

Those "Dope" Experts

Lindsay Post: The warm weather seems to have had its effect on the ozone "experts" of the Toronto World and Star. On Saturday both journals came out with the statement that Mr. J. Howard Bridge had admitted doping the water prior to the inspection of Dr. Archibald. Mr. Bridge admitted no such thing. What he did say was that "Two days prior to your (Dr. Archibald's) test the entire plant was sterilized by allowing a weak solution of chloride of lime to pass through it, and to stand for half an hour in the sterilizing well."

The Toronto press, in their eagerness to knock the system, may insinuate that Mr. Bridge "doped" the water, but we don't see it that way, and, knowing Mr. Bridge as we do, we expect that he will request the Toronto "experts" to prove their statement. In the face of all the wild-eyed statements circulated by the Toronto press, the water supplied by the ozone plant is being used by our citizens, as it still retains its clarity and purity. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and surely the citizens are competent judges as to whether there is any difference in the water supplied now and before the ozone plant was installed.

The Toronto press may rant about the vindication of the Provincial Board, and display gross ignorance of ozone purification matters by printing arrant gush until doomsday; but it will have no effect upon our citizens, who know a good thing when they taste it. We have pure water and are satisfied.

EFFECT OF SUGGESTION.

It Can Fill Our Lives With Gladness or With Misery.

There is nothing that plays so important a part in the daily life of men and women as does suggestion, says H. Addington Bruce in the Delineator. Mentally, morally and to a large extent physically we are what we are because of its influence. Suggestion can make of us saints or criminals, heroes or cowards. It can lift us from beds of sickness or doom us to a hopeless invalidism. It can fill our lives with gladness or with misery. It is a great force ceaselessly operative, unescapable. But it is a force that we can nevertheless direct and utilize if we only understand its laws, and the more wisely, the more persistently, the more thoroughly we use it, the happier and healthier we shall be.

No matter how many setbacks come, keep repeating to yourself optimistic autosuggestions. Repetition is one of the most forceful instruments of suggestion. There is a great truth underlying the familiar saying "As a man thinketh, so is he." Moreover, you can utilize the law of repetition to draw from your surroundings beneficial suggestions that will powerfully reinforce your autosuggestions. You can do so because every detail in your environment is of suggestive value to you, and, although no one can make this environment all that it should be, nevertheless it is quite within your power to modify it in such a way that it will give you a maximum of helpful and a minimum of harmful suggestions.

How He Won Her.

A man who married his stenographer won her through sheer persistence. Although it was evident to the wooer that the young woman did not regard him entirely without favor, he found it extremely difficult to get her to listen to his plea. The stenographer refused to lunch, sup or go to the theater with her admirer. Finding every avenue of approach blocked, the determined courtier, who possessed some literary facility, wrote a short love story, in which the girl and he were the leading figures. This story he sent to the stenographer every morning for a month and ordered her to typewrite it for him. She dared not refuse to do as her employer commanded, and, realizing through the story that he would never give up until she married him, she finally acquiesced.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Time to Water Horse.
It does not make much difference whether horses are watered before or after eating. It is largely a matter of habit, and experiments show that one time is about as good as another.

What the Cows Drink.
At the Geneva (N. Y.) experiment station it was found that Jersey cows drink the most, 5.25 pounds of water to one pound of milk produced; the Guernseys came next, the Shorthorns, Devons, Holsteins and Ayrshires after them in diminishing order. Milking cows will drink 50 per cent more water than dry ones.

The Abuse of the Currycomb.
Much has been said regarding the use and very little about the abuse of the currycomb. Some horses should never have a currycomb put on them. A fair sized corn cob in some cases will be found vastly superior. In winter horses not at work are in no way benefited by currying.

Campbell's Varnish Stains are the original and only real Varnish Stains ever offered to housekeepers. They work like colored varnish, producing beautiful effects without obscuring the grain of natural woods. Jos. Hagar sells them.

NEWSPAPER LAW.

1. A post-master is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law), when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the post-office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
