Horses At The Fair.

Horse entries are coming in so fast at the office of the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, that the success of that department promises to be more pronounced than ever before.

The prizes given for speeding in the ring aggregate $4,000 and that in itself is a guarantee that the fastest harness horses in Canada will again be found in the races on the afternoon of August 30th and 31st and Sept. 1st and 2nd.

In Clydesdales everything points to an entry that will exceed last year's show when they were there in numbers and quality that cannot be equalled anywhere on the continent. Hackneys are growing better year by year and the show of them is excellent, while Toronto is a centre for hunters and jumpers of the very highest class; the competitions in this line excite almost world-wide interest.

In harness horses there is always a great exhibit, while the pony classes have been enlarged and extended in keeping with the growing popularity of the children's pets.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Mr. George Armstrong has purchased a new threshing machine from the Sawyer and Massey Co., of Hamilton, with a self feeder attached.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flett are visiting friends at Peterboro.

Berry picking is the order of the day, raspberries being an abundant crop. Those who went for huckleberries report them not so plentiful as last year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fell, left this morning for a six weeks' visit to the West.

Mrs. John Green died on Saturday afternoon. She was in her usual health on Thursday when she went to bed and had a stroke while dressing on Friday, after which she never regained consious-She leaves behind a sorrowing husband who has been an invalid for ten years, and six children-George and William at home, Rev. Miss M. Clifford, of Warsaw, is at present a guest at Moy Villa. Mr. A. W. Spence, C. E., spent a few days in Peterboro last week on business. Miss Doughty, of Peterboro, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. McIntosh of this village. Archdeacon Hill preached in St. John's Church on Sunday last. A large number were present. A large number of our citizens spent the 9th in Fenelon Falls and all report a splendid time.

Miss Viola McIntosh spent Sunday in Balsover, the guest of her friend Miss McPherson, of that place.

Mr. W. McDonald succeeded in landing a fine maskanonge one evening last week.

Among those from this place who attended the regetta at Sturgeon Point last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. McDonald, Mrs. A. W. Spence and Miss Jessie Spence, also the Misses Burns, and W. Knowlson of the T. V. C. staff, who was successful in carrying away several prizes. Mr. F. J. Goodman spent from Friday until Tuesday in Toronto on business. Miss Keefer, of Birch Island has commenced preparing for a concert which she intends holding in the near future.

Powles Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Mr. E. Dunn was in this section the first of the week with his new threshing outfit taat he has purchased. The engine is a twenty horse power Sawyer & Massey, and the machine is the George White & Co. make, with the latest improvements. Mr. Chas. Hepburn, of Cameron is also in this section threshing with his new machine and engine. There are five machines now at Cameron, and lots of churches.

The Rev. W. P. Woodger, of Bobeaygeon occupied the pulpit here last Sunday in the absence of the pastor. Mr. R. Parnell, of Wyvale, Simcoe county, is visiting relatives here. The weather is very favorable for the grain and the harvesting has commenced in earnest and will keep everyone busy for a month or so.

Rev. Dr. Linscott's Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson for August 15th, 1909.

Paul's Third Missionary Journey.-Ephesus. Lesson Acts xviii: 23 to xix

Golden Text .- The name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Acts xix:17. Verse 28 .- Is a systematic "follow up system," as essential in Christian work as it is to successful business? Are any so strong that we cannot derive "strengthening" from the prayers and the experience of others, and are any so weak that we may not "strengthen" others?

Verses 24-26.—What is the minimum of knowledge necessary in order that one may be a true child of God? What are the minimum qualities essential to become a preacher of the

What good qualities for a preacher did this man Apollos possess? What did "the baptism of John" include, and what did it lack of full orbed Christianity? What percentage of present day preachers will exceed Apollos (1) in their zeal and ability, (2) in their Christian knowledge, i. e., personal ex-perience, of Christ's gospel?

If Apollos had been conceited or anything less than a man of God, would he have submitted to teaching from a layman and his wife?

Verse 27.—Should layman use the pen more frequently to help preachers whom they know who are going to other towns?

Verse 28.-Why is it that God has conditioned all human progress and betterment, including a knowledge of the gospel, upon the zeal, ability and goodness of those who already enjoy its benefits?

Chap xix: 1-7.—Were these twelve persons whom Paul found at Ephesus, actually the reconciled children of God at this time?

What proportion, of present day Christians, have practically the same experience as these twelve disciples had, when Paul met them? Is the Holy Spirit, as spoken of in this lesson, generally received at or subsequent to conversion? If it is now the privilege of every Christian to receive the Holy Spirit, and to walk in Him thereafter, how may He be received? Was the gift of tongues and prophesying then, or is it now a necessary accompaniment of the baptism of the Holy Spirit? (See I Cor. 12:4-11; 29, 30.)

Is there anything necessarily implied in receiving the Holy Spirit, other than the constant realization that God dwells in us, to keep us holy, to guide us in all things, to give us necessary power and wisdom to carry out God's purposes concerning us?

Verse 8 .- Why ought, or ought not, the pulpit now, as Paul did then, to "dispute" or argue, and bring convincing proofs, compelling men's reasons, by powerful evidence, of the truths of Christianity, and not be content with simple declamation as is now so common? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.) Verses 9-12 .- Apart from the miraculous power that Paul had, what was the secret of his success? Verses 13-17.-Why do some to-day blaspheme the name of God, and dare the power of God; are they possessed with the devil? Verses 18-22.-Does conversion always imply restitution, and the forsaking of every evil way? Lesson for Sunday Aug. 22, 1909-Paul's Third Missionary Journey-The Riot in Ephesus. Acts xix: xx:1.
