Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Away back in the fifties and for many years later, shingles were made by armstrong power, and a man who understood the business was generally called a shingle-weaver. Between the years 1850 and 1865 a middle-aged gentleman named Benjamin Ross spent some time in this locality, and was an expert at making shingles. The choice of pine timber those days was better than any time since. It did not take Ben very long to spot a good shingle tree, and on the farm of the late William Powles he made 23,000 shingles out of one tree. This was considered by the manufacturer to be the best he ever saw. The old pine stump is still serving as a landmark. Another shingle weaver of considerable fame was the late Augustus Sackett, father of Messrs. A. and H. Sackett of this township. He was considered a first-class shinglemaker.

In Memoriam.

It seems hard to part with loved ones, and this is particularly true in the case of children. They are given into our keeping by an all-wise God and for a purpose; but He alone knows when that purpose has been accomplished. When therefore we have them with us for a time and their little lives are interwoven so intimately with our own, it is doubly hard to have them called home to enter into rest. Mancil Smithson was beloved by all who knew him; was kind-hearted and true in all his acts; loved his family, his playmates; and until attacked by diphtheria seemed to be in perfect health. He seemed always to think of others, and during his illness his thoughts were of the expense and trouble his illness was causing, and he repeatedly planned a way to repay all this when health returned. But God willed otherwise, and he departed this life December 22nd, 1909, at the age of eight years, one month and seven days.

He has gone on before, and was called home early in life to grow and develop in the angel life in the presence of the Master. May God help and comfort the loved ones who are bereft, and may they always bear in kindly remembrance "the little boy that died."

"We shall all go home to our Father's house,

To our Father's house in the skies,
Where the hope of our soul shall have no blight,

And our love no broken ties;
We shall roam on the banks of the River of Peace,

And bathe in its blissful tide;
And one of the joys of our heaven shall be
The little boy that died."

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the eight-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country, there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official Institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.

CARD OF THANKS.

Owing to my inability to thank them personally, I wish, through the columns of your paper, to convey to my kind friends my appreciation of and gratitude for their many kindnesses since my illness and during the holiday season.

Wishing one and all a glad New Year, I am

SURE SIGNS

Of Kidney Trouble.

If your back is constantly aching and if you experience dull shooting pains, your kidneys are out of order. Neglect quickly brings on rheumatism, diabetes, lumbago, sciatica, etc.

Mrs. John Wagner of 110 Hollis St., Halifax, N. S., says: "Dull shooting pains would catch me across the small part of my back and extend into my shoulders and neck, often causing me to suffer with severe headaches and spells of dizziness. Spots would dazzle before my eyes and everything would turn black. I would fall to the floor and be unable to get up without assistance. A friend told me of Booth's Kidney Pills and I began their use. The first box gave me relief and I am now well and strong." All druggists sell Booth's Kidney Pills 50c. a box with a guarantee to relieve or your money back. They are the world's greatest specific for Kidney or bladder trouble. Postpaid from the proprietors The R. T. Booth Co. Ltd., Fort Erie. Sold and guaranteed by W. H. Robson.

Royal Household Flour

The best for Bread and the best for Pastry

"The Little Brother of The Rich"

NOW, this is not a talk about money.

It isn't a contrast between the rich and the poor, for in some things we are all equally rich and there are no poor brothers.

The poorest woman in the land can have just as good bread as the richest. The children who walk can have just as delicious pies and cakes and "goodies" as the children who ride in carriages.

All the money in the world cannot buy better flour than "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD", for there isn't any better.

And the woman who does her own baking can have just as good bread as is served to the Royal Household of England, and that is made from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR sent to England from Canada.

And then, a barrel of

"ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" produces many more loaves than a barrel of ordinary flour. The bread is better—sweeter, nicer to eat—and more wholesome—has more health and strength in it—makes more delicious pies, cakes, biscuits and doughnuts. Children, whose mothers use "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" at home, can have just as good baked things as the Princes and Princesses of England.

Although "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" costs a little more per barrel than ordinary flour it contains so much more nourishment and makes so much more bread of superior quality it is in reality the most economical of all flours.

"Ogilvie's Book for a Cook" comprises 125 pages of splendid Recipes which have been tested and tried. Every woman who is interested in good things to eat should send and get it.
