

IT'S THE TALK OF THE COUNTRYSIDE

HOW DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED MRS. SAMUEL THOMPSON'S DROPSY.

Her's Was a Terrible Case and the Doctors were Powerless to Check It, but the Great Kidney Remedy Cured It.

Holt, Ont., Jan 31 (Special).—All the country side about here is talking of the wonderful cure of Mrs. Samuel Thompson of this place. She was taken sick with Jaundice, and though the doctor was called in she grew steadily worse. Her stomach was so bad she could not keep anything on it. Dropsy set in and she bloated to a terrible size. The doctor came three times to tap her, but her husband would not allow him to do it, saying that if she could not get better they might let her die in peace. Finally she dropped the doctors and tried other medicines, but they did her no good. Her leg burst and the water streamed from it. Then someone told her about Dodd's Kidney Pills and so she asked her husband to get her a box.

After taking them a while she took a bad turn. Something would come in her throat and she would vomit. The water would just fly from her mouth. But from that time she commenced to get better, and to-day she is a well woman. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Dropsy by putting the kidneys in condition, to take the surplus water out of the blood. They always cure it.

HARD NUTS.

Money may talk, but time tells. Temptation defeated is strength won. The race never goes to the discouraged.

A good man cannot have too much money.

This is a sour world for the man with a sour disposition. Working for others is the best way of working for yourself.

One kind of charity always has a card attached to it.

It is wise and commendable to be patient when it's the only way out. By all means consider yourself important, but keep that opinion to yourself.

Conscience is a correct compass, but it is not always easy to navigate by it.

When you have made your fortune it is time enough to think about spending it.

If you are a sufferer from colds get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup and test its qualities. It will be found that no praise bestowed on it is too high. It does all that is claimed for it, and does it thoroughly. Do not take any substitute for Bickle's Syrup, because it is the best, having stood the test of years. All the best dealers sell it.

CO-OPERATION AT ROCHDALE.

Start of Business Amounting Now to $500,000,000.

About sixty years ago a few poor workmen in Rochdale, England, formed a little co-operative society and started a store which was kept open evenings by the members, who took turns in serving as storekeepers.

They were earnest, hard headed and practical idealists, says the Twentieth Century Magazine. Yet it is doubtful if the most early days conceived how great would be the movement that should materialize out of what was inaugurated in so humble a way.

From that little beginning has grown one of the most successful enterprises of its kind. Great wholesale societies, enormous warehouses, stores, factories and shops and a fleet of ocean steamers are but a few results and valuable assets of this great fraternal federation of workers.

In the presidential inaugural address delivered by W. R. Rae at the last congress of the Co-operative Union the speaker, after referring to the fact that the last year had been a very trying one throughout England owing to the extreme business depression that prevailed throughout the realm, continued:

"But even in the face of the natural shrinkage in trade the figures for the year, so far as co-operative trading is concerned, are very favorable. During the year 1908 the business done by our societies exceeds that of 1907 by nearly two million pounds, having risen from 17,699 to £107,550,654, and the membership by nearly one hundred thousand, from 2,434,085 to 2,516,194."

Mr. Rae also held that the co-operators "have an entry into and some influence on the life of nearly two million homes, or between one-fourth and one-fifth the whole community."

A LITTLE COLD.

He caught a little cold— That was all.

So the neighbors sadly said, As they gathered round his bed, When they heard that he was dead.

He caught a little cold— That was all. (Puck.)

Neglect of a cough or cold often leads to serious trouble. To break up a cold in twenty-four hours and cure any cough that is curable, mix two ounces of Glycerine, a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure and eight ounces of pure Whisky. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. You can buy these at any good drug store and easily mix them in a large bottle.

"And you will give us your blessing?" asked the eloping bride, returning to the parental roof. "Freely," replied the old man; "no trouble about the blessing, but board and lodging will be at regular rates."

"Amelia," said a stern father, holding up a letter his daughter had accidentally dropped. "I found this on the stairs. Who wrote and sent it?"

"It's—it's from Mr. Johnson," answered the girl in embarrassment.

"Oh, those—are stars, father! Mr. Johnson is teaching me astronomy!"

Enamored Swain (after being accepted)—"Darling, you look sweet enough to eat." Practical Maid—"Well, you can take it that I do eat. I hope you didn't think that I live on atmosphere alone."

Impurities of the Blood Counteracted.—Impurities in the blood come from defects in the action of the liver. They are revealed by pimples and unsightly blotches on the skin. They must be treated inwardly, and for this purpose there is no more effective compound to be used than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They act directly on the liver and by setting up healthy processes have a beneficial effect upon the blood, so that impurities are eliminated.

NOT CORDIAL.

"Your new boss isn't very sociable, is he?" asked Crumley. "Well," replied Digley, "he's a great old hand-shaker."

One of the smartest police constables in Wales has four feet. He answers to the name of Wallace, and belongs to Police Constable Albert Savage, of the Glamorgan-shire constabulary, who has trained him to police duty. "He works the backs of houses while his master works the fronts, and vice versa," says the Police Review and Parade Gossip. "He never misses a man if there is one about, and his warning bark soon makes known to his master the presence of tramps loitering or sleeping in the farmyards."

Faultless in Preparation.—Unlike any other stomach regulator, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of long study of vegetable compounds calculated to stimulate the stomachic functions and maintain them at the normal condition. Years of use have proved their faultless character and established their excellent reputation. And this reputation they have maintained for years and will continue to maintain, for these pills must always stand at the head of the list of standard preparations.
