Funds Needed, Not Food.

"It is not necessary to fit up charity ships or charity trains to feed the starving Chinese. Bank drafts or bills of exchange will serve the purpose. Under modern conditions famine arises not through lack of food, but through inability to pay for it. Goods move not necessarily from where they are abundant to where they are scarce, but from where people want to sell to where people are able to buy."

This clipping from a Toronto exchange means that there is plenty of food in China, but that the people who own it will not give it to those who are starving. Canadians and others are asked to contribute the money to pay for the food, and are responding with a generosity that contrasts favorably with the conduct of the holders of a surplus of the necessities of life in the country where the famine exists, and should create among the recipients of relief a good opinion of the far-away peoples who are sending it.

Rural Phones.

From Canadian Farm.

There are some things about which there can be no two opinions. One of these is the rural telephone. No sound argument can be adduced against it. It is cheap for the service rendered. Its benefits in any rural community cannot be over estimated. It removes isolation, encourages sociability, and is of advantage in many ways in economizing work and minimizing the difficulties under which many farmers labor. To advocate the rural phone, therefore, is to stand up for something that is of inestimable benefit to the whole country. A community without a rural phone service is not availing itself of all privileges of modern civilization as it should. There should be such a service in every rural district. Once installed it will never be discarded. In cities, people who once get a phone in their homes think life hardly worth living without one. If this be true of the city where one can fraternize with his neighbor over the back fence, how much more true is it of the country where broad acres separate the farmer from his nearest neighbor. The rural phone has become an integral part of the rural life of this country, and the farmer or the community that is without it advantages does not realize what it misses. For $10 to $12 a year a farmer can buy more real benefit and comfort for himself and family in a rural phone than he can get by a similar investment in any other way.

Both Trophies Stay Away.

Fenelon Falls curlers will not have the pleasure this year of contemplating in their leisure moments the beauties of the Lindsay cup and the Bobcaygeon-Stanton trophy. In the contests just concluded for these desirable souvenirs of victory, either the fates were unkind or the other fellows were better curlers—but anyway, both Bobcaygeon and Lindsay defeated the local knights of the stone and besom; and all that can be done is to feel sorry and go after the cups again next year.

On Monday and Tuesday the last games were played, with the results hereto appended:

FOR THE McDLARMD-MCFADDEN CUP.

Fenelon Hockey Team Wins.

In the hockey tournament held here last week two local sevens, a team each from Haliburton, Bobcaygeon and Kinmount took part, out of the thirteen teams which signified their intention of coming. The Fenelon Falls seven lost to Bobcaygeon on Wednesday night by 12 to 8. On Thursday night Haliburton and Bobcaygeon were first to play, and Haliburton won by 9-2. Fenelon's second team then defeated Kinmount 4-1, and in the final game put Haliburton out by a score of 9-6, winning the cup purchased by Mr. Fountain early in the winter, and intended as a trophy to be competed for by a league, which however, was not organized. We understand the cup, which is a valuable one, will be offered for competition again next winter by a league of district teams. Haliburton in the tournament was awarded an outfit of sweaters for the team as a second prize. Following were the line-ups on Thursday:

| Bobcaygeon        | Haliburton          |

Pretty Wedding at Baddow.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday February 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Suggitt's, Baddow, when their eldest daughter, Bertha, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Goodhand, also of Baddow.

Promptly at six o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march, skillfully played by Miss Jennie Suggitt, sister of the bride, the young couple came forward. The bride, who was leaning on the arm of her father, looked charming in a dress of cream cashmere trimmed with over-lace and satin and wore a wreath of white roses in her hair. The marriage took place under a beautiful arch trimmed with white bells. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Montier, of Cannington, assisted by Rev. J. F. Ireland.

After the wedding the guests, numbering about sixty, repaired to the dining room, where a very dainty repast was partaken of. After supper and while the register was being signed, "Wedding Bells" was sung by Mr. C. D. Salter, the remainder of the evening being spent in music and games.

The presents were costly and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held in the neighborhood, the bride being some years organist in the Methodist church here.

The grooms' gift to the bride was a gold locket and chain. Those from a distance attending the wedding were Mr. Edgar and Miss Florence Hepburn, of Beaverton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Windrim, of Fleetwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim McGregor, Franklin, Messrs. George, Russel and Miss Bertha Goodhand, of Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Shade, of Sturgeon Point, and Mrs. W. T. Robson and son, of Fenelon Falls.

The young couple left on the eight o'clock train next morning for Lindsay, Toronto and St. Mary's. The bride's going away dress was a suit of pearl gray cloth with a large velvet hat to match.

On their return the young couple will reside in Fenelon township. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

Canal Work at Hastings.

The work on the locks as far as the main construction is concerned was completed on Thursday afternoon when the west breast wall and mitre sill were finished, and the mixer which has handled most of the cement for the locks is out of commission. The hoists will at once be taken out of the cut and placed up on the bank ready to allow the water to come in and the lock be filled for the hanging of the gates and fittings.

The coffer dam at the east end will also be torn out and a new dam built along by the foundry and east of it for the continuation of the wall.

There is some minor concrete work yet to be done on the top of the locks and race bridge but this can be done any time without stopping navigation, all but placing the concrete floor on the west of the lock which can in emergency be used as dry dock.

Mr. Haddock and Inspector Jas. McCabe of Peterboro, came down on Tuesday to put the gates and machinery of the lock in working order.—Hastings Star.
