typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox. No other fly killer compares with Wilson's Fly Pads.

Jack: "Smith asked me to come to his home this evening. Says he's going to celebrate his golden wedding." Gladys: "Why, he's been married only three years." Jack: "That's what I am told. He said it seemed like fifty."

A Standard Medicine.—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, compounded of entirely vegetable substances known to have a revivifying and salutary effect upon the digestive organs, have through years of use attained so eminent a position that they rank as a standard medicine. The ailing should remember this. Simple in their composition, they can be assimilated by the weakest stomach and are certain to have a healthful and agreeable effect on the sluggish digestive organs.

Mr. Green: "Do you know what I felt during the wedding ceremony to-day?" Miss Sharp: "No, what was it?" Mr. Green: "Well I felt profoundly thankful that I was not the bridegroom." Miss Sharp: "Very likely the bride felt like that, too."

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS have found Painkiller very useful. There is nothing equal to it in all cases of bowel troubles. Avoid substitutes, there is but one "Pain-Killer"—Perry Davis—25c. and 50c.

A QUEER DISH.

A great dish of Egyptian harem feasts is that of a lamb roasted whole. After the manner of a nest of Chinese boxes, each smaller than the other, the lamb is stuffed with a whole turkey, the turkey with a chicken, the chicken with a pigeon, the pigeon with a quail, and the quail with a beafico, the smallest bird known, except the humming-bird. The lamb is roasted over a slow fire until it is almost ready to fall to pieces.
