WHY THEY LINGERED.

Parker-"Were you on the jury in the Parkman case?" Harker-"Yes." Parker-"Why did it take you so long to reach a verdict?" Harker-"It didn't. The jury was out a week." Harker-"Yes, but not for reaching a verdict. We found Parkman guilty in a few minutes. What kept us out was the fact that none of us had any work, and we wanted fern a little extra money."

WHOLE COUNTY IS RINGING WITH IT

Wonderful Cure of Rheumatism By Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Hutchins of Durham, Que., could not walk across the room -Story of her speedy and complete cure.

Durham, Que., Oct. 24. (Special) -Missisquoi county is ringing with the story of Mrs. G. M. Hutchins, who after suffering from Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia, is again a strong, hearty woman. In an interview Mrs. Hutchins says: "I was affected with Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Lumbago. My limbs would swell; my muscles would cramp; I was nervous and had a heavy dragging sensation across the loins.

"I could not even walk across the room. Then I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills and after taking six boxes found myself in the best of health-as well as ever I was in my life."

Mrs. Hutchins' troubles were all cause by Kidney Disease. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them so completely and quickly. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure not only Kidney Disease, but they are a sure cure for any form of it from Backache to Bright's Disease.

HE WAS DOING HIS BEST.

The conductors on the Liverpool trams are very particular not to allow any intoxicated persons to enter the cars.

One day a man the worse for liquor got on to a car unobserved by the conductor. The car being full of passengers he was obliged to stand inside holding on to a strap.

At each station the conductor calls out the name of the street. It happened that the conductor was an Irishman. The next stoppage reached was Stanhope street.

"Stanup strait!" the conductor called out, in his rich Irish brogue.

The intoxicated one gripped the strap tighter, and straightened himself.

Again the conductor called out: "Stanup strait!"

It was the last straw. "I am standing up straight, ain't I?" growled the exasperated toper. "Can't yer find somebody else ter shout at?"

A conscientious Sunday school teacher had been endeavoring to impress upon her pupils the ultimate triumph of goodness over beauty. At the close of a story in which she flattered herself that this point had been well established, she turned confidently to a ten-year-old pupil and inquired, "And now, Alice, which would you rather be-beautiful or good?" "Well," replied Alice, after a moment's reflection, "I think I'd a great deal rather be beautiful and repent."

CURED OF LAME BACK WHEN 34.

Mr. Samuel Martin, of Strathroy, Ont., passed twenty years of his life in misery, suffering tortures from lame back. He tried nearly all advertised remedies and household recipes, but received no benefit from any of them.

Some months ago, seeing Gin Pills advertised, Mr. Martin purchased a box. The relief which Mr. Martin experienced after he had taken one box was so great that he knew he had found the right remedy at last. He used two more boxes and is now completely cured.

are not a new and untried remedy-our grandfathers used them. Half a century ago, before Confederation, they were on sale in nearly every drug or general store in the Canada of that day, and were the recognized cure in thousands of homes for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Rheumatism and Kidney and Liver Troubles. To-day they are just as effective, just as reliable as ever, and nothing better has yet been devised to

THE MORNING CALL.

Ma comes and calls at early dawn, An' I say, "Yessum." She calls again and I just yawn An' answer "Yessum." I love to lie just half awake An' dream of fishin' in the lake And smell th' buckwheat batter-cake. An' answer, "Yessum."

Again, she comes and gives her call, An' I say, "Yessum." I don't git up nor stir at all; I just say: "Yessum." And then she hollers, "Willum, you Have got your mornin' chores to do, You'll have to hustle to git through." An' I say, "Yessum."

Each mornin' it is that there way; I just say: "Yessum." She calls an' calls an' I just say: "I'm comin', yessum." Then dad comes an' he hollers "Bill!" An' then I stop my lyin' still An' go to dressin' with a will, An' holler: "Comin'."

GENEROUS.

A little three-year-old whose mother was making a simple cough medicine for him watched the process, and asked if it was good. He was permitted to taste, and exclaimed:

"It's awfully good, mamma. Let's keep it all for papa."

HE FEARED BLOOD POISON.

But Zam-Buk Saved his Thumb!

Once again a case is reported in which the popular balm Zam-Buk has saved a worker from the terrible effects of blood-poisoning. Mr. Alfred Hy. Orth, of Shipley, Ont., says: "While at work I had the misfortune to run a rusty nail under my thumb nail, to the depth of about one and a half inches. The pain was terrible and what I feared was that the nail, being so dirty and rusty, would set up festering and blood-poison. I knew from previous experience how good Zam-Buk was, so I cleaned the thumb, melted a little Zam-Buk, and ran it into the wound. The result was wonderful! It soothed the pain and the thumb actually did not swell. Zam-Buk kept away all inflammation. I was able to go on with my work all the time, and in a few days the thumb was as good as ever. A balm which can do this should be in every working man's home."

Being composed of pure vegetable essences, Zam-Buk is an ideal balm for babies and young children.

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for ulcers, abscesses, eczema, ringworm, blood-poison, scalp sores, chapped hands, cold sores, inflamed patches, bad leg, varicose veins and ulcers, piles, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin diseases and injuries. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50c a box, 3 for $1.25. Post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Avoid harmful imitations and substitutes.

NO CHANCE FOR SUNDAY.

Minister-"Were you sick last Sunday? I did not see you at church."

Deacon Holdfast-"Naw I wa'n't sick. I hadn't no change to put in the contribution box, an' jest said to myself, says I, 'The Lord don't want no empty worship,' says I. 'He wants good deeds; and as I forgot to prepare myself fer doin' these good deeds when the contribution box comes around, I might better stay to hum,' says I. Fer a pillar of the church like me to be seen lettin' the plate pass would do more harm than good. Guess I was right, too."

Minister-"Maybe you were. So you found yourself last Sunday entirely without change, eh?" Deacon Holdfast-"Yes, sir. I hadn't nuthin less than a quarter."

THOUGHTFUL.

Severe Party in Corner-"I do think that you might extinguish your pipes in a lady's presence." Navy-"Lord bless ye, I'm sure the lady'll excuse us, 'cos me and my mate 'ev jis come out o' the fever 'ospital, and the tobacco might 'elp to keep orf the infection."

Arthur-Are you sure she loves you? Jack-Yes. When I told her I had no money to marry on, she asked me if I couldn't borrow some.

Temporary Heat Quickly

Did you ever stop to think of the many ways in which a perfect oil heater is of value? If you want to sleep with your window open in winter, you can get sufficient heat from an oil heater while you undress at night, and then turn it off. Apply a match in the morning, when you get out of bed, and you have heat while you dress.

Those who have to eat an early breakfast before the stove is radiating heat can get immediate warmth from an oil heater, and then turn it off. The girl who practices on the piano in a cold room in the morning can have warmth from an oil heater while she plays, and then turn it off.

The member of the family who has to walk the floor on a cold winter's night with a restless baby can get temporary heat with an oil heater, and then turn it off. The

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. Apply a match and it is immediately at work. It will burn for nine hours without refilling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. It has a damper top and a cool handle. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be quickly unscrewed for reworking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Dodging a Family Bore.

"I like a family dinner," said the woman, "but I'm afraid to accept invitations much, afraid of the old family story, not the story of the family-that might be interesting if told truthfully-but the old story that has been in the family so long it's like the furniture, only worse. They must trot it out. There's nothing else for it. And if they'd only tell it and have done with it-but no."

"You tell it, mother," says Mary. "No," says mother; "you tell it, Mary. You know it better than I do." As if anybody could know it better than she does, for no sooner has Mary got going than she interrupts her and tells part of it herself; then father breaks in and tells another part, only to be interrupted by Jane and Sally and the hired girl and the hired man and-"Oh, no! Much as I dislike paying for my own dinner, I prefer it to assisting at the trotting out of the old family story."

A man isn't necessarily charitable because he gives his friends away.

"And where have you been, my pet?" Thus little Willie's mother to little Willie on his return home after an unwonted absence of several hours. "Playin' postman," replied the family hope. "Playing postman?" replied Willie's mother. "And how does one play postman, sweet?" "Why, I just left a letter at each house in the road," explained the prodigy-"real letters, too." "Real letters, darling?" inquired mamma, smiling. "But where ever did you get the real letters from?" "Out of your wardrobe drawer," responded Willie-"those old ones tied up with pink ribbons."
