Have Your Watch Cleaned Once a Year

You can save nothing by allowing it to run longer without overhauling.

It is no better economy to run a watch without cleaning as long as it will go than it is to drive a horse without feeding as long as he can move.

Should your watch stop bring or send it to us without trying to start it. It will be an assistance to us in ascertaining the cause of stoppage to see it in that condition. All work guaranteed.

Curling.

The two rinks of Fenelon Falls curlers who went to Lindsay on Tuesday to play in the Tankard primaries were drawn against the veteran skips Little and Flavelle of Lindsay, and made a very creditable showing, considering what they were up against.

The Post in its account of the game says: "The ice of course was in poor condition, but notwithstanding this some splendid curling was done by the different players."

"Fenelon and Lindsay played a magnificent game. J. D. Flavelle's tankard rink worked together most creditably, each man having the full control of his stone, and under the direction of the old veteran could place their shots to advantage. On the other rink G. A. Little had his hands full, as Fenelon Falls on three occasions led by one or two points. On the other hand, Fenelon worked fine together. T. Graham, who skipped against Flavelle, is a splendid skip and an old reliable from the Cataract Village. Mr. Hamilton, who skipped so magnificently against G. A. Little, deserves considerable credit for the manner in which he kept down the crack Lindsay players, and the rink that supported him was most evenly balanced."

The rinks were:
Lindsay: R. Butler, R. H. Cuthbert, L. V. O'Connor, J. D. Flavelle, sk 19, T. Burke, M. Sisson, W. Reesor, G. A. Little, sk 22.
Fenelon Falls: H. McCallum, Dr. Sims, J. H. Stanton, T. Graham, sk 11, Dr. Johnstone, W. Bishop, Thos. Sadler, R.M. Hamilton, sk 13.
Majority for Lindsay, 17 points.

A contingent from the Falls go to Peterboro on Tuesday to take part in the district cup contest.

Past District Masters: J. T. Thompson, L. Deyman, Thos. Johnston, 996;

R. McFadyen 935; Sam Suddaby, 541;

John Cook, 539; Thos. Austin, 996.

District Master Wm. Manning made the following address to the assembled brethren:

To the Officers and Members of the District Orange Lodge of Fenelon.

Brothren,—

By a kind and gracious providence we are again permitted to assemble to discharge the important duties devolving upon us in the interest of our beloved association. This annual meeting reminds us that another year has come and gone into eternity. I welcome you to your labors, and trust our deliberations may be of great benefit to our order, and will give us fresh inspiration and energy, that we may continue in the good work with renewed vigour and greater activity.

The year that has passed away has been marked by great success in general throughout the whole jurisdiction of the Orange society. Our meeting this afternoon should be marked by brotherly love, which should at all times characterize true Orangemen in promoting the well being of our beloved association. It affords me much pleasure to be able to say that as far as I know harmony and brotherly love prevail throughout the whole district, and nothing of a serious nature has occurred during the whole year that would tend to mar the harmony among the brethren. This should be a great satisfaction to one and all.

Regarding our progress in this district this year I might say that we have not made the rapid strides which I would like to see in this glorious institution. I have great reason to feel proud of L. O. L. No. 935, with the increase of membership for the past two years, knowing that at that time the Lodge was in a weak state; but it shows what can be done when members get to work with their shoulders to the wheel.

I would recommend the various Lodges to be very particular in getting the lecturers correctly and well acquainted with the ritual, that the candidates may be instructed in an impressive, perfect and uniform manner.

During the year I have met with you in your different Lodges, except one, with whom I fully intended to meet, but was prevented from doing so by circumstances over which I had no control. I have joined you in your celebrations and amusements, and am always ready to participate in anything that will tend to the upbuilding of our society.

Partiality has no place in my breast. Be a brother's hand rough or smooth, we belong to the same brotherhood, have taken the same obligation, and no matter what he wears, we have a right to extend to him the right hand of fellowship. Always bid a hearty welcome to all visiting brethren to your lodges. I think we are too much isolated, and each lodge seems to live too much to itself.

I will always think of the pleasant meetings we have had together throughout the district. I wish to thank one and all for the assistance and kindness shown me in my official capacity.

To discharge the duties of District Master is a great deal harder than the ordinary member imagines—more particularly when the lodges are many miles apart. I feel as much interested in the different lodges as I do in my own business, and I am always ready to do anything that will further the interests of our association. I went as your representative to the Supreme Grand Lodge of B. A. I tried to watch over your interests and the interests of the society in general to the best of my ability. I was there to help in what you considered the interest of the society—restoration of the Purple and Blue degrees.

Our last celebration on the 12th of July will be long remembered by the brethren who took part in it in the loyal town of Port Hope, where thousands assembled to do honor to the glorious memory of William the Third.

There are people who are opposed to our celebrations because they do not understand them. We do not parade to aggravate our Roman Catholic fellow citizens, nor to celebrate a victory of Protestant over Roman Catholic, but to commemorate that great event which gave civil and religious liberty to Protestant and Roman Catholic alike, and to remind ourselves and our children of the great reformation brought about by the victory of King William at the Boyne.

I desire to call your attention to our official organ, the Orange Sentinel, and to commend it as worthy of your support. I think it should be in the home of not only Orangemen, but in the home of every Protestant, and should be a carefully read, so that they might better understand the great principles of our order. I think the Sentinel should be read by every Protestant clergyman in Canada. Believing as I do that the Protestant ministers are not as fully informed as they should be in the fundamental principles of our Order, I am fully convinced that with a better understanding of our principles the Protestant ministers would be a much stronger factor in building up a united Protestantism than they are at the present time. They would also get to understand the working of the greatest organization in the world, the Roman Catholic Church.

Now, brethren, in conclusion I wish to thank you for the honor you conferred on me two years ago by electing me by acclamation to the highest office in the district, and by electing me again last year.

No doubt I have made mistakes—done things I should not have done and left undone things I should have done—but, brethren, I can assure you they have been mistakes of the head, not of the heart.

To the Orange order my heart beats true, and every member of the association can always rely upon my hearty support in all matters pertaining to the well being and advancement of those principles which we love so well.

WILLIAM MANNING,
District Master No. 4, Fenelon.
