Drainage and Forestry.

Good roads, drainage and forestry are three subjects that are at present receiving a great deal of attention in the Dominion. G. C. Creelman, B. S. A., President of the O. A. C. at Guelph, in his address explaining the work of the college, made the following remarks concerning draining and forestry, which we reproduce partly on account of their local application and principally with the idea of encouraging the undeniably beneficial work of tile draining, and preventing useless destruction of trees. Mr. Creelman said:

"We have Mr. W. H. Day, Lecturer in Physics. A farmer said to me the other day, 'What do they do with Physics in Agriculture?' The department of physics is one of the most important we have here. A man said to me the other day, 'I live in Victoria County, and the water lay on ten acres of my land until June, and I could grow nothing on it but hay and oats.' He notified our Professor of Physics, and he went down and gave him a plan so that he could underdrain it at an expense of about $14.50 an acre, and it is now the earliest field on the farm. There are hundreds of thousands of acres of land in this Province of Ontario that need draining. The tile factories of this Province are now working overtime to get tile ready for the farmers who want to underdrain their land.

Then we have Mr. E. J. Zavitz, Professor of Forestry. What do we care about Forestry? We are a forest country. But some men come along like Dr. Clarke or Dr. Pinchot of Washington, and they say 'Stop!' What is the matter? 'Why,' they say, 'we have not got fifty years' supply of timber in the world. Germany is now importing wood. There are only two countries in the world that have more wood than they can use and they are Canada and the Scandinavian Peninsula, Norway and Sweden, and they are giving out.'

I went down on the train this morning with the manager of the Massey-Harris Works at Toronto, and he said, 'We have brought in fifty million feet of lumber from the United States since the first of January. We are buying nearly all of it in Arkansas and Ohio. We cannot get it in Canada, our timber is about exhausted.' We are starting to grow here little trees from seed. We have waste land all through this Province from which the timber should never have been cut, rocky places that are a disfigurement to the landscape. Suppose it does take fifty years, what is the difference? It is going to give us a revenue and the Government has taken it up.

There are waste places north of Cobourg and in Norfolk County and in Simcoe and in Lambton, a strip nearly fifty miles long. Thousands of acres in Old Ontario could be replanted with first class pine, and the time will come when we will get this back. What have we got to say to posterity for what we have done in the year 1908? Millions of dollars worth of pine burned up simply for the want of a little policing on the outside."

The Real Unfairness.

The proceeds of a prisoner's labor should go to himself or to his dependents. The only objection to this is that it puts him in some respects in a better position than that of the free workers outside.—Globe.

The prisoner and his family have to be supported by somebody, and if not by the prisoner himself, then by the "free" workers. Applying the proceeds of the prisoner's labor to the support of himself and his family would therefore appear to have the effect of relieving the free workers of that responsibility. The real unfairness comes in when the free workers support prisoners in idleness. It should be the reverse—the unjust supporting the just—the burdens of the upright citizen lightened by the labor of the one who is naughty.

Public Library Institute Meeting.

The Public Library Institute meeting held at Lindsay on Friday last was attended by delegates from twenty-five of the thirty-seven libraries in the district. Addresses were given by Rev. W. A. Bradley, B. A., of Berlin, ex-president of the Ontario Library Association; Mr. W. R. Nursey, of Toronto; Dr. J. H. Burnham, Peterborough; and Mr. G. H. Locke, Chief Librarian of the Toronto libraries. The most notable suggestion in connection with proposed means to increase the usefulness of libraries was made by Mr. Bradley, who was of the opinion that they should do the work now carried on by the correspondence schools. In Berlin, he stated, technical works on all subjects were in the library for the use of the artisans of the town.

Mr. Nursey was of the same opinion as Mr. Bradley.

Reports from representatives of some of the smaller libraries showed that these libraries were not in a flourishing condition.

The Lindsay District comprises the counties of Ontario, Victoria, and Haliburton, Muskoka, Peterboro, Hastings and Durham, and from them the following officials were selected.

President—Dr. Vrooman, Lindsay.
Vice-President—Dr. Burnham, Peterboro.

Secretary—Mrs. E. J. Jacobi, Oshawa.
Committee—James English, Peterboro; L. K. Murton, Oshawa; H. Logan, Beverton; Mrs. M. E. Calder, Fenelon Falls; A. H. C. Long, Port Hope; Albert Davidson, Little Britain; M. J. Dickie; Bracebridge.

A Successful Vocalist.

The following account of Miss Lillian G. Wilson's recent recital in Toronto is taken from the Globe:

"An overflowing audience attended the vocal recital by Miss Lillian G. Wilson and Mr. Warren I. Walker in the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression last evening, and enjoyed a programme of engaging and attractive songs, alike creditable to themselves and their well known teacher, Mr. Arthur Blight. Miss Wilson has a soprano voice of high, elastic quality and range, which she uses with admirable ease and freedom. Her numbers, which were remarkably well sung, were: 'The Wren,' Lehman; 'Songs My Mother Taught Me,' Dvorak; 'The Call of Radha,' by Ware; 'Delight Valse,' Luckstone, and 'Ich Kann Nicht Fassen' (German) by Von Fielitz. Mr. Walker is also a most excellent representative of Mr. Blight's success as a teacher of singing. Possessing a voice of fine baritone quality, he impresses one with his sincerity and regard for fine vocal effects, as instanced, especially in his singing of 'The Trumpeter' by Dix, and a trio of songs by Clarke. Miss Wilson and Mr. Walker were also heard in a duet, 'The First Song,' by Goetz, which was charmingly rendered.

Fenelon Council.

Council met at call of the reeve—all members present. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The by-law transferring Robt. Hewie's lot from S. S. No. 4 to S. S. 6, of which notice was given at the last meeting, was passed in the usual manner, Mr. Sims in the chair.

Mr. N. Day asked the council to pass a by-law endorsing plan of a summer resort on his farm, but as Mr. Day wished to control and own the road leading from the 9th concession to the resort, council deferred passing the bylaw.

Mr. R. Anderson stated that council should do its best to get the Government to complete the work on the short road from Cameron to Lindsay. Reeve Palmer stated that solicitor McLaughlin was looking after the matter, and that he expected a sum would be placed in the estimates for that purpose.

On motion of Messrs. Parkin and Sims, James Ewar's taxes, $6.41, were rebated owing to his owing to his being unable to work.

It was moved by Mr. Parkin and seconded by Mr. Tompkins, that a by-law be introduced to authorize the appointment of pathmasters for the different road divisions for the ensuing year. The by-law was given its three readings and signed and sealed, Mr. Tolmie in the chair.

Moved by Mr. Tompkins, and seconded by Mr. Tolmie, that the following bills be paid: Jos. McFarland, groceries to diphtheria patients, $4.37; John Jones, work in same connection, $3.10; John Copp, beef to diphtheria patients, $1; W. H. Powles, postage and stationery $3.32; Clerk, on salary $25; John E. Patton, for 219 loads of gravel, $10.95; M. Maybee for use of Orange Hall for this meeting, $2.

Council then adjourned, to meet at the call of the reeve.

There was a large attendance, and the usual business was transacted. Miss Haskell read an exceptionally interesting paper on the subject, "Should Women be on the School Board?" and good papers were also read by Mrs. Wm. Burgoyne on "The Home" and by Mrs. Fell on "Home Work and Influence." Miss Nie read a report of the Guelph Convention, and gave a demonstration of the vacuum cleaner. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held in Dickson's hall on March 25th. The subject of "Spring Sewing" will be taken up and demonstrated, and patterns will be exchanged.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Next Sunday the pastor will begin a series of four sermons on "The Life of Christ," as follows: 1st, "The Thirty Silent Years," 2nd, "The 1st and 2nd Years of the Public Ministry," 3rd, "The 3rd Year of the Public Ministry," 4th, "From Calvary to Olivet." On Sunday evening the subject will be "The Exceeding Sinfulness of Sin." The Ladies' Aid met at the Parsonage on Tuesday and arranged work for the year.

The social given in the basement of the Methodist Church last Friday evening under the auspices of the choir was in every way a success, the programme being excellent and well rendered. Among the numbers might be mentioned a solo by Mrs. W. B. Moore, entitled "The Song I heard in Heaven," given in her beautiful high toned soprano, which was much appreciated by the audience, as were also Mrs. McArthur's and Miss Powles' solos. A dialogue in which Mrs. W. H. Welsh figured prominently as Mrs. Buttermilk, with her son Johnny (Art Northey) was a feature of the programme that met with great applause. There was also a reading given by Mr. Hart of Powles' Corner, which was well accepted, as also were the solo by Miss Della Deyman, and a recitation and monologue. During the evening the orchestra, composed of eight pieces, rendered several selections, which were greatly enjoyed by the large audience, as were also the selections on Mr. A. Northey's gramophone. The programme was as follows: Solo, Mrs. W. B. Moore; Monologue, Parthenia, Mrs. J. L. Welsh; Solo, Miss Della Deyman; Recitation, Miss Grace McFarland; Quartette, Messrs. G. Wilson, A. W. Quibell, A. McGee, W. Wilson; Reading, Mr. Hart; Solo, Mrs. McArthur; Recitation, Miss Aileen Kerr; Quartette, Misses Grace McFarland, Lillian Corbett, Messrs. W. Wilson and A. Northey; Solo, Miss Myrtle Powles; Dialogue, The Train to Mauro; Trio, Messrs. H. Copp, G. Wilson, A. W. Quibell. The pastor and choir were much gratified at the results of their efforts. The proceeds amounted to $26.
