Peterboro Sawmills Burn.

JOHN THOMSON, FORMERLY OF FENELON FALLS, HELD LARGE INTEREST.

About 1.30 o'clock on Tuesday morning the saw and shingle mills of the Peterboro Lumber Co., on Bamham's Point, were discovered to be on fire, originating from a cause unknown, in vicinity of the company's steam pump and hose. The place being difficult of access to the fire engine the mills were burned and two C. P. R. cars on the siding. The loss is estimated at $75,000, besides the loss of business, the company having eight million feet of logs to cut. Some 125 men were thrown out of employment. Mr. John Thomson, formerly of Fenelon Falls, held a large interest in the burned mills.

Almost simultaneously a fire broke out in a large warehouse at the corner of Bethune and Simcoe streets, occupied by Florence & Co., junk dealers. The building and contents were destroyed. The loss is about $5,000 and insurance $2500.

LOYAL TRUE BLUES.—The members of E. T. B. Lodge will attend divine service in St. James' Church on Sunday evening, August 8th, instead of on date previously published by mistake. They invite all brethren of other lodges to attend.

POSTPONED AUCTION SALE.—On account of the rain last Saturday, the sale of furniture and household effects at Mr. A. McKillen's was postponed until Saturday, the 31st. See bills for complete list.

CHANGE IN BUSINESS.—Mr. Henry Puley has bought out Mr. Thos. Smith's blacksmithing business on Colborne street south of the river, and will continue the business at the same stand. Mr. Smith has been suffering severely with sciatica, and was compelled to give up the heavy work of blacksmithing.

NEW TEACHERS ENGAGED.—Miss N. Nixon, of St. George, Ont., has been engaged by the school board to teach in the second division of the public school, duties to commence on October 1st. Miss G. McCall, of St. Mary's, will teach the second book, and will take charge at the end of the holidays.

GARDEN PARTY.—The annual garden party in connection with the Fenelon Falls Baptist Church will be held at the residence of Mr. John Graham at Blythe, on the evening of Monday, August 2. Admission to grounds 10c. Refreshments extra. Ice cream, cake, etc. Trips will be run from the Falls by boat at 25c. return. A first-class time expected. All cordially welcome.

GOOD FISHING.—The fishing in both lakes has improved lately, many good catches being made, among the latest being an 11 lb. lunge, landed on Thursday morning by Mr. Grattan Graham. The most successful fisherman among the Kawartha guests has been Mr. Jos. Swope, of Dallas, who on Monday caught 16 small mouth black bass, one of the nicest strings ever brought in, ranging from two lbs to four lbs in weight. One of these bass was a particularly gamey fish, and it took a lot of hard work to land him. On Wednesday Mr. Swope landed a 12 lb. lunge with a 6 ounce casting rod. On Tuesday Wm. Garside of Toronto caught six nice bass; A. F. West and J. P. Heighton six bass and one lunge, one of Mr. Heighton's being a small mouth black weighing over 4 lbs. J. W. Jamieson and E. T. Miller of St. Louis, Mo., have also brought in some very fine fish.

When overheated take a glass of iced "Salada" Tea. It will prove most refreshing. As delightful as a dip in the sea.

Rev. Dr. Linscott's Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson for August 1st, 1900.

Close of Paul's Missionary Journey. Acts xviii: 1-22.

Golden Text.—In the world ye shall have tribulation; be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi: 33.

Verse 1.—What remarkable thing had immediately preceded Paul's start for Corinth?

There is no record of a vision or any special Divine instruction, for Paul going to Corinth; but is a good man as much guided by God when he is not conscious of it, as when he is, and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 2-3.—What was the attraction between Aquila and Paul?

How do you account for it that there is an affinity between men of the same trade?

Have labor men a perfect right to band themselves together for mutual protection, against the undue demands of capital?

Has capital a moral right to protect itself against labor?

Have business men a right to protect themselves against undue competition?

Paul worked at his trade as a tent maker for a living, is there any suggestion in this that modern preachers should do a similar thing?

A large proportion of the membership of the present day Christian Church, have the latent ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers, and the work being divided between them would be better done than at present, and each preacher make his own living?

Verse 4.—Is it the duty and privilege of every adult Christian to be engaged, at least every Sunday, in some specific spiritual work?

Why did Paul, in the beginning, in Corinth, confine his work to the Sabbath day and to the Jews?

Verses 5-6.—What effect did the visit of Silas and Timothy have upon Paul?

If a good man is ever so much in earnest, may the visit of another earnest man intensify his spirit?

When a man does his very best in preaching, and fails to make converts, is he entitled to as much credit as if he had great success?

Did Paul blame himself for his failure, and that the Jews resisted and blasphemed; and ought a man of God always take a similar position in like circumstances?

Verse 7.—Has it ever been in the past, and is it to-day, sometimes necessary for a good man to leave the church and start a meeting of his own?

Verse 8.—Is belief in Jesus an intellectual effect, or is it spiritual and supernatural?

Verses 9-11.—What method did God take in this instance to talk to Paul?

Why is it that so few Christians have any experience of any special message from God?

Do Christians speak as much as they ought for Christ to-day, and is there any fear of being hurt by speaking for him?

Verses 12-17.—Can any man expect, even in these days, to be unflinchingly faithful to God, and not make some people angry?

How do you estimate the character of this man Gallo, and what is there in him worthy of imitation?

Verses 18-22.—Sum up the effects of Paul's efforts as revealed in this lesson? Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 8th, 1900. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v: 12-24.
