

Can This Man Read Your Life?

The rich, poor, exalted and humble seek his advice on Business, Marriage, Friends, Enemies, Changes, Speculation, Love Affairs, Journeys, and all events of Life.

MANY SAY HE REVEALS THEIR LIVES WITH AMAZING ACCURACY.

Free test Readings will be sent for a short time to all our Readers.

Has the veil of mystery that has so long shrouded the ancient sciences been raised at last? Can it be that a system has been perfected that reveals with reasonable accuracy the character and disposition of an individual, and so outlines the life as to assist in avoiding errors and taking advantage of opportunities?

Roxroy, a man who has for twenty years been delving into the mysteries of the occult, making a scientific study of the various methods of reading the lives of people, seems to have reached a higher round in the ladder of fame than his predecessors. Letters are pouring into his office from all parts of the world telling of the benefits derived from his advice. Many of his patrons look upon him as a man gifted with some strange, mysterious power, but he modestly asserts that what he accomplishes is due alone to an understanding of natural laws.

He is a man of kindly feeling toward humanity, and his manner and tone immediately impress one with his sincere belief in his work. A huge stack of grateful letters from people who have received readings from him adds to other convincing proof as to his ability. Even Astrologers and Palmists admit that his system surpasses anything yet introduced.

The Rev. G. C. H. Hasskarl, Ph.D. of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, in a letter to Prof. Roxroy, says: "You are certainly the greatest specialist and master of your profession. Everyone consulting you will marvel at the correctness of your detailed personal readings and advice. The most sceptical will consult you again and again after corresponding with you once."

If you wish to take advantage of Roxroy's generous offer and obtain a free reading, send your date, month and year of birth, state whether Mr., Mrs. or Miss, and also copy the following verse in your own handwriting:

I have heard of your power
To read people's lives,
And would ask what for me
You have to advise?

Be sure to give your correct name and address and write plainly. Send your letter to ROXROY, Dept. 37, No. 177a Kensington High-street, London, W., England. If you wish, you may enclose 10 cents (Canadian stamps) to pay postage, clerical work, etc. Do not enclose coins or silver in letters.

Every time a married woman begins to talk about her rights it's her husband's cue to enumerate a few of his wrongs.

Where can I get some of Holloway's Corn Cure? I was entirely cured of my corns by this remedy, and I wish some more of it for my friends. So writes Mr. J. W. Brown, Chicago.

HIS TACTFUL REMINDER.

Two guests came to spend the evening, and didn't know when to depart. The host and hostess were patient with them, very patient; but when eleven twelve, and finally one o'clock struck, the husband realized that something must now be done. He was an original chap, and, in his droll way, he looked over at his wife and said, mildly:—"My dear, hadn't we better get up to bed? Our friends may want to be going?"

PERSONAL POINTERS.

Interesting Gossip About Some Notable People.

It is a somewhat curious fact, perhaps, that as a boy Mr. Marconi showed little signs of cleverness. One of his teachers, in fact, once said of him that he could never learn anything by heart. Nevertheless, he was only twenty-one when he began to startle the world with his demonstrations of wireless telegraphy. In spite of his fame, Marconi is one of the most unassuming of men, and hates demonstrations. He was once recognized while walking in Rome. Immediately a cheering crowd assembled. Marconi bolted into what he thought was an empty carriage. But it contained a lady who was too frightened to expostulate. The inventor quickly made his apologies, and the lady allowed him to remain until they were free of the crowd.

It is not often that a Prince is snubbed, but this happened once, at least, to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales. During his first visit with the Princess to Australia he was out walking one Sunday afternoon with his host, an important official. They happened to pass a Sunday-school just as the scholars were coming out, and, naturally, the children followed the distinguished pedestrians. At last the host asked them to run away, and all except one little girl did so. The tiny tot continued to gaze with innocent awe at the Prince. At last the latter took her hand, walked some little distance, and then said: "Now you have had a walk with me, run away and play." Immediately came the quaintly-severe retort: "Please, sir, we don't play on Sunday!"

Queen Wilhelmina, Europe's only female ruler, is twenty-eight years of age. Until her birth, the Salic Law, by which no woman could reign, had been in force, but this was put aside by Wilhelmina's father in his daughter's interest. This applies also to the little Princess Juliana. It is said that, although Princess Wilhelmina was her father's constant companion, she did not realize her Royal position until the latter's seventieth birthday. As she stood at the window listening to the crowds that cheered the King, she turned to her governess, and said, with an air of dawning intelligence: "Why, the King is my father!" Her Majesty succeeded to the throne as the first Queen of the Netherlands when ten years of age. Since then she has been the idol of her people, who have, with simple earnestness, shared in her sorrows and in her rejoicings.

JUDGED BY APPEARANCE.

King Alfonso is fond of mingling with his people. Some time back he visited a small town outside Madrid, and, somewhat disgusted, joined the crowd which thronged the street in order to catch a glimpse of himself. Suddenly word passed that the King was coming. A shrill female voice at his back exclaimed, "Let me get in front of you, will you? I've walked all the way and spoilt my new black dress. Get out of my way; I will see what the King is like." Turning round with a smile to the pushing, perspiring dame, his Majesty whispered: "Here is the King." The woman looked at him scornfully. "King, indeed!" she exclaimed. "You're more likely somebody who has come to blow the poor boy up."

MAKING FACES.

When you see a man making all sorts of faces at himself in a mirror it's a safe bet that he's either crazy or shaving.

Parents buy Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator because they know it is a safe medicine for their children and an effectual expeller of worms.

NO TIME FOR FIREWORKS.

The brave ship was wallowing in the waves that threatened to engulf her at any moment. Hastily the captain ordered a box of rockets and flares to be brought to the rail, and with his own hands ignited a number of them in the hope that they would be seen and the passengers and crew rescued.

Amid the glare of the rockets, a tall, thin, austere-looking individual found his way to the skipper. "Captain," said he, "I must protest against this foolhardiness. We are now facing death; this is no time for fireworks!"

Tom—"She broke the engagement," Dick—"What did Harry do?" Tom—"He sent her a bill for the use of the engagement ring for the time they were engaged."

HUNTING FOR BIG GAME.

The Highlands of Ontario are an ideal spot for the sportsman during the open hunting season for big game. In the Temagami region moose are plentiful and may be killed during the period from October 15th to November 15th. This territory is a forest preserve of vast expanse, and in addition to being the hunter's paradise, its waters abound with game fish of many species. The home of the red deer is located somewhat to the south of Temagami, particularly in the districts known as "Muskoka Lakes," "Lake of Bays," "Maganetawan River," "Lake Nipissing," and "Kawartha Lakes" territories.

Write to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Toronto, for a copy of "Haunts of Fish and Game," issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System which fully describes the hunting territories reached by this line, giving game laws maps and all information.

"Good morning, sir," said the lady, entering the studio to the famous portrait-painter. "I wish to engage you to paint my portrait." "I shall be delighted, madam." "I want it painted with my new hat on." "Pardon me, madam, but I am not a landscape artist."

A Thorough Pill.—To clear the stomach and bowels of impurities and irritants is necessary when their action is irregular. The pills that will do this work thoroughly are Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are mild in action but mighty in results. They purge painlessly and effectively, and work a permanent cure. They can be used without fear by the most delicate; constituted, as there are no painful effects preceding their gentle operation.

"I want you children to go to my lecture to-night," remarked a professor to the younger members of his family. "Couldn't you whip us instead just this once, father?" said one of them.

If allowed to roam over your house those few innocent-looking house flies may cause a real tragedy any day, as they are known to be the principal agents for the spread of those deadly diseases, typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox. No other fly killer compares with Wilson's Fly Pads.

She—"Sometimes you appear really manly and sometimes you are quite effeminate. How do you account for it?" He—"It's hereditary, I suppose. One half of my ancestors were men and the other half women."

ONLY A 'BERTH'-MARK.

An Irishman, who had just come from Dublin to Glasgow to seek employment, was informed that he had a poor chance of getting a job because he was displaying marks consistent with pugilism.

"You mane that I've a black eye, sir, eh?"
"Exactly."

"Shure, that's only a berth-mark which I have. You see, sir, I was coming from Dublin on the boat, an' by a mistake I went into the wrong berth, and the fellow who was there gave me this."

A Pleasant Purgative.—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so compounded as to operate on both the stomach and the bowels, so that they act along the whole alimentary and excretory passage. They are not drastic in their work, but mildly purgative, and the pleasure of taking them is only equalled by the gratifying effect they produce. Compounded only of vegetable substances the curative qualities of which were fully tested, they afford relief without chance of injury.

RIGHT.

Fewer people would have axes to grind if they had to furnish the motive power to revolve the grindstone.

After making a most careful study of the matter, U. S. Government scientists state definitely that the common house fly is the principal means of distributing typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox. Wilson's Fly Pads kill the flies and the disease germs, too.

WHAT HE FOUND.

"He went into the country to find solitude."

"Did he find it?"
"No, quite the opposite; he sat down on an ant-hill."

INFORMATION WANTED about the man who has never heard of Painkiller. Sold for over 60 years. Is the best remedy for cramps, colic and dysentery, and unequalled as a liniment for cuts and wounds. Avoid substitutes, there is but one "Painkiller"—Perry Davis—25c. and 50c.

SAID UNCLE SILAS:

"When a feller has a job in a foundry he tells about the place where he works, but if he's in a bank he speaks about the concern by which he is employed."

Attacks of cholera and dysentery come quickly, there seldom being any warning of the visit. Remedial action must be taken just as quickly if the patient is to be spared great suffering and permanent injury to the lining membranes of the bowels. The readiest preparation for the purpose is Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. It can be got at small cost at any drug store or general dealers, and it will afford relief before a doctor can be called.

The Lady—"Look here, you said that if I'd give you your dinner you'd mow the lawn for me." Tramp—"I'd like to do it, ma'am, but I've got to teach you a lesson. Never trust the word of a total stranger."

Something that Should be Rubbed In.—Whenever pain is felt in the limbs or back, take Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil; pour a little in the hand, and applying it to the surface beneath which the pain is, rub briskly. If the first application does not afford relief, which is not usually the case, keep rubbing. The Oil will gradually penetrate to the affected part and relief will come.

Lady Roberts was once visiting the hospitals at the base of military operations in India, and so pleased was she with the untiring labor of the nurses and their devotion to the sick that she said:—"I really think that the sisters deserve a medal for this campaign as much as anyone, and I hope they will get one." "I don't know about a medal," said a gallant colonel standing by, "but they are sure, at all events, to get plenty of claps."
