

GRAND OLD MAN OF THE PRAIRIES

DECLARES HE OWES HIS SPLENDID HEALTH TO
DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Suffered for twenty-five years from Rheumatism and Kidney Disease —three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made him a new man.

(Swift Current, Sask., May 1st (Special).—Seventy-six years of age, but strong and healthy, Mr. J. P.
Lackey of this place is one of the grand old men of the prairies. But Mr. Lackey has not always enjoyed his present health. "For twenty-five years," he says, "I suffered from Rheumatism, which I inherited. I was nervous. My limbs would swell and I had a severe pain across the back. I also had a heavy dragging sensation across the loins. I am a well man to-day and I attribute it all to three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. My Rheumatism and Kidney Disease have entirely disappeared."

Mr. Lackey is showing his appreciation of Dodd's Kidney Pills by buying them and presenting them to his friends. He has joined the great army of those who have learned from their own experience

BABE HOOKS EYES ON CARD.

Little Victim of English Sweated Labor Just Two and a Half.

A baby aged two and a half years, who "works" for his living by hooking eyes on a card for his poor, working mother, has been discovered in London. By working all day until 11 p.m., together they earn $1.12 a week. This little victim of sweated child labor—surely the youngest in the country—is mentioned by a writer in the Empire Review, on "The Problem of the Child."

"I have seen a baby of two and a half years hooking eyes," says the writer, "so unchildlike at 30 months that he had not the curiosity to look up from his work as we talked with the mother."

"Gravely and industriously this baby toiler placed hook after hook in its place on the card, saving a few minutes every hour to the mother who earns 75c. a week at the most monotonous, weary, treadmill type of 'womans work' that exists. There are twelve hooks and eyes on each card, and the worker is paid 20c. for every gross of cards. First she sews the hooks on to the cards and the child links each hook with an eye. Then the eyes are stitched in place."

"Tommy," said a father to his precocious five-year-old son and heir, "your mother tells me she gives you pennies to be good. Do you think that is right?" "Of course it is," replied Tommy. "You don't want me to grow up and be for nothing, do you?"

1,000,000 MEN UNDER ARMS.

Germany's Field Manoeuvres This Summer.

Germany will have under arms in connection with field manoeuvres this summer practically one million men. In addition to the regular army with a strength of 622,000 men, over 355,000 reservists will be called to the colors, making a total effective strength for the army of 977,000. Adding to this men serving with the fleet, an armed force of considerably more than a million will be engaged in the gigantic war game.

The new firing regulations for the field artillery, just published, contain in addition to further directions for fire against captive balloons, a new set of instructions governing the use of the artillery against dirigibles and aeroplanes.
It is admitted, however, that artillery fire against aeroplanes offers slight chance of success without enormous use of ammunition.

A SECOND DANIEL.

Mrs. Smith (hearing a great noise in the children's room the other day) went up to see what was the matter: "Children! children!" she said; "whatever is all this noise about."

Little Jamie—"Oh, we've had

A DIMINISHING DOG.

In "Walks and People in Tuscany" Sir Francis Vane tells the story of a courageous but unfortunate dog, Turco, whose acquaintance he made near Greve. The animal was a farm dog, a splendid specimen of a black-and-white sheep dog.

Born with an adventurous disposition, Turco explored the neighborhood, and one sad day was shot at, and with such little accuracy that his near hind leg was destroyed.
A kindly English lady had him attended by a veterinary, and the dog recovered, although, of course, with three legs only. Yet his indomitable daring was not lessened.
He still roamed and fought many battles.

Then came the poison incident.
Burglars had arranged to rob my friend's house, and had prepared their way by laying down poison.
Yet almost by a miracle, Turco recovered after weeks of agony, and regained his spirits, too; for he sauntered out one night, had an immense battle with a dog larger than himself, and came back to the house with his fore leg hopelessly broken.

He now has only two legs, or had when I saw him last, yet although I had not seen him for more than a year, he limped up to greet me with the wildest of welcomes.

13 WEEKS IN HOSPITAL.

Came Away No Better and Then
Two Boxes of Zam-Buk Worked Complete Cure.

Mr. Fred. Mason, the well-known upholsterer and mattress manufacturer of St. Andrews, N.B., says:— "I had eczema on my knee, which caused me terrible pain and inconvenience. The sore parts would itch and burn and tingle, and then when rubbed or scratched, would become very painful. I tried various remedies but got no better, so I decided to go to Montreal and take special treatment. I received treatment at the Montreal General Hospital for thirteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was not cured, and almost gave in. A friend advised me to give Zam-Buk a trial, and although I had little hope of it doing me good, I took the advice.
Almost as soon as applied Zam-Buk stopped the itching and the irritation. I persevered with the balm, and it was soon evident that it would do me good. Each day the pain was reduced, the sore spots began to heal, and by the time I had used a few boxes of Zam-Buk I was cured."

For eczema, blood-poisoning, piles, ulcers, sores, abscesses, varicose ulcers, bad leg, sore feet, blis-ters, insect stings, poisoned wounds, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin injuries and diseases. Zam-Buk is without equal. Zam-Buk Soap should also be used for washing all wounds, eczematous patches and sores. All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c box and Zam-Buk Soap at 25c. per tablet, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

BUT HE PROBABLY DID.

"Father," said the youth, "I have decided to become an artist.
Have you any objection?"
"No, provided you don't draw on me."

Protect the child from the ravages of worms by using Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It is a standard remedy, and years of use have enhanced its reputation.

Tough steak should be chopped and mixed with diced potatoes and then baked. Grated cheese over this dish improves the flavor.

POLICEMAN JUST PRAYED.

Patrolman George Malone of the Denver police department is a firm believer in the efficacy of prayer.
One day last week he was called to make an arrest following a neighborhood quarrel. After listening to the stories of the women involved, Malone lifted his helmet, laid his club on the floor and knelt in prayer. The prayer was brief, but to the point. When he arose the women were silent. "Cut out this squabbling," he said, "and pray more." Malone is as strong physically as he is morally, for a few hours afterward he stopped and threw a runaway horse.
