

TOOK THE ADVICE OF HER FRIENDS AND DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS MADE MRS. PAINCHAUD WELL.

She inherited ill-health from her parents, and for seven years was a sufferer from Kidney and Heart Trouble.

Whitworth, Temiscouata Co., Que., Feb. 20 (Special)—That she took the advice of her friends and used Dodd's Kidney Pills is the reason Mrs. Julien Painchaud of this place gives for the perfect health that shows in her every movement.

"I inherited ill-health from my parents," Mrs. Painchaud says in an interview. "For seven years my Heart and Kidneys bothered me. I was always tired and nervous. I could not sleep. My eyes had dark circles round them, and were puffed and swollen. I could hardly do my housework when I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. One box relieved me of pain, and six boxes made me perfectly well."

Every woman who is feeling fagged, tired and worn out, should use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They cure the Kidneys, and every woman's healthy Kidneys mean pure blood, and pure blood carries new life to run down organs which supply the body with energy.

If you're a suffering woman ask your friends. They'll tell you out of their own experience to use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Glasses which are used for milk or any milky substance should always be washed in cold water in preference to hot, as the latter is apt to leave a cloudy appearance, and necessitates a great deal more labor in the washing. The same rule applies to perfectly new glasses which have not been used.

After a Cold Drive don't fail to take a teaspoonful of Painkiller mixed with a glass of hot water and sugar. It surely prevents chills. Avoid substitutes, there is but one "Painkiller"—Perry Davis—35c. and 50c.

To iron clothes easily, damp the clothes and fold them neatly. Then roll tightly and lay aside for several hours. After this the clothes can be quickly ironed.

CONFESSSED AFTER 40 YEARS.

Ex-Clown, Dying, Told of Killing Circus Girl.

A remarkable deathbed confession has been made at Budapest by an old man named Schmidt, who died in a hospital there the other day.

Schmidt, who had been a circus clown, related that forty years ago he took an engagement with a travelling circus. There he made the acquaintance of a tight-rope dancer, and the two soon became engaged to be married.

One day the girl informed him that she did not love him and that she intended to marry someone else. Schmidt pleaded with her in vain, and then his love turned to hatred. He cut the tight-rope, and when the dancer began her performance that evening the rope broke almost immediately.

The girl fell from a great height and was instantly killed. At the time no one realized that her death had been deliberately planned, and Schmidt's secret was not divulged until he lay dying in the hospital.

The police have found that a woman was killed during a circus performance forty years ago, exactly as the ex-clown described.

IN LONELY ICELAND.

The People There Know What's Going on in Iceland.

A traveller in Iceland says that he journeyed more than fifty miles from the capital, Reykjavik, and saw but two or three farms in all that distance.

"During all this time," he says in the Youths' Companion, "I had not seen a sapling as big as a stalk of cat-o'-nine-tails. Extinct volcanoes surrounded us on every side. Dust storms swept down from their scarred sides. Distant gleams of glittering ice from the glaciers dazzled us when the sun shone upon them.

"But here, in a land where there is almost no fuel, and where few crops besides hay and turnips can be raised, in the land of the midnight sun in summer and the mid-day moon in winter, I found books and cheerful conversation, an outlook on life, and a knowledge of current events which I have not always found in populous cities.

"There are no schools, to be sure, outside of Reykjavik and one or two other small towns, for children cannot walk ten miles each way to a schoolhouse, and even such a schoolhouse would accommodate but two or three families. But the itinerant pedagogue goes about from house to house, carrying his store of learning with him, and leaving behind a desire to know what is going on beyond the bounds of the island.

"They were great chess players in the lonely farmhouse where we stayed and they were keen to play with us. Although my companion considered himself a fair chess player he was ignominiously beaten by the angular lady of the household. They had a Bible, too, and an Icelandic hymn book. We went away from our short visit to the lonely farmhouse with the impression that the home life in the typical farms of Iceland might well be envied by dwellers in more favored climes."

Young Man—So Miss Ethel is your oldest sister. Who comes after her? Small Brother—Nobody ain't come yet; but pa says the first fellow that comes can have her.

A bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, taken according to directions, will subdue a cough in a short time. This assertion can be verified by hundreds who have tried it and are pleased to bear testimony to its merits, so that all may know what a splendid medicine it is. It costs you only 25 cents to join the ranks of the many who have been benefited by its use.

Two festive ones were ambling homeward at an early hour, after being out all night. "Don't your wife miss you on these occasions?" asked one. "Not often," replied the other; "she throws pretty straight."

The number of bright children we meet is surprisingly large, considering the quality of the parents we know.

The Oil of Power.—It is not claimed for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that it will cure every ill, but its uses are so various that it may be looked upon as a general pain killer. It has achieved that greatness for itself and all attempts to surpass it have failed. Its excellence is known to all who have tested its virtues and learnt by experience.

The Tiger—What's the matter with the lion? He doesn't look well. The Lion—No, he says he feels sick all over. The Tiger—Has a sore throat, I suppose.

When cleaning a frying-pan do not scrape it with a knife, for afterwards the pan will be more liable to "catch." Boil out the pan with hot soda-water, and if necessary, scour with fine sand.

A tasty way of using left-over boiled rice is to put a piece of butter in the frying pan and adding the rice when the butter sizzles. Fry until brown.

CHILDREN'S SCALP SORES ARE HEALED BY ZAM-BUK.

Some children are particularly liable to scalp sores, etc., and often these break out with annoying frequency. Such a case was that of the daughter of Mrs. Albert Gaeleke, of 485 Amherst St., Montreal. Mrs. Gaeleke says: "My little three year old daughter suffered frequently from scalp disease, and try as we would, we could not rid the little one of this. We tried everything we could think of, but failed to effect a cure, until we were advised to try Zam-Buk. This ointment seemed entirely different to anything we had ever tried before and from the first application there was a marked improvement. The sores became less inflamed and less irritable. After a few days, they ceased to trouble the child; and in less than a fortnight from first commencing with Zam-Buk, they were completely healed. In view of these facts I feel it my duty to let mothers know how beneficial Zam-Buk is."

There is no doubt that for scalp sores, ringworm, ulcers, abscesses, cold cracks, chapped hands, frost bite and similar sores, Zam-Buk is absolutely without equal. It is just as good for piles, varicose sores, poisoned wounds, cuts, burns and scalds. Rubbed well in over the affected part, it cures rheumatism, etc., etc., and rubbed into the chest it relieves the tightness and feeling of weight due to contracting a bad cold. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Try Zam-Buk Soap too.

Cook (leaving)—"I should like to ask you for a written character." "Why, what am I to write, you idle, good-for-nothing girl? You surely don't expect me to say you gave satisfaction?" Cook—"You need do nothing of the kind. Just say that I stayed with you three months; that will be the best character you could give me."

A Mild Pill for Delicate Women.—The most delicate woman can undergo a course of Paramelee's Vegetable Pills without fear of unpleasant consequences. Their action, while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable. No violent pains or purgings follow their use, as thousands of women who have used them can testify. They are, therefore, strongly recommended to women who are more prone to disorders of the digestive organs than men.

EXPENSIVE. "Yes," said the portly passenger with the noisy tie, proudly, "this watch cost me a hundred and fifty dollars." "Weren't the police able to get your money back?" asked the meek little man in the seat just across the aisle.

The Pill That Brings Relief.—When, after one has partaken of a meal he is oppressed by feelings of fullness and pains in the stomach he suffers from dyspepsia, which will persist if it be not dealt with. Paramelee's Vegetable Pills are the very best medicine that can be taken to bring relief. These pills are specially compounded to deal with dyspepsia, and their sterling qualities in this respect can be vouched for by legions of users.

He—You are the only woman I ever loved. She—Do you expect me to believe that? He—I do. I swear it is true. She—Then I believe you. Any man who would expect a woman to believe that cannot have been much in the company of women.

Tearing Down Signals does not delay storms. Opium-laden "medicines" may check coughing, but the cold stays. Do not trifle; when you begin to cough take Allen's Lung Balm, free from opium, full of healing power.

SLOW ENOUGH.

Old Bill Titcomb had taken a sack of grain to an old-fashioned mill to have it ground into meal. He watched the ponderous wheels revolving slowly while a tiny stream of meal trickled feebly out. Finally his patience became exhausted.

"Do yer know," he said, "I cud eat that grind meal faster than yer mill can grind it!"

"Yes?" remarked the miller, "but how long could you keep on eating it, Mr. Titcomb?"

"Wal," replied Old Bill, conclusively, "I reckon I cud keep on at that rate till I starved."

Your time will come—but it won't wait if you are not ready.
