

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The storm the first of this week did considerable damage in this section. Both fruit and shade trees were injured by the weight of ice that accumulated on their branches, and one farmer estimates his loss at fifty dollars by the destruction of two fine apple trees; and similar reports come from all parts of the section.

The trustees of the school here have re-engaged Mr. N. C. Hart for 1910.

A meeting is to be held some time soon to come to a definite decision as to the size of the new driving-shed for the church, and as to where and when it is to be erected.

Sufficient snow has fallen to make us think that winter is very near, and we like many others, are trying to get ready for it. It is a good plan to be prepared for the worst.

It is to be hoped that this winter will be the last for the bar-rooms in Fenelon Falls, as well as in other places.

A Companion For Canadians.

The Youth's Companion has long been distinguished for its famous British contributors. Tennyson and Gladstone are noteworthy among those of former years, and the roll includes such names as Rudyard Kipling, Sir Edwin Arnold, Sir Reginald Palgrave and the Duchess of Sutherland. During 1910 The Companion will be enriched by the contributions of many British writers. Among these are the Duke of Argyll (who will write on the Scottish and Irish clans), Lady Henry Somerset, Rt. Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States, Jane Barlow, F. T. Bullen, Sir H. H. Johnston, Sir James Crichton-Brown, E. W. Thomson and Rev. W. J. Dawson (who will write on fruit-growing in Keotenay).

Every new Canadian subscriber will find it of special advantage to send at once the $2.00 for the new 1910 Volume. Not only does he get the beautiful "Venetian" Calendar for 1910, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold, but all the issues of the Companion for the remaining weeks of 1909 from the time the subscription is received.

NEWSPAPER LAW.

1. A post-master is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law), when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the post-office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the post-office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
