

LIFE A NIGHTMARE

Helpless and Broken Down, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Came to the Rescue.

There are many who think anaemia is a trouble confined to growing girls and women, but this is not the case. Thousands of men are anaemic, and attribute their growing weakness to mental or physical overwork, or worry, and who do not appear to realize that they are swiftly passing into that condition known as general debility, and that their trouble is due entirely to the fact that their blood is watery and impure. If the trouble is not taken in time, they pass from one stage to another until the breakdown is complete, and often until a cure is beyond hope. To men in all walks of life there is no medicine so valuable as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you feel jaded, weak or worn out these Pills will make that rich, red blood that puts vim and energy into every portion of the body. Making good blood is the mission of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and good blood is the one secret of good health and vigorous life. An excellent case in point is that of Mr. R. W. Ellis, of Balcarres, Sask., who says: "Just four years ago I was in England making preparations to fulfil the long cherished ambition of coming to Canada. My health at that time was normal, though I was never very strong. Three weeks before the time of my departure I was overcome with a feeling of general weakness and faintness which rendered me so inert and lifeless that my days were shrouded in gloom. Consultation with a doctor brought me no consolation. Debility was my trouble and I was on the point of a breakdown. 'Canada in your condition means death,' said the doctor. 'You must have a complete rest.' A rest, however, was out of the question, a fortnight's holiday I had and then back to earn my daily bread. The next years were a series of misery and despair, body and brain undermined with a complaint the doctor could only call debility, but apparently could not cure. Snatching holidays when I could I struggled on until the opening of 1909, when completely prostrated I was compelled to go to my parents and become a burden to them. My life was simply an existence and friends said, behind my back, 'consumption.' "In April, 1909, I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Three months later, on July 1st, I sailed from Liverpool on the Tunisian for Montreal, full of new life, energy and hope. In this great country I am making good and I owe it all to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In three months they changed me from a nervous wreck to a healthy man. When doctors failed they succeeded, and I honestly believe they saved my life." You can procure this great health-giving medicine from any dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GOLD OF THE INCAS FOUND.

Bolivia May Become Centre of the World's Supply.

If government reports may be accepted as truthful, all the gold that has been taken out of the fields of California and the Klondike of Alaska will be insignificant compared with the product of the fields of Bolivia in South America within the next few years. The source of the wealth of the ancient Incas has been found in its unexplored interior. More gold is left there than was mined by the old civilized tribe of Indians and which enabled them to offer to Pizarro as a ransom for the Incan King gold to fill a room 22 by 27 feet. The same field were the source of the metal that enabled the Indian tribe to furnish the Temple of the Sun, which Pizarro's followers reported was "literally covered with plates of gold."

The report is made by Alexander Benson, the American secretary of the legation at Bolivia. He says that Bolivia may become the centre of the world's gold supply through the development of these fields by modern machinery. Here and there a shrewd Peruvian has plowed one and been rewarded with riches. The reason why these fields have not been developed has been the immense difficulty in reaching the fields and in transporting any of the products from them. Transportation is difficult in the extreme and the cost enormous. Rough mule trails are the only means of entering this region and the transportation of heavy machinery now is well nigh impossible until passable roads are built. The building of these roads and the other preparations necessary before the gold can be taken out and marketed affords a great opportunity for American capital and enterprise.

The gold is declared to be principally in the forest-clad ravines of the eastern Cordilleras, which culminate in the important River of Kaka. The trails that lead in here and the appearance of the soil show that mining has been carried out to a great extent by old methods, but the gold that could be reached only by modern mining methods is there still. This has been done by private parties that made large fortunes within a few years of working.

In the River of Kaka it is not unusual to wash a pan of surface dirt and find gravel averaging $1 a yard on the surface, which would indicate enormously valuable deposits below. Where the river widens out below Incabura and the canyons give way to an open country, gravel is deposited in large islands and bars. These form a natural gold-saving table for all the gold-bearing flooded rivers that emerge from the richest known part of the Andean mountain chain.

On the River Kaka, where washing tests for gold have been made, there is a very large proportion of black sand, which accompanies the gold in the residues washed. This black sand is very heavy, non-magnetic, and is likely to show under analysis, in addition to a considerable quantity of gold, both tin and platinum.

Always Serviceable.—Most pills lose their properties with age. Not so with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. The pill mass is so compounded that their strength and effectiveness is preserved and the pills can be carried anywhere without fear of losing their potency. This is a quality that few pills possess. Some pills lose their power, but not so with Parmelee's. They will maintain their freshness and potency for a long time.

AN ISLAND OF SULPHUR.

One of the most extraordinary islands in the world is located in the Bay of Plenty, New Zealand. The small bit of land is called White Island, and consists mainly of sulphur, the latter mixed with gypsum and other minerals. The island is about three miles in circumference and rises about 1,000 feet above the sea. There is a boiling lake in the centre of the island, and this sends out acid-charged water. A boat can be navigated in the lake if great care is experienced. The sulphur from White Island is very pure and efforts have been made to obtain it for commercial use.

Wire Wounds

My mare, a very valuable one, was badly bruised and cut by being caught in a wire fence. Some of the wounds would not heal, although I tried many different medicines. Dr. Bell advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT, diluted at first, then stronger as the sores began to look better, until after three weeks, the sores have healed, and best of all, the hair is growing well, and is NOT WHITE as is most always the case in horse wounds.

WAIT A WHILE.

Wait till you're old and haggard, wait till you're bent and grey, before you complain, with a voice full of pain: "I'm am so tired to-day!" You are so young and active, you are so young and strong! You tired of the game, and, feeling no shame, singing a dotard's song? Wait till the shades have gathered, wait till the night is near, then you may moan as you walk alone, down to the vale of fear. You with your little burden, strapped to your stalwart back! And you would repine and utter a whine over the thorns in the track. Wait till your friends have left you, wait till your heart is tired, and you're mocked by hosts of the sheeted ghosts of things you have long desired. Youth is the greatest treasure! Youth is the world's red gold! And the man who sighs under morning skies deserves to be stricken old. — Walt Mason.
